Singer Talks

What Perfect Adjustment Means

If you've ever had the misfortune to own a cheaply constructed sewing machine, you'll know what it means to have parts constantly breaking, or the machine refuse to run for some seemingly unaccountable reason.

Singer quality and the perfect adjustment of every Singer machine save you such discouraging experiences. Every Singer runs so light and easy as to require practically no effort on your part to do the heaviest sewing.

Many women use a Singer who haven't strength enough to operate ordinary machines. The Singer does all the work, runs noiselessly and does not easily get out of order.

Should repairs or new parts, needles, etc., ever be needed there's always a Singer store nearby to save you annoying delays.

—Mrs. Mary Leggett and Mr. Joe Kennedy were united in marriage, Rev. A. A. Furguson officiating.

—In honor of Col. and Mrs. Kenan Asheville, N. C., July 8.—Col. and Mrs. Theodore F. Davidson entertained informally with a luncheon at home on Liberty street yesterday in honor of their guests, Colonel and Mrs. Thomas S. Kenan, of Raleigh.

—Wise, July 8.—Miss Carrie Dunn was the charming hostess of an elaborate and beautiful reception given in honor of Mrs. A. V. Joyner, nee Miss Rena Lassiter, of Washington, D. C., the bride of the beloved pastor of the Baptist church here.

—Miss Dunn, graciously assisted by Miss Sallie Allen, of Ridgeway, received the guests.

—Mrs. M. H. Hayes ushered the guests to the parlor where they were received by Miss Joyner and Mr. C. H. Hollister, and presented to Mr. and Mrs. Joyner.

—Mrs. J. R. Paschal received the guests in the library where the numerous and handsome bridal gifts were displayed.

—The guests were daintily served with delicacies of the season, and when they had departed it was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Joyner that they left substantial evidence of their presence, and the number of gifts and remembrances show in no small degree in what esteem the pastor and his wife are held by his congregation.

—Dunn, July 8.—At their beautiful home Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wilson delightfully entertained in honor of Miss Carrie Dunn and Mrs. A. V. Joyner, nee Miss Rena Lassiter, who are visiting Miss Carrie Wilson.

—The amusement, "Exchange Reception," being a novel and unique affair, proved the most successful social event of the season.

—Mints, cakes, ices and banana favors were served, and a special feature was the beautiful picture of loveliness and beauty was presented.

—The guests were met by Miss Flosie Fitzgerald, who presented them to the receiving line, composed of Miss Carrie Wilson, Miss Lucy Wood and Ava of Smithfield, Miss Madge Royals of Pittsboro, Miss Mary Dunn of Henderson, and Dr. Pegrum of Duke.

—At 12 o'clock the crowd dispersed for their homes, declaring Mrs. Wilson a charming hostess.

—LASSITER-LAWRENCE. Marriage of Popular Couple at Scotland Neck.

—(Special to News and Observer.) Scotland Neck, July 8.—At 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, July 6, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Whitehead, on Tenth street, Miss Mary E. Lawrence, of this place, was married to Mr. R. C. Lassiter, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., Rev. C. D. Creaman performing the ceremony.

—It was a quiet marriage, only a few relatives and friends of the bride being present, immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Lassiter took the morning train for Norfolk, Virginia Beach, Ocean View, and other places.

—The bride, a sister of Mrs. E. T. Whitehead, is the daughter of the late James H. Lawrence, of this place, and is well and favorably known throughout this community and has a large circle of acquaintances and special friends in Philadelphia where she has been eminently successful as a trained nurse. She is a lady of culture and refinement, endowed with the many graces of a splendid Christian character, and her life is beautifully characterized by gentleness and kindness.

—The groom is well known in Scotland Neck, having been a successful business man of this town a few years, and is now engaged in business in the large mercantile interest of his father.

—GRAZED BY A BULLET. While playing in the yard at home a young daughter of Mr. J. P. Rouche felt a stinging sensation on her neck and an investigation proved that a bullet had grazed the skin raising a blister. The officers working on the case believe that a stray bullet from a rifle fired carelessly in the neighborhood was the cause of the trouble and that it was accidental, though it came near proving fatal.

—GEORGIA PEACHES MOVING. Several Car Loads a Day Passing Through Daily.

—Spencer, July 8.—Peaches are moving North at the rate of seven to ten train loads per day over the main line of the Southern Railway. The crop, however, is said to be considerably short of last year and late spring in Georgia having curtailed the yield about fifteen per cent. The quality is said to be excellent.
