Table with 2 columns: Direction (Going North, South, East, West) and Time (e.g., 3:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., etc.)

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

Mr. Walter Clark, Jr., left yesterday morning for Warren Plains to attend the Warren county court. Prof. R. D. McDowell, of Canton, passed through the city yesterday, en route to Morehead City to attend the Teachers' Assembly. The new pavement in front of the Mechanics Bank has been completed and adds much to the appearance of that part of the street. Dr. Hubert A. Royster has returned from Atlantic City, where he went to attend the convention of the American Medical Association. Dr. W. L. Pofear, president of Wake Forest College, was in the city yesterday, returning home from Winston-Salem, where he spoke Sunday. Prof. Ralph Ferrell, of Hartsville, South Carolina, after attending the funeral of Mr. C. B. Edwards, Jr., left early this morning for Wadesboro. Upon invitation, Mr. N. B. Broughton will stop over at Statesville on the 18th instant and deliver a lecture at the School lecture to the United Sunday Schools of that place. Hon. Wilson G. Lamb, of Williamson, chairman of the State Board of Elections, is in the city. Mr. Lamb says that the recent rains in his section have injured the crops. Mr. Elias Carr, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, has returned from Baltimore, where he went to look into the matter of tags and equipment for the oil inspection work. Corporation Commissioner B. F. Aycock was in the city yesterday. He will return today, when the Commission will consider excessive taxes of industrial corporations and the taxation of banks. The services at the Soldiers' Home Sunday afternoon were conducted by Mr. Leo D. Hearst, of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Roberts was at the piano, and the singing was led by Misses Katie and Lizzie Walker. A party composed of the following boys, Moses Woodard, Eric Knight, John Underwood and Darnell Thomas are camping out near Milburn. They report that they are having a most enjoyable time and have made several large catches of fish. Mr. H. W. Simpson, of New Bern, one of the architects of the Eastern Carolina Teachers' Training School at Greenville, is in the city. He will present plans to the Municipal Building Commission for Raleigh's new Municipal Building and Auditorium. The following party passed through Raleigh yesterday, going to the Teachers' Assembly from Whiteville: Misses Blanche Rankin, Lillie Brewer, Grace Hoffman, Essie Wheeler, Georgia Clapp, Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Whitsett, Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Jorner, and Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Rankin. An A. and M. graduate of this year, Mr. J. E. Latham, passed through the city Sunday on his way to the Pacific coast. From there he will sail for the Philippines, where he will join the U. S. Consular service. He will be accompanied by two other A. and M. boys, R. H. Faison and R. A. Sharpe. When "Tired Out" Take Hornsby's Acid Phosphate. It vitalizes the nerves and assists the digestion—refreshes and invigorates the entire system.

PERSONALS

Mr. S. Brown Shepherd has gone to Sanford on business. Mr. H. H. Patterson, of Chapel Hill, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Louis Pegram, of Smithfield, is in the city. Ex-Sheriff M. W. Page, of Morrisville, was in the city yesterday. Dr. A. D. Betts, of Greensboro, is in the city visiting relatives. Dr. Betts has just returned from Memphis, Tenn., where he attended the Reunion of the Confederate Veterans. Hon. Paul B. Means, of Concord, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Horace Upshur, of Richmond, Va., was in the city yesterday. Mr. E. G. Richardson, of Charlotte, was among yesterday's arrivals at the Clerch. Mr. J. M. Carson, of Rutherfordton, was in the city yesterday. Mr. V. J. McDaniel, of Charlotte, registered at the Yarrowborough yesterday. Mr. W. S. Penn, of Clayton, was here yesterday.

This Clothing Business Analyzed

Not a day passes but what we are brought face to face with an investigator, some man who has scrutinized, searched, made comparisons, and who declares upon the strength of his own unbiased judgment that he finds here not only the best-looking and best-fitting clothing, but the most exhaustive variety, the most diversified collection of stylish patterns. Our assemblage of men's and young men's suits comprehends every proper and popular style, together with the latest effects that have just come into the foyer of fashion.

Every Suit of Clothing from $15 to $25 is a Paragon at its Price

That means thoughtful and painstaking preparation for every taste, every form, and within the reach of every purse. A service without a parallel in its completeness, in its satisfaction—a service with full appreciation of and a direct catering to every man's desires and requirements relative to apparel.

PLENTY STRAW HATS, PLENTY NEGLIGEE SHIRTS, PLENTY LIGHT-WEIGHT UNDERWEAR AND HOSIERY, PLENTY FEATHER-WEIGHT CLOTHING FOR YOUR SUMMER COMFORT.
