ple my about

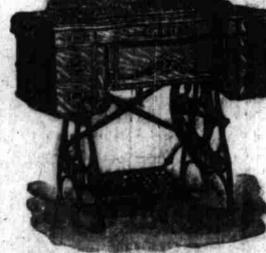

J. R. FERRALL AND COMPANY

JAMES HORNER WINSTON Attorney-at-Law. BANK OF COMMERCIA BUILDING Norfolk, Virginia.

$10,000 ROAD BONDS. Franklinton Township, Franklin county, North Carolina. Bids will be received till noon July 6th on $10,000 road bonds, bearing 5 per cent interest, payable semi-annually, dated July 1, 1969, maturing July 1, 1939. B. T. GREEN, Secretary, Franklinton, N. C.

6-15-2 wks.

WHEN THE SEWING MACHINE WAS INVENTED.

ARE GIVING WOMAN PRIVILEGE TO VOTE IN

DON'T FAIL TO GET IN YOUR

HART-WARD HARDWARE COMPANY 234 Payetteville St., Raleigh, N. O.

HOW TO SELECT

The first thing to do is to select a house which you know to be thoroughly reliable—a house of prominence—a house that is established—that has been known for the reliability of the instruments it sell for years past. Then purchase from that house as high grade plane as you possibly can afford—a Piano of a standard—make—a Piano with a reputation for make—a Plane with a reputation for reliability and durability, and then you will be sure of satisfaction.

Such a House is the

DARNELL & THOMAS.

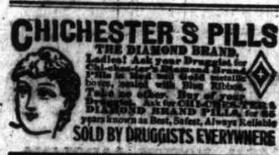

Such Planos are HENRY F. MILLER BEHNING,

SHONINGER All sold on the easy-payment plan at prices consistent with quality, by the old reliable House of Darnell & Thomas RALEIGH, N. C.

SALE OF BELHAVEN BONDS.
Sealed bids are hereby invited on Ten Thousand Dollars of bonds to be issued by the town of Belhaven, N. C., for public utilities and improvements, as provided by ast of the General Assembly, ratified March 1st, 1907, the validity of said bonds having been sustained in the case of Smith vs. Belhaven by the Supreme Court of North. haven by the Supreme Court of North Carolina. The said bonds will bear in-Carolina. The said bonds will bear in-terest at the rate of five per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annual-ly, and are to run as to the principal, for twenty-five years. Any denomina-tion to suit the purchasers will be adopted, and all bids are expected to include cost of printing. Bids will be opened at the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen on the 6th day of July, 1909, and the issue will be awarded to the highest bidder. No bid will be accepted at less than par. GEO. H. HARRIS,

6-15-to July

Town Clerk.

Choice Cut Flowers

Here she comes, and she's a sight, in her gown of spowy white, thing of beauty and of charm, leaning on her lover's arm! Bright her eyes as summer skies, and a glory in them lies, borrowed from the realms above, where the only light is love. And her lover looks serene, shaven, per-fumed, groomed and clean; pride is glowing in his eyes, that he's won so fair a prize. Lover, lover, do your best ne'er to wound that gentle treast; lover never bring a smart to that true and trusting heart; Strive to earn the love you've won, as the years their courses ran, knowing ever, as you strive, that no man who is alive, and no man since Adam died, e'er deerved a fair June bride! -Walt Mason.

8 4 8 Best-Brooks.

High Point, June 16 .- Miss Lena Best and Mr. W. D. Brooks, manager of the Pittsburg Plate Glass Company were married here this morning at o'clock, at the home of the bride.

8 ♦ 8 Edwards-Wiggins,

Rocky Mount, June 16 .- Miss Florence E. Edwards and Mr. James R. Wiggins were married here Sunday afternoon at the pastor's study of the First Methodist church, Rev. D. H. Tuttle officiating. Both are very popu-

Asheboro, June 18 .- A most beautiful marriage took place here this morning in the M. P. church at 10:30 o'clock, when Miss Anna Elizabeth pencer became the wife of Charles Michael Fox. The church was decorated with ferns, daisies, potted plants and ribbons. Rev. T. M. Johnson performed the ceremony, using the beau-tiful ring ceremony. Miss Florence Blair presided at the organ. The bride with her father, entered the left aisles preceded by her dame of honor, Mrs. Henry B. Martin, accompanied by Mr. Martin. At the same time on the right aisle came the groom with his best man, Mr. L. L. Whittaker. When they met at the altar Mr. A. A. Spencer, gave his daughter to the groom. The bride was dressed in a sage green traveling suit with hat and gloves to match, and she carried bride's roses. A large number of beautiful and costly presents have been received, attesting the

DICTATING TO AND PRANSCRIBING FROM THE

Edison Business PHONOGRAPH

Your dictating is one-half the time under the old method. Your operator writes twice the numletters each day with less

Your correspondence is correctly, carefully and neatly written, because First Baptist church of this city, the the transcriber puts down what you dictate, and not what she deciphers from rapidly taken notes.

You save money in every branch of your correspondence department, and Goldsboro, with a host of friends. unconsciously pay for the cost of the The groom, grandson of

Can you as an up-to-date business man, overlook these economies? If

J. E. CRAYTON & CO., GENERAL DEALERS.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

FRESH LOT OF MILD CURED

Sugar Cured Hams

F. F. V. Hams ..... 20c. Lb.
English Cured Breakfast Bacon, Boneless
We guarantee everything we sell, and deliver goods promptly.

Rev. E. P. Enington, or wake Forest, an uncle of the bride. The guests were limited to relatives and a few friends. The only attendants were Miss Emma Jessie Lassiter, sister of the bride, as maid of honor and Mr. Clarence and deliver goods promptly.

Best Of Them All Except the

Carolina Power & Light

NEW BERN, NORTH CAROLINA

popularity of the young couple. The bride and groom left this morning for Asheville and other cities for a Bynum-Foulkes. The following invitations are out: Mrs. Edward T. Bynum invites you to be present the marriage of her daughter Mary Mr. Audrey Delmaine Foulkes hursday moon, June twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and nine. Baptist church

Tarboro, North Carolina. King-Tyson. The following invitations have been

Your presence is requested at the marriage of Miss Lena Katurah King

Mr. Benjamin Franklin Tyson Wednesday morning. June thirtieth nineteen hundred and nine at eight o'clock Christian Church Greenville, N. C. Sanders-Jackson.

Statesville, June 15 .- Statesville friends and relatives are in receipt of invitation reading as follows: Mr. Arthur Kendrick Sanders equests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter Cornelia Hicks

Mr. Andrew Lee Gette Jackson Tuesday, June the twenty-ninth, at high noon, Church of the Ascension. Hagood, South Carolina. 0 4 0

Quinerly-Turnage. Ayden, June 18 .- A pretty wedding took place here Wednesday afternoon at St. James Episcopal church when Miss Helen Quinerly became the bride of Mr. Leslie Turnage. The church was beautifully dec orated. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Blanche Reid King, of Golds Rev. John H. Griffith performed the eremony.

The bride was gowned in a travelng suit of blue. Mr. and Mrs. Turnage, left on a bridal tour to Asheville and other points. They will be at home at Ayden after July 1st.

Aberdeen, N. C., June 18 .- At the nome of Mr. David Knight, the bride's cousin at 5:30 o'clock this morning. Miss Lillie Lee Knight, formerly of this town, but more recently of Ashboro, N. C., was married to Mr. L. R. Tindal, of Clinton, S. C., Rev. D. N. Caviness officiating.

The bride was handsomely attired in an old rose traveling suit with all appurtenances to match, and was given away by her cousin, Mr. Knight, with whom she formerly lived. The groom was accompanied by his friend, Mr. Adams, of Jacksonville, Fla.

The party left on the early morning train for Clinton, S. C., where they will visit relatives of Mr. Tindal for a few days, when they will take an extended tour of the Western States, closing their tour at Washington, D. C., where they will make their future home.

Both the bride and groom are widely known and very popular in this State.

$ $ 5

Marriage at Goldsboro.

Goldsboro, N. C., June 16 .- Mr Jack Shannon and Miss Pearle Fields, of Goldsboro, were united in marriage last night, at eight o'clock, in the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. G. T. Watkins. The bride, daughter of the late B.

