That's What Dr. Falson Did While George Butler Sat Idly by, to Says the Letst, and Let the Sumpson County Tressurer Go to Parts Unknown Wish More Than Twenty Thousand Dollars of County and School Funds.

The News Dispatch has likewise denied me space in its own columns to corret its own false pub-lications.

These same false statements have been circulated in supplements through this district and section of the State. I therefore ask space in your columns to correct the above said false statements and mancious

In correction of these three positive, yet different statements of what I really did say, I publish the following signed statements from other citizens who were present to-wit:

Faison, N. C., Sept. 19, 1916.

We, the undersigned citizens of Duplin county, N. C., were present at the discussion of the local tax school for the entire precinct of Faison before the Duplin county Board of Education (not before the joint Board of Education and County Commissioners) so stated in the News-Dispatch (as there had been no joint meeting) and we heard Dr. Falson's statement. He was opposing taking away the white acheels at Crow's School house and Shine's school house and incorporate these in one school at Falson, because these little white children would be compelled to walk 5 1-2 and 4 miles respectively, to school, and the County Beard of Education sustained the ob-jection which was wise and considerats. In the course of his remarks he stated that he was opposed to and would change the public school system of the Signa, because he opposed negro education by the whites to the disadvantage of the white children and furthermore stated that there were about 260 more negro children in this whole district than white children, and the negroes already enjoyed a six months school from additional help from the North and that such a local tax for the entire district would put an eight months school at the door of these negroes and destroy a four months school now at the door of these white children, which he conaldered a great injustice to these white children of this district, particularly after these schools had been established and built for their special consisting of baseaux can sad seven coaches from Louisburg to Raleigh and ished and built for their special convenience. Dr. Fatson confined his remarks to what he considered best for marks to what he considered best for all the white children of Fatson are.
