THE OLD STORY.

s one who feels an impulse To do something very rash, et hesitate a moment lest. It seem to bold a dash.

o I fee! a new sensation.

That to write a note to you fould be just the way to tell you. That I love you like I do.

Sa I build my hopes on nothing.

The I hope you'll understand

That the thing I want to tell you
Is the o'dest in the land.

And it's what I've to'd you over

And again this whole long year;

It is just this simple sentiment—

I love you, Dearest Dear.

THE COLLEGE WOMEN The Annual Meeting of Southern As-sociation to Be Held in Atlanta April interested in educational progress and activities, as well as the attention of members of the association, is called to the fact that the annual meeting of the Southern Association of College Women will be held in Atlanta, Ga.,

Women will be held in Atlanta, Ga. from April 14th to 16th.

The objects of the association, as defined by the constitution, are: "First, to unite college women in the South for the promotion of higher education of women; second, to raise the standard f education for women; third, to develop preparatory schools and to define the line of demarcation between preparatory schools and colleges. Owing, however, to the development and evolutions of the association through its own growth and its alliance with the great organizations of women which have finally formed a new department in the National Educational Association, a great number of other alms, consenant with though not directly a part of the original three mentioned, has been adopted. These include not only the immediate and pressing problems of education in the South, but also the following questions. pressing problems of education in the South, but also the following questions; the physical betterment of the public school children, the socialization of the public school, and the enactment of the best legislation possible in regard to child labor, birth registration, compulsory education, registration, compulsory and juvenile courts.

It is, therefore apparent that the subjects to be discussed, and the sug-gestions to be made at this annual meeting will be of value and interest to all women throughout the South who, whether colleges graduates or not, have at heart civic betterment and progress, and they are urged to and progress, and they are urgen to attend the meetinf. "EARNEST WILLIE" TO WED. Noted Georgia Literary Chara

Soon to Marry. Atlanta, Ga., March 8.—The an-nouncement of the approaching wed-ding of Miss Margaret Beverly, of homasville, Ga., to William David pshaw, of Atlanta, is bound to cause great stir of interest among the thousands who know the taiented edltor-lecturer or are acquainted with his work.

William D. Upshaw, Willie," as he is better known, has for a long time occupied the position of one of the most-talked-of and widely known men in Georgia. Through his books, notably "Echoes From a Recluse," and by his "rolling chair lectures," Mr. Upshaw has rained the ear of a great portion of the people of the South.

As editor of The Golden Age weekly magazine published in Atlanta Mr. Upshaw now maintains his high osition as an influence in the upbuild nig of humanity along public-spirited and undenominational lines, and his work is watched by the thousands who have known him or come beneath his nfluence.

The story of William D. Upshaw's career reads like a history of triumphs over misfortune. He was born in $67. n Coweta county, Georgia, coming to Atlanta when 9 years of age. years later he removed to Cobb county, Georgia, where, at the age of 18 he was injured by a fall from a wagon. A severe spinal affection resulting from this injury, he was con ned to his bed for more than given years, suffering almost constantly It was at this period of his life that he first gained the name of "Eafaest Willie," writing under that pen-name for The Sunny South, at the sugges-tion of Miss Beatrice Christian of Powder Springs, Ga. The prolonged illness, too, was the turning point in his career. On recovering sufficiently to rise from his bed by the aid of braces and crutches, he almost at once went on the lecture platform. Though he still uses a crutch, he is tireless in his work, and spends a great deal of time in traveling.

He met with instant sympathy and cess. All through the early nineties he lectured in the South. making friends wherever he went. "Eardest Wille" he was called, and all who heard him thought the name peculiarly apt and fitting.

The founding of his paper. The Golden Age, in Atlanta, has in some degree withdrawn him from his platform work, but has enlarged the du-dience to whom he speaks. His work for Mercer University is attracting wide attention to that institution. The wedding is announced to take place early in May.

Late Saturday evening Mr. Conne Morris and Miss Lessie Moore were united in marriage at the home of a mutual friend in Edgement bustice of the Peace D. C. Gunter officiated. Miss Moore came here from Clayton and has lived in Durham for several years.

Miss Lula Carpenter and Mr. Watter R. Lawhorn, both of this city, announced yesterday their marriage. Thursday, February 25, and they have surprised a multitude of their friends. The News and Observer of that date carried a local telling of the purchase of marriage license. It was observed in this office and inquiry made as to it. The bride, who was then answering in uncommonly pretty voice, the thousand daily calls at the central telephone office, denied the marriage and said spe didn't understand it. She was correct, did not deflect from perspendicular act a "boloto" as Tabel the quiet wedding would have taken place either in Durham of Raielan, and when they decided to amounce it there wasn't the slightest objection to the match from any quarter, they just determined to celebrate it that way. When the Raielan paper printed the license notice, after allowing the happy folks to think it would not occur, the couple came here and decided to marry. Rev. George H. Church, of the Edgemont Baptist church, officiated at the parsonage in the presence of a very few friends.

The couple did not use the Wake county license. They returned that paper and took Dorham's permit. They are now boarding with Mr. McLawhorn's mother.—Durham Herald.

"Hooligan in New York." a melo-dramatic comedy drama, will be seen at the Academy of Music on Thursday March 11th. It is said to tell a con-sistent story and is as full of laughs and teers as any ever staged. The author, Sam Morris, has taken for his theme the incidents made famous in cartoons of "Hooligan" and has woven around the character a story of metropolitan life that is unique in the manner of handling and presentation. Any story that deals with the myste-ries of New York life has a peculiar element of interest in it. In spite of the newspapers, the police courts and the city authorities, hundreds of crimes are committed that are never heard of, hundreds of dramas in real-life are enacted proving that truth is sometimes more strange than fiction. Here and there in the newspapers you may see a paragraph that pussles you. Could you solve the mystery you might tell a story of human passion and interest, of love and hate as strange as any evolved by a dramatist. Such a story is "Hooligan in New York" and the author has not gone far afield in plot and situation to tell his tale. The locale is laid among the Tenderioin places of Gotham and some of the equally notorious landmarks of the seamy lower East Side which includes the once dread Five Points, a Chinese Opium Den, Cherry Street at night showing a view of the Brooklyn here Saturday. Practically all the acted proving that truth is sometime showing a view of the Brooklyn Bridge illuminated, and a thieves den: exterior of the Tombs Prison and the historic Bridge of Sighs. Of course "Hooligan" is the central figure of it all and thwarting of the villains in their efforts to injure and obtain the fortune of Nellie, a blind girl, is laughable at times and at others equally sensational and exciting. A stirring climax is the rescue of "Hooli-gan" who has been tied to a rail on the New York Central railroad track in the nick of time by his dog Flip just as a train is approaching. The character of Hooligan is a creation of the newspaper supplements and his

Chambers knocked the blows off, where upon Smith, it is alleged, drew a pair of metal "knucks" from his pocket and struck Chambers a heavy blow on the cheek. Chambers was knocked down and would possibly have been badly beaten by Smith had not another man interfered.

Chambers has an ugly gush on his cheek and a black eye as the result of the fight. It being evident that the wound had been inflicted by a metal instrument Squire Turner required a $190 bond of Smith for his appearance at Superior Court. He spent Friday night in jail and gave bond Saturday.

Cures Any Cough in Five Hours. NEW PRESCRIPTION HERE-

Here is given the most effective cough prescription known to the mediworld. It is a mild laxative, too and this is what a body needs when suffering with cough and cold on the lungs. A cough or cold indicates pol-sons in the system causing inflammation and congestion. Nearly all cough syrups relieve, but make the trouble worse by their constipating effects. This prescription not only relieves quickly, but it cures any cough that is curable. Get one-half ounce fluid wild cherry bark, one ounce compound essence cardiol and three ounces syrup white pine compound. Mix in a bottle. Tak for acute cough or bronchitis twenty drops every half hour for four hours. Then one-half to one teaspoonful three or four times daily. Give children less accordtimes daily. Give children less according to age. A few hours' treatment will cure and heal the throat and lungs of all but consumptives. Cut this out and give it to some friend who may need it to be saved from an early death by consumption.

Remember this is a third prize in each district. The fourth prize is a fine, stylich $100 buggy and the fifth a $50 Turkish rocker. These live prizes go into each of the clast districts, thereby making a separate and distinct contest in each district. But aside from this, three grand prizes have been provided. The first grand prize is a magnificent $2,000 White Steamer touring car, one of the kind everybody wants and would own it it didn't cost anything. The second grand prize is the swell, serviceable, powerful $850 Ford touring car and the the third is a grand plano made by the Henry F. Miller Company and valued at $750. Every contestant in every district has an opportunity to win anyone of these three grand prizes. So the winner will not merely be the leader of his district, obut will have more votes than any other person in the entire eight contests.

The Nomination Prize.
