Miss Mary Austin and Mr. Pierre Walker presided over the punch bowl. The entertainment of the evening was a big Auction Sale. Each guest was given a bag of money, one hundred grains of corn valued at $100. There were about sixty packages neatly tied up containing every imaginable ar-ticle auctioned off by Mr. R. G. Alls-brook, the object being to see who in the crowd was the best financier, in other words, who could buy the most number of packages with the $100. Miss Jessie McMinn, being the most successful one, was awarded the prize, a box of candy. After the packages dies, Misses Lovelace, Paris, Etheridge and Delha were auctioned off and it is needless to say brought ex-horbitant prices. The Auction Sale was well advertised by a sign on which were very artistic sketches of the four young ladies.

After the Auction Sale refreshments were served.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Chency & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Statesville, July 9 .- Mr. Ollie Thomas Gillespie and Miss Nannie Maude Mills were quietly united in marriage Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sloan, on east Broad street. The marriage was planned as a surprise for the friends of the couple and the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. H. Pressly, was witnessed by only a limited number of intimate friends. The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. R. M. Mills, has for some time been employed as a nurse at Billingsley hospital. She is a worthy young woman, whose friends extend their best wishes. Mr. Gillespie is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gillespie who came to of Asheville and Miss Mary Smith of Statesville from the Elmwood com-Morganton, were united in marriage munity some time ago. He is a young man of starling qualities a well with his associates. He only recently returned here from a stay in Florida and took a position in Mr. C. R. Sloan's tailoring and pressing club establishment.
