Baltimore, Md., June 24.-Nude, with a weight of iron tied to it, the body of a young woman found yesterday afternoon in Back River, near St. Michaels, by two boys who were crabbing, was today identified as that of Mrs. Edith May Thompson Woodill, 20 years old. Mrs. Woodill resided at Los Angeles, Cal, but came east with her husband last week to spend the summer at the home of Captain Chas. B. Thompson, her foster father, at McDaniel, this State. Following the discovery and identification of the body with indications pointing to muc der, State's Attorney Turner, of Talbot county, today sent out telegrams asking that John T. or Emil T. Roberts was a comparative stranger in Talbot county. He went there last fall and bought a little farm near the Thompson place. He introduced himself as a writer and newspaper correspondent.

Mrs. Woodill had not been seen since Saturday when she was said to have gone out on Niles River in a motor boat with Roberts. Her skull was crushed in when her decomposed body was found.

Mrs. Woodill was possessed of rare beauty and was well known socially in Baltimore and on the Maryland eastern shore.

To Captain Thompson and others, who became anxious at the continued absence of Mrs. Woodill, Roberts said that she had come to Baltimore. He sought to allay the fears of the foster-

It was discovered today that crabbers in the river early Tuesday morning were passed by a vessel, from which they saw an apparently heavy object thrown into the water with a splash It is supposed that it was Roberts body and its weight that was cast into the water.

There is a mystery about the parent age of the dead woman, who, Captain Thompson says, was 22 years old and who was obtained by him when she was but two years, from the family treasurer. The society exists, among of a poor street car man in Minneapother farm employe in California and was born on the farm of a once prominent public man.

Mrs. Woodill before her marriage was given an excellent musical education in this country and Europe and she is said to have sung in the White House before the late President McKinley. She was a beautiful woman and highly attractive, and was given a warm welcome by her many dends in this locality when she r turned with her husband the early part of the month.

Former Secretary of the Treasury Lyman J. Gage took a great deal of interest in Mrs. Woodill prior to her marrige and, it is said, after that event also. Indeed, he is reported to have brought her and Mr. Woodill together. The former secretary of the treasury visited this young protege at Captain Thompson's and she is said to have visited him several times in California, and to have spoken of and to him as "Papa Gage."
