Goldsboro Wins Out in the Eleventh

RAILEIGH-ROCKY MT.; RAIN

Wilson Gets Her Worst Defeat at the Hands of the Tall Enders—Wilmington Falls to Make it Three Straight Clemments of Fayetteville Knocks a Home Run.

(Special to News and Observer.) Rocky Mt., June 26.—There was no game in this city today between Raleigh and the local team, through rain checkers were the order of the day to the fair sized crowd who turned out despite the threatening weather. The game was called at the beginning of the second with one man out and nobody on bases for Raleigh while a base on balls and a two base hit by Lambert for the crew had netted the locals one run. There had been one hit made by each team and perfect fielding. Ogara did the flanking for the Railroaders, while Pope was the opposing slab artist. "Dutch" Tracy, a local young ball player of notes helped quite a little in the enviable record of St. Joseph's College, of Baltimore this year. An who lead the battle at that institution, was in today's game and has affixed his signature to a local contract.

Game at Fayetteville. Fayetteville, June 26.—The Highlanders broke Wilson's winning streak to-day when they jumped in on the last call and did the Tobaccoists 10 to 1. The crowning feature of the game was Clemment's home run in the seventh inning. Streater's steal home, which was pulled off in the fourth, was also classic. Both Ferrall and Hallman pitched good games, but the Wilson twirler's team went into the air after 6 runs had been secured in the fifth inning on four singles, a double, two errors and a double steal, while Hallman's support was fast and faultless. The Highlanders' work on the paths was also speedy, five steals being secured on Holt. Galvin's pugging admitted of pilfering by the Tobaccoists. Tabulated Score: Wilson, AB. R. H. PO. A. E. The new "Hoe Press," being installed by the News and Observer, will be ready about July 6th, when the "Boosts" will again appear, as well as the National, American and other leagues' batteries and summaries of their games. Guerrant's first day in charge of Fayetteville certainly must have made him feel good as well as the whole of Fayetteville. And he beat his former team 10 to 1. The umpiring of Accessini was probably satisfactory yesterday as no complaint was heard. The uncertainty of baseball is shown in the Fayetteville-Wilson game of yesterday. Wilson got eleven hits to Fayetteville's seven, yet she was beaten by nine runs. The number of hits on a pitcher does not always signify his pitching ability for it is the pitcher who keeps them scattered that wins his game. It very often happens that a team with 9 hits loses to a team with 3 hits. If three hits come in one inning a score will occur surely, while it very often happens there is no scoring on nine hits that come one each inning. Wilmington is fast coming to the front. Took the first two from Goldsboro and yesterday Goldsboro had to fight eleven innings to get the third game. Sulter, of Wilson, is doing some wonderful hitting. He is now one of those dreaded batters who are often wanted in a crisis. It's quite a reputation when one gets so with the bat that the pitcher won't give him a chance. Fayetteville seems to be trying to make "Home Runs" the popular attainment in the Eastern Carolina. Clemmons got one yesterday and Schumaker the day before. Head Us Off, Somebody. (Special to News and Observer.) Wilson, June 26.—That Wilson is playing winning ball is verified by the daily reports in the News and Observer. Seven straight games in six days is playing "on some, and no mistake. But then Wilson has no cinch on the pennant yet and we are not inclined to order any fireworks until we see "the rag" floating over the home of the Western Athletic Association. It's in the wood yet for the tall-enders to change places with the notches. Cheer up, you who are at the bottom of the ladder, the series are only a little over a third over. Judging from the overwhelming defeat that Fayetteville put it to, you Saturday it looks most likely that there is to be some stirring around. GAMES YESTERDAY. Eastern Carolina League. Laurinburg, June 26.—Laurinburg defeated Columbia Mechanics in the 1rd game today by the score of 8 to 2. The only feature of the game was Columbia scoring in the sixth inning with Laurinburg's second baseman in the box. The home team has played 68 innings without allowing a score, which is said to be the world's record. When Columbia scored one run in the sixth a young lady in the grand stand promptly shed tears. Waiters' Pitching a Feature—Only Two Hits. (Special to News and Observer.) Greensboro, June 26.—Waiters' pitching was the feature of today's game, which went to the locals 4 to 0. Laval was touched up for eight hits and received ragged support in the field when infielder errors coupled with two hits allowed three runs. Carter was the only Twin who could connect with Waiters, he getting credit for the only two hits made by his team. Anthony and Jackson fielded brilliantly. Score by innings: R. H. E. Wadesboro, June 26.—The Wadesboro team is at home after three games with Union, S. C., and will play ball on the local diamond the first three days this week. The Union team comes for three games. The last three days of the week the local team goes to Laurinburg for three games. New Bern Tabernacle Wins. (Special to News and Observer.) New Bern, N. C., June 26.—Baraca classes of the Tabernacle Baptist and Centenary Methodist churches played baseball today, which resulted in a victory of 10 to 9 for the Tabernacle team. Bowling at Durham. (Special to News and Observer.) Durham, June 26.—The Durham Bowlers beat the Burlington Bowlers last night in the fourth of a series. The game took place at Lakewood Park. Each team has won two games, losing always on the trip away from home. The Durham bowlers are ahead about 225 pins. They will play the fifth and deciding game in Winston-Salem. FUNERAL OF DR. R. B. C. LAMB. Held From Christ Church at Elizabeth City Yesterday. (Special to News and Observer.) Elizabeth City, N. C., June 26.—The remains of Dr. Richard Benbury Creevy Lamb, who died at El Paso, Texas, Monday, arrived here this morning, accompanied by Mr. Take-well Lamb, were laid in state at Christ Episcopal Church until 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the funeral and interment at Hollywood cemetery took place. In the absence of the rector, Dr. Smith, the services were conducted by Dr. Drane, of Edenton. It was one of the saddest and most largely attended funerals ever held in this city and the funeral tributes were very elaborate and numerous, coming from all sections of the State and from Texas. The pall-bearers were Doctors Isath Fearne, G. Fearne, Walker and Griggs and Mr. David Cox. Hertsford. A number of prominent citizens and relatives from different sections of the State were present. Dr. Lamb was a beloved young man, and had a brilliant mind. He had built up a lucrative practice in Texas and had a bright future. His young wife is prostrated and seriously ill over the loss of an only child and husband who eloped together. His parents, Col. and Mrs. Lamb, had only recently left their son in Texas in good health, and greatest sympathy is expressed for them. Dr. Lamb was a grandson of the late venerable editor and scholar of Col. B. C. Creevy, of this city. "HOUSE SERVICE ACT." Statute Must be Enforced as Already Constructed. (By the Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., June 26.—An important construction has been placed upon the so-called "hours of service act" relating to the employment of men on railroads by the Department of Justice. The Interstate Commerce Commission was required by S. H. West, general attorney of St. Louis Southwestern Railway Company, to postpone the enforcement of the act until the United States Supreme Court shall have passed upon it. Mr. West's letter was submitted to the Department of Justice. Attorney General Wickersham says in part: "I beg to advise you that your suggestion cannot be entertained. This statute has been construed by the United States district court for the northern district of Illinois in the case of the United States against the Atchson, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway company, and in the judgment of this department, the court's view is the correct one. Until that decision is modified or reversed the statute thus construed must be accepted as the law, binding upon every interstate railway company and upon their managing officers. It is the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to enforce this statute, as thus construed, and the commission has been so advised by this department. Street Railway Strike Settled.
