

WOMAN and SOCIETY

LACE AND SATIN EVENING GOWN

This is rather an elaborate evening frock which is pictured today. The bodice is of cream satin with draperies over the shoulders held by cabochons of pearl. Little flat boys of pale yellow velvet ribbon hold the fullness of the satin in front. The effect is also used for the girle and bands on the sleeves. The skirt is made of satin, cut severely plain and with a tunic of all-over lace draped on the left side and held by another pearl cabochon with tassels of pearl falling from it. Strands and tassels of pearl fall from the shoulder ornaments.

THE OBSTACLE

In the spring the young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love.

To a fine five-room apartment for his chosen turtle dove. In a well apartment building that is strictly up-to-date. With electric elevators and a cozy corner grate. To a patent flexless cooker and a handsome touring car. To a sweet domestic drama in which she would be the star.

Oh, the cheerful cozy evenings by a Focahontas fire, on the left side. And the confidential chats, of which a man could never tire. Oh, the charming little dinners, with the partner of his life. In his five-room apartment with his dainty little wife. It's a dream that is worth dreaming, and it would be very nice. There is just one thing preventing it: He hasn't got the price.

—Roy K. Noulton.

DAILY CALENDAR

The Twentieth Century Club will meet this afternoon at four o'clock with Mrs. M. T. Norris. The Tuesday Afternoon Club will meet this afternoon at four o'clock with Mrs. A. W. Briggs, in West Raleigh.

—Miss Julia Culbreth has returned to her home here, after a visit to friends in Goldsboro and Mount Olive.

—Mrs. John A. Morgan returned yesterday to Norfolk, Va., after a visit to her son, Mr. A. Morgan.

—Mrs. D. T. Moore, Jr., has returned from Wilson, where she visited Mrs. W. J. Moore.

—Mrs. D. B. Wesson, of Springfield, Mass., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Timberlake, returned home yesterday.

—Mrs. Joe Hill, who has been visiting here, has returned to her home in Henderson.

—Mrs. Robert L. Gray and children are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gray.

HER AILMENT A COMMON ONE Happy Experience of Mrs. Dillinger, Who Finally Found Relief in Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

West Baden, Ind.—For about four years," says Mrs. Sarah Dillinger, of this place, "I suffered with an ailment common to women, and I was so poorly that I could not do my work."

After taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, I am stout and able to work all day, hard. It certainly is a great medicine for women. I recommend it to a great many ladies.

My daughter is now taking Cardui, and it seems to be helping her already, although she has now taken only one bottle.

Cardui is the best medicine I ever took. It has done me so much good. It saved my life, and I can't praise it too much."

Every woman would always keep Cardui handy, for use when needed, if she knew what benefit it gives, in cases where weakness vitally affects the body and brain seem tired and worn-out.

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will often cure much suffering by preventing a more serious attack.

To relieve pain and misery, due to menstrual irregularities, has been found, during the 40 years that it has been before the public, to have the same effect as Cardui.

Write for a free trial bottle of Cardui, and you will receive it at once.

Write for a free trial bottle of Cardui, and you will receive it at once.

Write for a free trial bottle of Cardui, and you will receive it at once.

Superior Shapes in Yeddah, Ramie, Hemp, Milan and Straw Braids.

—Miss Eleanor McGovern left yesterday for Baltimore, Md., after visiting friends in the city.

—Miss Mattie Chippepper has returned from Wilson, where she spent Sunday.

—Mrs. W. A. Graham Clark has returned to Washington, D. C., after visiting her mother, Mrs. J. M. Heck.

—Miss May Lincoln, of Delway, is spending a few days in the city.

—Miss Evelyn Taylor, of Cary, has returned home after visiting in the city.

—Miss Minnie Coley, of Mocksville, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Will N. Coley, left yesterday afternoon for Durham, where she will visit her sister.

—Mrs. W. W. Ashe, of Washington, D. C., is a guest at the home of Capt. R. A. Ashe.

Two Marriages. Mr. