LINGERIE FROCK, FOR A CHILD. Another galaxy lingerie frock for the baby of the family is pictured today.

Bells Across the Snow. O Christmas, merry Christmas! It is really come again. With its memories and greetings.

O Christmas, merry Christmas! 'Tis not so very long Since other voices blended With the carols and the song!

O Christmas, merry Christmas! This never more can be, Since it can't bring again the days Of our unshadowed glee.

O Christmas, merry Christmas! Friends holy flames still, Bright and hope may brighten, Pleasant love may glow.

CAVALIERIA RUSTICANA

Also the Ross of Avenge—Double Bill at the Academy Monday, Matinee and Night.

The Academy of Music will offer Cavalleria Rusticana Monday, matinee and night. Owing to the small cast and the short length of the opera, The Ross of Avenge by Offenbach will precede Mascagni's work.

This will be the first appearance in the South of the English Grand Opera Company. Cavalleria Rusticana is perhaps the most popular of all contemporary Grand Operas. Its intermezzi ranks highest in the classics; its intensely interesting story runs the gamut of the emotions, and its picturesque background of the Sicilian hills and the scene of the Village Square and Church on Easter Morning, lends a peculiar charm of local coloring and atmosphere to the dramatic music of the numerous dramatic episodes.

The Metropolitan Ladies Orchestra of seven, under the leadership of Nellie Chandler, the famous woman director, of Boston. The reserved seat sale for the English Grand Opera will open at Tucker Building Pharmacy Saturday morning. The prices will be $1.00, 75 and 50 cents for either matinee or evening.

The curtain for the matinee will rise promptly at 3 o'clock and at 7:30 for the evening performance. —Miss Mary Timberlake, of Youngsville, was in the city yesterday, returning home from Florence, South Carolina.

PAROLEES GRANTED THREE

Convicts from Buncombe, Lee and Orange Counties Get Relief

The Paroles on Conditions Granted to G. W. Shipman, LeGrand Wilson and Russell McIver, the Offenses Having Been Forgery, Store-breaking and Selling Liquor.

Paroles were yesterday granted to three convicts from Buncombe, Orange and Lee Counties, the convicts pardoned, the offenses and the reasons for the paroles being as follows: G. W. Shipman, of Buncombe county, convicted at the August Term, 1910, for the crime of forgery, and sentenced to six months on the road. Pardoned, conditionally, the reasons for parole being:

"Prisoner, with three others, were convicted and sentenced. This man acted under the influence of one of the others. His previous character was good. The sheriff has investigated the matter carefully and recommends parole in the clerk of the court's office. The entire jury and a great many other citizens request his pardon. The solicitor, after investigation, recommends parole, and the trial judge unites with him in asking clemency for the prisoner on condition that he remain law-abiding and of good behavior.

Russell McIver, of Lee county, convicted at the November Term, 1910, for the crime of selling liquor, and sentenced to five months in jail. Pardoned, conditionally, the reasons for parole being:

"Prisoner, a negro, was convicted on the testimony of negro detectives employed by the citizens of Sanford. His previous character was good. He has a serious physical disorder which causes a reputable physician to think that further confinement will seriously injure his health and endanger his life. Many citizens including the Mayor and other officials, and including those who employed the detective, ask for his pardon. At the trial, the judge stated that he would recommend his pardon on certain conditions, and such conditions having been met, the judge now recommends parole. I therefore pardon prisoner on condition that he remain law-abiding and of good behavior.

Do Something to Make Somebody Happy—Mt. Airy News Observer. (Special to News and Observer.) Mt. Airy, Dec. 22.—The beautiful Blue Ridge mountains, ten miles distant from this city, is covered with snow again, and the winter is coming from that direction this morning in something to read, indeed. If the reader wishes to see a happy Christmas, let him or her see some people who are celebrating the season to church, or make them present of $10 or $15 so they can get a decent suit, and see if you are not happy on Christmas morning. In days gone by, the winter was a severe one, and a great deal of suffering was caused and can truthfully state that the effect was wonderful. Do something for some one who cannot do for himself and God will certainly bless you very abundantly. Look about you—your own family and plenty of opportunities. How many of your friends who are suffering from the cold? Should I not remind you that God will one of these days call us too? Let us get ready for that awful change, dear reader, that must shortly come to you and us, and keep our hearts right and conduct ourselves in such a manner that death will be as a kind messenger when it comes.

Quite an interesting program has been arranged for the Christmas entertainment at Walker Mission on Christmas Eve. The children are taking a lively interest in the preparations and something worth while is looked for.

The city is lively today. Great droves of wagons coming in from all sections with farmers and their wives and daughters for the purpose of buying their Christmas fixings. The cold is so severe today that many of the quartermen find it necessary to discharge their work, hence quite a lot of men are idle. But shipment of stone are still very heavy, lot of building is going on in North Carolina. The Tite building of Philadelphia reflects great credit upon the Mt. Airy granite, and not only this but many other elegant edifices in Philadelphia are monuments to this excellent material.

THE NECESSITY OF LIMING THE LAND

of our Southern farms is not generally acknowledged, and its use is constantly increasing. Soil which is cultivated year after year loses its vital properties, and as the result, crops grow poorer or worthless. An application of R-R-LIME renews old soil, transforming it into a healthy condition yielding larger crops than ever.
