PAST HELP SHE THOUGHT

Hopeless Condition of One Oklahoma Lady, Who Tells How Cardul Brought Back Her Health and Strength

Chandler, Okla.—"I hardly know," writes Mrs. Ella Flowers, of this place, "how to thank you for the good that Cardul has done me. When I first wrote, I thought I was past help, but Cardul relieved me at once. I gained at least 10 pounds, and everybody says I look so much better. I am still improving greatly. I owe you sincere thanks for your Cardul."

There are many women, completely worn-out and discouraged, on account of some form of womanly illness. Are you? Have you tried Cardul? If not, why?

Thousands have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardul has been to them. Cardul has a record of over half a century, as a successful remedy for women. During this time, for a million women have found relief in Cardul. Why not you?

As a general, female tonic, to build up your strength, and bring back rosy cheeks, nothing you can find will do so much for you as Cardul, the woman's tonic.

A trial will convince you that Cardul is just what you need. For sale by all druggists.

COMPLIMENTARY TO MISS ELEANOR CONN. Mrs. William D. Sloan Gives Delightful Linnen Shower.

One of the prettiest social events of the season was the linnen shower given last evening from eight till eleven by Mrs. William D. Sloan, complimentary to Miss Eleanor Conn, whose marriage to Mr. Lonnie Smith will take place on October 5th.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Miss Lilla R. Betts and Mrs. Sloan, who ushered them into the sitting room, which was beautifully decorated, yellow and green being the color scheme. The decorations in this room were carried out in palms, golden rod and yellow and green crepe paper. Over the group of palms that adorned the large bay window were the words "October 5th, 1910," the letters being yellow and on a background of green.

When the guests had assembled dainty cards, each having on it a Gibson head, were distributed and each person present was asked to write a wish for the bride-elect, who was the guest of honor. When all had written, the wishes were read by Miss Lilla R. Betts. This feature of the evening afforded much pleasure.

The guests were then ushered into the dining room, where delicious refreshments, consisting of cake and tea, were served. During the evening the guests were favored with several solos by Miss Margaret Paquette and readings by Miss Ona May, Miss Flora Creech, who was among the guests present, rendered selections on the piano, also Miss Ada Shearin.

The evening throughout was one of much enjoyment. St. Luke's Circle. The St. Luke's Circle of King's Daughters will meet with Mrs. Fletcher Phillips, 5 South Boylan Avenue, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
