

Leads all North Carolina Dailies in News and Circulation

EFFORTS TO STRIP POSTAL BANK BILL

Upper Branch's Onslaught on House Bill

WILL VOTE ON IT TODAY

Postal Savings Bank Bill As It Came From the House Enacted of Some of Its Important Provisions—Attack Chiefly Aimed at Section Relating to Deposit and Withdrawal of the Postal Bank Funds by the Government—Purchase of Bonds Protected—Against—Central Bank Scheme Lurks Around It.

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, D. C., June 21.—Agreeing to vote at 5 o'clock tomorrow on the Carter motion to concur in the House Postal Savings Bank bill, the Senate adjourned at six o'clock tonight after a day devoted largely to an onslaught upon the House measure. A number of amendments were offered but the "old guard" of the regulars went on duty and each side was successfully resisted the majority ranging from six to eight votes. Word was circled early in the session that the President desired the House bill and the message undoubtedly had an influence in maintaining the measure intact.

The amendments were directed to the section of the House bill relating to the deposit and withdrawal of the Postal funds by the government. The general contention was that the House bill contemplated the withdrawal of the funds from the local banks, for transference to the larger eastern banks and to the national treasury, while it was argued that the Senate bill would hold the money at the home banks except in case of war or other contingency.

The first of the amendments disposed of was offered by Senator Bacon and provided for the striking out of the provision authorizing the use of the Postal Bank deposits for the purchase of bonds. Supporting his own amendment, Mr. Bacon declared that the provision of the House bill but not the Senate bill, authorized the use of the Postal Bank deposits for the purchase of bonds. Supporting his own amendment, Mr. Bacon declared that the provision of the House bill but not the Senate bill, authorized the use of the Postal Bank deposits for the purchase of bonds.

The amendment was voted down by a majority of six, as was the next amendment offered by Senator Bacon and provided for the striking out of the provision authorizing the use of the Postal Bank deposits for the purchase of bonds.

MR. FLOARS DIED FROM EFFECT OF THE EXPLOSION.

All the Business Hours of Fremont Closed Up During the Funeral. (Special to News and Observer.)
Fremont, N. C., June 21.—Mr. W. B. Floars, who was so terribly scalded in the explosion at yesterday's explosion, died in about two hours after the explosion. Mr. Floars was buried this afternoon at three o'clock in the city cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. N. H. Sheppard of the Baptist church. All the business houses in town were closed during the funeral.

MR. FLOARS DIED FROM EFFECT OF THE EXPLOSION.

The tragic death of Mr. Floars cast a gloom over Fremont and the surrounding community. He was in his 48th year, and was a hard worker and warm-hearted man. He was greatly beloved in the Hunt township, Wayne county. He leaves an aged father and mother and three brothers, who have the sympathy of the community in this sad hour.

Deperate Character on Chain Gang.

(Special to News and Observer.)
Stateville, June 21.—Rufus Sharpe, the desperate character who so lately abused a youth in New Hope township a few days ago, and whipped about everybody who approached him, was taken from the jail yesterday and turned over to the superintendent of the chain-gang to serve a sentence of 30 days imposed by Magistrate Moore and Privett, who tried him in one of the number of assault cases. He will have to work out the amount in addition to the 30-day term.

Net Much of a "Revolution."

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, D. C., June 21.—The Mexican Ambassador this afternoon declared that the report of revolution in Northern Mexico was greatly exaggerated. He said that the disorders reported were only such as were incident to the average Presidential election. The State Department has given no fresh instructions for increasing the military control on this side of the border.

OHIO DEMOCRATS WILL TODAY RENOMINATE GOVERNOR JUDSON HARMON.

GOVERNOR HARMON, OHIO; CONGRESSMAN J. K. TENER, PENN.

HOTTEST DAY OF THE YEAR, SO FAR KICK ROOSEVELT INTO THE CELLAR

Terrible Suffering in Some Localities And Boost Taft Into the Sun Parlor

OVER 100 IN THE SHADE MINNESOTA REPUBLICANS

But Extensive As Was the Heat Yesterday Today May Be Even Hotter in New York and other Big Cities—Weather Bureau's Official Reports at Washington Disclose Wide Area of Torridity—Many Prostrations in New York—400 Under Shade of Trees in Washington—The End Not in Sight Yet—"Cheer Up; the Worst is Yet to Come." Perhaps.

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, D. C., June 21.—Everywhere east of the Rocky Mountains the country is in the grasp of a heat wave which is smashing June records and promises to continue with no relief in sight. Unless some disturbance turns up in the atmosphere, weather wisecracks predict the high temperature to continue though they may be lessened from time to time by local showers.

The weather bureau's official thermometers shaded by trees on the street level in Pennsylvania Avenue here registered 100 degrees at 3 o'clock today. It registered more than 80 early in the day and climbed steadily until the top notch was touched and then it began to recede slowly.

New Yorkers Stale and Poor Suffer Especially.

(By the Associated Press.)
New York, June 21.—Hapless New Yorkers stilled and sweated today while the mercury climbed steadily until it attained a maximum of 83 degrees by official readings at 3:45 p. m., a high mark for the year.

Epitome of the Principal Legislation in the National Legislature Yesterday—Arid Land and Reclamation.

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, D. C., June 21.—After passing the general deficiency appropriation bill, the last of the great supplementary measures, and the bill to reauthorize Justice Moody, the Senate today again took up the Postal Savings Bank bill and spent about four hours in discussing the motion by Senator Carter to concur in the House bill. The motion was strenuously resisted by Senators Cummins, Brister, Bacon and Newlands and supported by Senators Carter and Burton.

There was great desire on the part of the supporters of the bill to bring about a vote today.

The House held a night session and passed the arid land reclamation bill in the form in which it had been reported from the committee on public lands. The bill provides for the issuance of certificates of indebtedness to provide a fund of $10,000,000 for the reclamation of arid lands.

Earlier in the session the House agreed to the conference report of the Naval bill and to a partial report of the sundry civil bill, sending the latter measure back to conference for further consideration of Senate amendments still in dispute.

WHEAT COUNTY HOMES COST.

Wake	$12,489.85
Durham	8,759.78
Forsyth	4,899.70
Guilford	1,907.86
Rockingham	1,350.00
Tredwell	1,833.11

TO FIGHT AT RENO ON JULY FOURTH

Rickard Issues Definite Announcement

GOLDFIELD TOO REMOTE

Jeffries-Johnson Fight Promoter Makes Formal Statement of the Reasons Which Actuated Him in Turning Down the Higher Inducements Offered by Goldfield, and Says Accessibility to Reno Was the Deciding Factor—Seems to be Sure of No Further Interference From the Authorities of the Law—Johnson's New Camp and Other Details.

(By the Associated Press.)
Reno, Nev., June 21.—Tex Rickard definitely announced today that Reno had been selected for the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

Preparations for the arena were begun immediately. Rickard's official statement follows: "I have decided to hold the Jeffries-Johnson fight in Reno. In making the selection I wish to give my reasons for so doing. Goldfield made an offer which it was hard to turn down. They are the greatest set of men I ever saw. This morning a committee of Goldfield business men offered to take me to a local bank and guarantee me $200,000."

"I decided on Reno, however, for several reasons. In the first place, I did not feel that fight fans of the East and West should be compelled to take that extra 12-hour ride across the hot desert to Goldfield. Then, again, the people from San Francisco can get here on the morning of July 4, and leave the same night in order to be back in business on Monday-morning. For this reason I think probably one of ten thousand will come from San Francisco, that would not go to Goldfield. The Reno people have done all they could. They will build a suitable arena and pay for the 1100 license for me."

(Signed) "TEX RICKARD."
It is understood that Jack Johnson will pitch his training quarters at Delmonte, a resort just outside the city limits and within a stone's throw of the site likely to be selected for the fight.

"Chocolate Drop Jack" Continues in Active Training.

San Francisco, Cal., June 21.—Notwithstanding the preparations that are being made to move the fight to Reno, Jack Johnson today did his regular work. A large part of the morning was occupied by a brisk walk over the hills, followed by a lounge in the ocean. After lunch, Johnson called his sparring partners and spent the afternoon in boxing and gymnasium work.

Johnson has decided to move to Reno not later than Thursday.

Gov. Dickerson Promises Not to Interfere.

Reno, Nev., June 21.—With Reno definitely fixed as the background with assurance from Gov. Dickerson that no attempt to interfere will be made by the State authorities, the Jeffries and Johnson fight seems certain of fulfillment on July 4th.

The selection of a site for staging the big fight was made this afternoon. It is a rocky field in East Reno, about a mile and a half from the heart of the city. It is familiar in ring history as the scene of the fight between Adams and Cal. Kowalski. To better his good humor, he won most of the money in the card game. Before leaving Ben Lomond tonight, Jeffries and his helpers later left for Reno. On the trip from Ben Lomond, Jeffries whiled the hours away in a card game with Joe Chynaski, his friend Dick Adams and Cal. Kowalski. To better his good humor, he won most of the money in the card game. Before leaving Ben Lomond tonight, Jeffries put in a good morning's work. His labor lasted over an hour and included snappy bag punching, rope skipping, shadow boxing and exercise at the pulley weights.

Jeffries expects to be back at the grind at Moana tomorrow afternoon.

OBEDIENCE TEDDY'S ORDERS

THIS STORY SHOWS THAT NO BODY KNOWS WHAT THE "MURK GENTLEMAN OF SAGA" MOORE HILL DID YESTERDAY.

(By the Associated Press.)
Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 21.—Sagamore Hill settled down today to the routine of the summer weeks, which Theodore Roosevelt has dedicated to peace and quiet. Col. Roosevelt spent the day in the leafy environs of his estate but not in idleness. Before he was awake in the morning a caller had arrived.

Next came an interviewer who had not heard of the Colonel's order barring all investigators from his home. Hardly had he made his expeditious exit when two more callers arrived. Later came a party of four who were guests at Sagamore Hill on their night. The Colonel also unpacked some of his luggage, took a walk, entertained his guests and went through part of the mass of mail which has accumulated since from this day was one of rest.

Wonder Who His Critics Were?

The noon train brought Gen. Luke Wright, ex-Secretary of War, and James Thompson Williams, Jr., a former newspaper man, whom President Taft made civil service commissioner. Mr. Williams now lives in New Mexico. Oyster Bay is exhibiting considerable interest in the purpose of his visit. He was met at the station by Miss Ethel Roosevelt, who had come in a carriage to meet him.

General Wright remained at Sagamore Hill only long enough for luncheon and to see some of Mr. Roosevelt's African trophies.

"The Colonel seems to be enjoying life thoroughly," said he. "My visit was purely a social one."

Did Anybody Say He Was Tired of Being Spied Upon?

Late in the afternoon Jos. B. Bishop, secretary of the Panama Canal commission and G. C. LaForge, an architect, arrived. Both were accompanied by their wives, and remained over night with the Roosevelts. Mr. Bishop said Col. Roosevelt wanted to learn about progress on the canal. Mr. LaForge said he had come down just to see his old friend, the Colonel.

BIG RALLY THURSDAY NIGHT

Anti-Ring Speakers will Address the Democracy in Court House

THERE is to be a GREAT MEETING in the court house in Raleigh on Thursday night. The meeting will begin at 8:15 and there will be addresses by Anti-Ring speakers who will clearly set out the issues of the campaign. The meeting will be a stirring one, full of interest. It will be worth while to be there. The meeting brings nearly to a close a campaign to redeem the Democracy of Wake County from Ring Rule. The Anti-Ring Mass Meeting Democratic ticket will be elected on Saturday. The only question is how great will be the majority. All Democrats are invited to attend the meeting Thursday night. It begins at 8:15.

only a few have done the required thing of these the Wisconsin stands at the head of those which have completed the competition with a score of 41.54; the Maryland second with 37.87 and the West Virginian third with 32.24.

CLERGY AND LAITY NOW IN SESSION

Meeting of Value at St. Mary's School

THE BISHOP OF DELAWARE

Delivers Address That Are of Great Value and These Will Occur Each Day of Session This Week—The Entire Program Being One Much Interest to the Church.