C. Fields, is a popular young lady of The groom, grandson of the system in convenience, dispatch and late Mr. Jack Galloway, one of the best known families of North Carolina, and book-keeper for the Whiteville Lumber Company, Whiteville, N. C., is known as a prosperous and upright business man.

A musical program was rendered before the ceremony, Miss Maude Pittman, of Goldsboro, played several selections and Miss May Vinyard Holcomb, of Milford, Delaware, sang 'A Melody of Love."

The bridal party proceeded up the aisle to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Maude Pittman, in the following order: Mr. Royer Lee, nephew of the bride, with and relatives of the bride. Following Mr. Henry Clay Shannon, brother of these came the officiating clergyman, the groom. The bridesmaids, Miss Rev. C. A. Wood. Then came the Jane Davis Powell and Miss Mary Clyde Johnson; Dr. T. Malcolm Bizzell with Mr. Walter Denmark. Then followed the maid of honor

Miss Maye Fields, sister of the bride. Then the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Oris Eugene Jones.

The bride and groom left for Northern points. They will be at home after July 1st.

Marriage at Washington, D. C. Washington, D. C., June 16 .- A beautiful home wedding occurred this evening, of interest to Carolinians, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S Brown, 1422 Potomac avenue, when Miss Rena Gray Lassiter, Mrs. Brown's sister, became the bride of Mr. A. V. Joyner, of Wise, N. C. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lassiter, of Wake Forest, N. C., are temporarily residing in Washington and the ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. Ellington, of Wake Forest, an uncle of the bride. The guests were Holloway, of Wise, N. C., as best man. The bride was levely in a cream messaline satin, made directoire, and arried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lily-of-the-valley. The maid of honor was charmingly attired in pink seco silk and carried a large bouquet of enchantress carnations. The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. D. J. Brown, who also furnished music after the ceremony. Pink and white carnations with ferns and palms constituted the simple but elegant decorations.

Many handsome and valuable wedding presents were displayed.

Just before the departure of the happy couple for Baltimore and other cities, delightful refreshments were

The contracting parties are from well-known North State families and are held in the highest respect and esteem by their friends.

Mr. Joyner is a prominent young Baptist minister, a graduate of Wake Forest College, and for some time a bride is a young lady of the highest mental attainments, a graduate of the PLENEWS AND OBSERVER, BUNDAR, JUNEO. 1900.

Drake-Taylor.

Nashville, N. C., June 17 .- The marriage of Miss Zephie L. Drake to Mr. John Q. Tayler, Jr., took place here last Wednesday at the liome of Mrs. P. J. Ricks. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Sell. The groom is an excellent young man and holds a position with the Denis-Simmons Lumber Company. The bridge ble character. The bride is a young lady of lovea-

Atkinson-Courtney.

Lenoir, N. C., June 16 .- An event of social interest, took place today at Agnes Moring, wearing an exquisite parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, the wife of Mr. George Clarence orated with cut flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ira Erwin, pastor of the Methodist church. happy young couple are two of Lenoir's most popular young people. 8 4 8

McNairy-Rabb.

Lenoir, June 19 .- At the home of the mother of the bride, Mrs. A. E. McNairy, at 1 o'clock today, Mr. C. Dennis Rabb was married to Miss Nettle McNairy, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. H. McNairy, a brother of the bride. The beautiful ring ceremony of the Reformed church was used.

The decorations consisted of ferns and oxeyed daisies. The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for an extended trip. Miss McNairy has been one of the teachers in the Lenoir public schools. and Mr. Rabb is secretary and treasurer of the Price1-Cline Harness and Tanning Company and book keeper for the Bernhardt-Seagle Hardware and Furniture Company.

8 4 8 Marriage at Dunn,

Dunn, N. C., June 16 .- The Presbyterian church was a scene of loveili ness this evening, when the new church was christened by the beautiful wedding of Miss Myrtle Wade and Mr. N. A. Townsend. The church was artistically decorated with palms. ferns and bridesmaid's roses. The ceremony was performed by

Rev. F. L. Townsend, of Lincolnton. N. C., brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. A. R. McQueen. After the bridal couple reached the altar the attendants who had formed the center aisle arranged themselves in two semi-circles in the chancel. marching as follows: Miss Emma Finlayson, of Norfolk, Va., with Mr. Allan McMillan, of Fayetteville, N. C.; Miss Pauline Wade with Mr. Eugene Lee. both of Dunn, N. C.; Miss Marie Griffin, Wilson, N. C., with Dr. Chas. Chas. Highsmith, of Dunn, N. C.; Miss Bessie Stephens, Dunn, N. C., with Mr. Issaac Wright, Clinton, N. C.; Miss Fay Pierce, Faison, N. C., with Mr. J. Lloyd Wade, Dunn, N. C., and Miss Lillian Fields, LaGrange, N. C., with Mr. R. L. Godwin, Dunn, N. C.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wade, and was attended by the bridal party and just a few friends. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Jno. C. Clifford and Mrs. J. W. Pardie, and were shown to the east parlor where they were greeted by the receiving line, then into the west parlor where the many beautiful and costly presents were displayed, attesting the popularity of the newly wedded couple. Following this they were shown into the dining-room where elegant refreshments were served. The punch bowl was presided over by Misses Cain and

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend left on the midnight train, amid a shower of rice and rose petals, for an extended tour.

8 4 8 Marriage at Asheboro.

Asheboro, N. C., June 17 .- A beautiful marriage ceremony was solemnized at 2 o'clock p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moring, when their daughter, Miss Edith, became the bride of Mr. Henry Eddins Craven, of Concord, N. C. The elegant home was made radiant with the beauty and fragrance of flowers. Miss Nannie Bulla, at the piano, played the wedding march, heralding the approach of the bridal party. First came a beyy of charming young womens wearing lovely lingerie gowns and carrying ropes of white and green that formed the aisle. These were Misses Alice Tull, of Kinston; Clara ing just been compiled by Rev. Rob-Boren, Greensboro; Emily Hall and ert H. Brennecke, Jr., of the First Emma Willis, of Elizabeth City; Jessie Fuller, Lumberton; Beatrice Bulla Newport News, Va.; Nina Davault, Concord: Margaret Barnes and Lela Barnes, Maxton; Annie Moring, Annie State, were tendered a suprise. Blair, Bessie Coffin, all special friends bridesmaids, wearing becoming gowns of white net and carrying armfuls of white carnations with the groomsmer as follows: Miss Loula Craven with Mr. H. M. Robins, of Asheboro, and Miss Marion Moring with Mr. Wallace Hoffman, of Statesville. Next to en-of the graduation gift for the "sweet young graduate" can best be made here. We have a splendid assortment of small Gold Jewelry, Watches, Chains, Bracelets, Lockets, Necklaces—all of the very best and of the character that will give mutual pleasure to both the recipient and the purchaser.

All specially priced for this occasion. Your examination is respect-fully solicited.

Mahler's Sons JEWELERS, N. CAROLINA

mental attainments, a graduate of the State Normal at Greensboro, and interested in Y. W. C. A. and church work. ATTORNEYS AT LAWA

Practice in both State and Polestal ours, Office in Electric Building. opposite Postoffice, on Martin street Raleigh, N. C.

ter were the groom and his best man, Mr. Harry Lee McCall, of Statesville. Then came the maid of honor, Miss shower bouquet of white sweet peas wore an exquisite princess gown of markable. white satin en train with rich lace the ceremony a brilliant reception followed. The dining room was in charge of Mrs. J. L. Underwood. Mr. and Mrs. Craven left on the northbound train for an extended trip

8 4 8

North.

Patrick-Noe. The following invitations are out: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Patrick request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Sallie London

Rev. Walter Raleigh Noe on Wednesday afternoon, July seventh nineteen hundred and nine at two-fifteen o'clock St. Paul's Episcopal Church Clinton, North Carolina.

8 4 8 Statesville Wedding.

Statesville, June 17.-The marriage of Miss Octo Brandon and Mr. Floyd B. Porter, pretty in its simplicity, was solemnized last evening at six o'clock at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vaughn.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold Turner. It was a "daisy wedding" and the Vanghn home was prettily decorated for the occasion with daisies, other flowers and evergreens.

The bride is the daughter of the late D. L. Brandon, a well known citizen of Cool Spring township, and has hosts of friends in the county. She has for several years made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn and has engaged in teaching, having taught in Statesville the past two sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter left on a south-

Quiet Wedding.

Oak Ridge, June 17 .- Miss Clare Case, of this place, was united in marriage, to Mr. F. P. Ingram, of High Point, yesterday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Lowdermilk, of the Methodist Protestant Church. The affair was very quiet, only a few intimate friends having been invited.

The bridal couple left on the moon train for Washington and other northern cities. Miss Case graduated two years ago at the State Normal with the highest honors, and after teaching a month at High Point, was elected teacher of Latin in the State Normal College. She resigned at the end of the year just ended. She is the youngest daughter of Charles Case, Esq., who has been Justice of the Peace for more than forty years. Mr. Ingram is a promising young business man of the city of High

DAINTY MARRIAGE.

Miss Leinbach and Mr. Diehl Married at Winston-Salem. Winston-Salem, June 17.-Exquisitely dainty, like the little bride herself, was every detail of the wedding this morning, when Miss Bertha Leinbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Leinbach, became the bride of Mr. Ray Bernard Diehl, of Charlotte, Quantities of flowers added their harms and fragrance to the sweet, home-like atmosphere pervading the old home. The officiating minister, Rev. W. H Vogler, of Easton, Pa., uncle of the bride, came in clad in his surplice and carrying the marriage service of the which is quite a new publication, hav-

Moravian church, Uitica, N. Y. Friends, while awaiting the depart ure of the couple on their bridal tour through the western part of motor car drove up to the gate and in the general surprise the bride and groom ran the gauntlet and were whisked off in the opposite direction to the station, going as far as Salisbury in the machine.

CAUSE OF HARD TIMES

If People Would Use Split Bottom Chairs and Wear Patched Trousers the Country Wouldn't Hear of Hard

(Greensboro Record.)

Has anybody seen a man lately who ecovers split bottom chairs? It used to be a considerable industry, but seems to be extinct, probably because the demand has almost ceased. other words, the split bottom chair is not used to the extent it used to be. Speaking on the subject, up at the county court house are a few chairs of the split bottom variety purchased by the late W. U. Steiner, register of deeds, from some man in Rockingham youth, of chivalrous feelings, aided county in 1876 and those that are left in an attempt to rescue you from imhave yet good bettoms in them. They are made of oak and are as solid as a rock. But think of a chair that has and rendered your confinement more and rendered your confinement more speak a continuance of same, promisnot had a new bottom placed in it in oppressive. Amid all the vicissitudes ing even better and more prompt sernew. Speaking about the old split to recollect that your sufferings, albottom chair going out of use, it is suggested that one of the reasons is that trousers cost too much to wear of your friend and compatriot, the ilchair. In old times a man could replace an old pair at small expense, while now it is costly. If he did not care to buy a new pair, he could have the old pair patched, but who ever sees a pair of patched pants in these days? That's one reason we hear so much about hard times.

Chatham Still Ahead.

(Chatham Record.) About forty years ago Mr. Stephen White, of Bear Creek township, marked his name on a highland terrapin that he found and turned it loose. Last week he found the same terrapin near the same place, and it had not grown any larger.

Harold, aged 5, had been sent to purchase a pair of shoestrings for his "How long does she want them?"
sked the proprietor.
"Oh, a long time," answered Har-

LAFAYETTE'S VISIT TO FAYETTE-

(Continued From Page One.)

the Town House, where several hundred persons were assembled, numbers of whom, though rain continued to descend, as it had done for several previous days with little intermission, houses, Onkwood Ave. and N. S. had patiently awaited the approach of the General, regardless of every consideration of comfort or health. When arrived in front of the Town House, where a spacious stage had been erected for the occasion, the troops formed lines on each side of the street, and the carriages, containing the General and suite, passed between them to the east door of the House. Here, alighting from his carriage, with the high noon, at the home of the bride's gown of white meteor and carrying a gentlemen accompanying him, he was met by Judge Toomer, who, in behalf when their oldest daughter became She was followed by the dainty little of the committee and citizens of Fayring bearer, Adelaide Armfield. Last etteville, welcomed him in the follow-Courtney. The home was tastily dec- came the attractive bride on the arm ing words, pronounced in the forcible of her father, who gave her away. She manner for which the Judge is so re-

