RUBE HOWARD WINS 12 INNING CONTEST

It Takes Fayetteville 10 Innings to Down Giants

WILSON WINS THE LAST

In a Pitches' Battle Between Johnson and Howard, Wilmington Got the Winning Run in the Twelfth on a Fluke—Stewart's Magnificent Pitching Won the Game and Gave Wilson the Lead in Eastern Carolina. Mayry, in Good Form, Downs Goldsboro, But It Was Necessary to Go An Extra Frame for Boyce Was Pitching Just as Good.

The ballers for twenty-nine successive innings had failed to score on the Red Birds, but luck favored them in their thirtieth inning and they made one run, which won them the game yesterday afternoon after battling for twelve innings.

The contest throughout was brilliant, and both sides obtained the up-plate of the fans by making start-line plays every other inning or so. It was a pitchers' battle between Rube Howard and Johnson. Rube was never in better form, always fooling the best batters when his meat runs, and his control was exceptionally good. He had four feinting chances also which he handled in gilt-edged style, shooting them to first with accuracy and as fast as a rocket. Other words it was impossible to hunt on the Rube of yesterday.

Johnson, twirling for the Red Birds, also pitched a magnificent game. Seldom was a pitcher given more gilt-edge support than his team-mates handed to the big fellow. The bright particular star of the game was Keating. If ever a shortstop played any faster ball than this youngster the fans would like to see him trotted out on the field, which he left left field back of third and scooped up a grounder. Merely getting to this ball and stopping it would have caused applause but Keating did more. He shot to first in time to rob the runner. During the entire twelve innings only one error occurred on both sides, and it is with regret that this is charged to Keating, for it was the hardest kind of luck that caused it. There was a runner on first and as the batter hit a quick liner, Keating, anxious to make a double, in running fast to get the ball tripped and fell just as he got his hands on the ball, which he dropped. Out of nine chances, half of them being difficult, Keating only missed this one, which really is not an error because it was occasioned under such trying circumstances.

The playing at first by Hobbs and Mills was of the big league variety. In one instance Hobbs, playing way off, stopped a hot runner, an act which he could not reach the bag before the runner, surprised every one by sliding feet foremost and getting his man.

Wilmington, ninth—Cooper flies to left; Tydeman fouls to catcher; Orth flies to left. Raleigh, ninth—Bigbie out pitcher to first; Hobbs hits to right field but the unusual happens and he is thrown out at first. Al Orth jumps in the air and pulls down Mullaney's drive. THE FANS AT FAYETTEVILLE ROAST UMPIRE FREEMAN. (Special to News and Observer.) Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 17.—In a pretty 13-inning pitcher's battle, in which Mayser, one of the leading pitchers of the Eastern Carolina League, added another good twister's scalp to his belt, Fayetteville defeated Goldsboro, 1 to 1, by splendid pinch hitting combined with Mayser's strong pitching. Galvin scored both of Fayetteville's runs. Pinch hits by O'Halaran (batting for Cantwell) and Landgraf brought in one being, while Hartley (batting for Brandt) in the 10th, singled, with two runners waiting to score. Not a single clean outfield hit was secured off Mayser. Boyce also pitched strongly, but Fayetteville would have won easily but for efforts of Umpire Freeman of Goldsboro, who was rotated to a turning spot.

DETROIT DOWNS SENATORS IN 13th IN THE RAIN AND MUD. Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—Washington and Detroit played in the rain again today, the victory going to the latter in the thirteenth inning. 4 to 2. The fielding was remarkable under the conditions, many sensational plays being made by McBride, Cobb and Rush. Cobb spiked Eberfield in the ninth inning and the latter had to retire from the game. Morarity was put off the field and out of the game for continued objections to Umpire Kerin's decisions.

The return of Burch to centre field seems to have had a wholesome effect on the Brooklyn's playing. Pitcher Brown, of Cincinnati, is slowing about as few hits per game as any pitcher in the business.

An Important Ruling in Baseball. (By the Associated Press.) Cincinnati, O., Aug. 17.—After the signing of Ernest B. Losh, formerly a player on the rolls of the New York and St. Louis National League teams, and on the Try team of the New York State League, a free agent of the National Baseball Commission today promulgated the following ruling: If a player is released by a minor league club without notifying the club having an option on his services, he is responsible for his salary until he gets another engagement. If he does notify the club holding the option that he is to be released, the player and his club will be permitted to release the player outright.

Cork-Center Balls Endorsed. From New York Globe. President Lusk of the National League has come to the conclusion that the cork-center ball is all right, and that the complaints same in simply an amount of a bad couple of dozen balls sent to Chicago, which the makers have taken back and replaced with good balls. For the present, at least, the league will continue to use the cork-center ball in all games.

Player Competition Run Mad. From Washington Post. At the rate the price for minor league ball players wanted by the major leagues is coming up, the figures indicate that the prohibitive are long enough to stand notwithstanding their own money. It is reported that a player from one of the minor leagues has secured a contract with a major league club for $10,000 a year. In many cases it is expected to develop a player who will be worth the pennant.

DRUG HABITS CURED

Since the establishment of this institution a little more than a year ago the record of achievement has been marvelous. To cure a morphine fiend at all was considered almost impossible, but to cure him in a week's time was thought to be out of the question. Yet we have done it here time and time again, and are doing it now. We take any case of drug additions, no matter how hopeless and GUARANTEE A CURE. We are a responsible corporation of business men and this guarantee is worth something. If you have a friend who is hopelessly addicted to morphine or other drugs send him here. He will in a week be the happiest man you have ever seen.