The conference of the clergy and laity of the two dioceses of the Episcopal church which is to continue for four days at St. Mary's school began yesterday morning with the celebration of the Holy Communion, there being exercises at morning, afternoon and night sessions, the main addresses of the day being by Rt. Rev. Frederick of Kansas, Bishop of Delaware.

There are in attendance already some forty or more visitors from out of the city and great interest is being shown in the conference, which is largely attended from the city. The diocese are being entertained at St. Mary's, and it is found that this arrangement is a most admirable one, and that it works to an advantage. There are other visitors expected today at the conference.

Besides the addresses of Bishop Kinsman there were conferences during the morning and night sessions, which were most interesting and profitable. At the afternoon session there was an address by Archbishop Fisher. There was deep interest in all other meetings.

Addresses of Bishop Kinsman.

The first address which was given at a quarter past nine, was the topic, "The Religious Conditions of Modern Germany." The first part of the address was devoted to the consideration of the different parties in the established Evangelical church of Germany and of certain influences which have determined religious development. The second portion of the address related to the teachings and principles of Albrecht Ritschl, the speaker emphasizing the fact that the Ritschlian Movement, when taken in its historical context, is movement in the direction of conservative Christianity.

The second address was given at 11 o'clock. The subject was "The Influence of Calvinism." In speaking briefly of the theological principles of John Calvin, the conception of God as Power and its practical application in the doctrine of predestination, the speaker dwelt on its effects in the development of character, pointing out the Calvinistic influence as a great element of strength which has made indelible marks on the history of modern nations, especially in this country. There have also been various reactions from Calvinism, chiefly in the form of Unitarianism and Universalism, which must be considered in dealing with the influence of this system. The chief point made was that America owes a debt to Calvinistic influence for men of strong character and clear convictions, whose influence must be perpetuated in the future of American Christianity.

A Conference is Held.

It had been expected that there would be an address by Rev. L. N. Caley of Philadelphia, at 10:30, but he is kept almost by schedule. In place of this it was thought wise to have after the morning address of the Bishop a conference so as to give to both the clergy and the laymen opportunity for informal discussions of the problems nearest to the heart of each in respective fields of labor.

Accordingly Rev. Thos. P. Noy, of Wilmington, called the meeting to order for the purpose of organizing. Upon motion of Dr. Robt. B. Drane, of Edenton, Mr. Noy was chosen chairman of these meetings. A steering committee was elected, consisting of Rev. I. W. Hughes, of the Diocese of North Carolina; Rev. E. R. Guignard, of the Diocese of South Carolina; Rev. McNeely Dubose, of the Diocese of Asheville, and Rev. Thos. P. Noy, of the Diocese of East Carolina. Upon motion of Bishop Cheshire Mr. L. L. Harrgrave, a layman, was made secretary and ex-officio member of the steering committee. These motions were carried without dissent.

The steering committee proceeded to business at once. Nine minutes was the time limit allowed a leader in discussion of any subject. The five minutes allowed each succeeding speaker.

Rev. Geo. W. Lay moved that Mr. Dubose speak on "The Laymen's Missionary Movement." He heartily responded and with earnestness told of the spirit that has been awakened in Morganton and Burke county by a definite plan of work.

By request Bishop Cheshire was asked to speak on the subject and to show the relation of the church to this movement. He spoke feelingly upon church unity and showed how this movement might be directly helpful in bringing about this unity which is so earnestly desired by the laity. After the Rev. B. E. Laster, of Hartford, spoke briefly on the matter and showed what was done in his parish by a single layman.

The Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session at five o'clock there were addresses by Rev. Edmund N. Joyner, formerly archdeacon of the colored ward in the Diocese of South Carolina, and Rev. Henry B. Delaney, archdeacon of the colored convocation of the Diocese of North Carolina. The subject was "The Church's Duty to the Negro." In this there was set out the duty of the white race to educate the negro in the development of character, both by scientific training and by force of example, that the negro thus helped is thoroughly qualified for such efforts and is glad to respond, going out from his own (Continued on Page Seven.)