General Lafayette: The Congress The bride and groom left on the and carried a shower bouguet of of the United States, expressing the afternoon train for Asheville, and bride's roses and lilies of the valley, will of ten millions of people, invited will spend some time visiting in the her veil being fastened with natural you to our shores, as "the guest of the western part of North Carolina. The orange blossoms. Immediately after nation." Your arrival was halled as an era in the annals of our country. Wherever you were seen you were greeted with acclamations. The 15th of August, in each returning year will be celebrated as a day of jubilee by the sons of freedom. Already has American genius consecrated your fame. History has recorded the incidents of your eventful life; oratory has just left in the capitol of our State the portrayed your character; and poetry has sung your praise. The Governor of North Carolina, anticipating the wishes of his constituents, invited you to our State. The invitation was echoed from the mountain to the coast. My fellow citizens, the inhabitants of Fayetteville, have, also, solicited the honor of a visit. In their behalf, and as their organ, I bid you welcome to our homes. Forty-three years age our fathers named this town to commemorate your achievements, and to express their gratitude. We receive you with joy and exultation at our family altars, and request your participation in our domestic comforts. We are plain republicans, and cannot greet you with the pomp common on such occasions. Instead of pageantry we offer you cordiality. We have no splendid arches, gilded spires, or gorgeous palaces to present you, but we tender the hospitality of our homes and the grateful homage of devoted hearts.

Ingratitude is no longer the re-proach of republics. The freemen of America, when asked for their jewels, lows: rejecting classic example, point not to their sons, but to the surviving heroes of the Revolution.

cated the rights of man. You embraced cated the rights of man. You embraced receive,—Those Sentiments, Sir, as particularly excited when, upon the tuning sea of American liberty, when tering the interesting and prosperous ers at the Court of Versailles frankly represented to you the gloomy aspect of our affairs, at that crisis and advised you not to link your fortune with ours in the struggle for independence.

Your sovereign, also interdicted your participation in the contest. Notwithstanding all these adverse circumstances, at the age of 19, such was the liar state and connections, and participation of your detection was the liar state and connections, and participation of your detection was the liar state and connections, and participation of your detection your liar state and connections, and participation of your detection your liar was the liar state and connections. you not to link your fortune with ardour of your devotion, you left ularly of my obligations to my gallant wealth and beauty, family and friends, influence and distinction, and all the grateful thanks. The spirit of indefacinations of the most polished court, to encounter the perils of the deep, and to brave the dangers of the tented field. Your embarkation quickly sounded the tocsin of alarm, and the join in your wishes for the universal fleets of France and Great Britain were ordered to pursue and arrest you, my dear Sir, and the citizens of you; but, protected by the Genius of Fayetteville, to accept the tribite of you; but, protected by the Genius of Fayetteville, to accept the tribi pursuit. Your ardent devotion to this so very honorable and gratifying resacred cause, and your youthful en- ception. thusiasm "touched a nerve which viorated to the centre of Europe." The Southern States of the Union, Sir, have strong claims to your af-fection. North Carolina is the birthplace of American independence. At postpaid. Charlotte, in this State, independence "The Men of Sapio Ranch" is was first conceived and first declared. Although history may not have reyour treasure, and shed your blood in the hallowed contest; and. by the influence of your high example rou consecrated the principles for which our ancestors contended. The heights of Brandywine witnessed your valour and sufferings; and on the plains of Yorktown you obtained a wreath of laurel, which encircles your brow with unfading verdue. Never, never, can we forget the youthful stranger, who, in the darkest hour of adversity, so generously flew to our succour, and ,so gallantly fought the battles of freedom.

The names of Washington, Lafayette and Hamilton will ever be dear to American patriotism; and let it be remembered, that Washington and Hamilton fought for country home; Lafayette for liberty alone. Your ardent devotion to the rights of man was sealed with your blood in America, and attested by well and observer, who will assist in our America, and attested by your suffer- Real Estate, Rental and Insurance ings in Europe. Your love of liberty exposed you to the persecution of tyranny, and you were cast into the dungeon of Olmutz; but incarceration servedly popular young men of the could not extinguish the sacred flame city, and we feel fortunate in securwhich fired your bosom. An American ing his services, which were needed Nature has lavished her choicest Real Estate, Rental and Fire Ingifts on my native State. We have a

Eight 4 room houses, some of which are well located. Five 5 room house located in W. Raleigh, Brooklyn and Glenwood. Five 6 Room houses with Insurance, Bonds and Real Estate 11 E. Martin St., Raleigh, N. C.

Phone No. 316. PARKER 2 HUNTER. Insurance and Real Estate. 11 E. Martin St., Raleigh.

salubrious climate, fertile soil and numerous rivers, susceptible of the highest improvement. I fear, Sir, your anticipations may not have been realized. We have neglected to improve our advantages; we have relied too much on the bounty of the parent of every good. But the spirit of internal improvement is at length awakened: North Carolina may look forward with pride and pleasure to her destiny. We place our confidence in the liberality and exertions of succeeding Legislatures. Colleges will be endowed; the arts and sciences will be patronized; roads will be made; rivers will be opened; our resources will be annually developed; and Fayetteville, at some future day, may be werthy of the dis-tinguished name it bears. You have statue of Washington, the master-piece of Canova. Would to God that you could have visited the University of North Carolina. These, Sir, are monuments of an enlightened liberality, in which we indulge a generous

The darkness of error is vanishing before the light of truth. The doctrines of divine right and passive obedience are viewed as relics of ancient barbarism. Our political institu-tions are founded on the sovereignty of the people, from whom all power is derived; and here the jargon of legitimacy is not understood. We recognize no holy alliance, save that of religion and virtue, liberty and science. The sun of freedom is extending the sphere of his genial influence; South America is "regenerated and disen-thralled;" the thrones of Europe are supported by bayonets, and must tot-ter to their fall; and the genius of our country is ready to hall the spirit of "universal emancipation."

Sir, in behalf of my townsmen, I velcome you to our homes.

To which the General replied as fol-

Sir: at every step of my progress through the United States, I am called to enjoy the emotions arising from pa-You, sir, have been the steadfast triotic feelings and endearing recolfriend of liberty in every period of lections, from the sight of the improve-your life. In youth you fought the battles of freedom; in age you advo-tionate welcomes I have happiness to clouds and darkness portended the town which has done me the honor to most fatal disasters. Neither the ad- adopt my name, I can at once admire monitions of prudence, the precepts of its actual progress and anticipate its wisdom, nor the frowns of power, future destinies; convinced as I am, could restrain you. Our commission- that the generous and enlightened people of North Carolina will continue all assistance to improve the natural advantages of Fayetteville and make it > pendence early evinced by the fathers of the young friends who so kindly

THE MAN OF SAPIO RANCH—Horace M. Du Bose, author of "The Gang of Six," Smith & Lamar, Nashville, Tenn, 16mo, cloth, $1 breezy, refreshing, and often thrilling Although history may not have re-corded this fact, yet witnesses still the seventies." The scene is laid in live to attest it; and we now have be- that vast and indefinable region known fore, us in the patriotic troop of Meck-lenburg Cavalry, the sons of those are, many of them, taken from life heroes who made the bold declara-and drawn to the scale of real action. tion, that we were, and should be, free "Parson Jack Potter" is not only a and independent. South Carolina was real character, but that was his real the place of your first landing in name, as may be verified by reference America. Virginia was the theatre of to a not inaccessible record. C'Old your youthful glory. Forty-eight years Benite," the trapper, is sketched from have elapsed since you passed through this State to join the Army of the Revolution. You disinterestedly laver a life sitting. "Rio Grande Jim," and "Hook-Nosed Jake," the cowboy evangelist, are not only recognizable personalities, but their parts are sketched and played before the reader in terms of flesh and blood.

> venture, dramatic action, and excitement of the standard border story. with an exceptionally high motif. The book contains more than two hundred pages, handsomely bound in cloth, and is embellished with many finely executed half-tone drawings.

This story has all the charm of ad-

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We take great pleasure nouncin to our friends and patrons and to the public generally that we and have secured the services of Mr. C. busine on account of our rapidly increasing

Mr. Partin as capable, courteous and polite and one of the most de-

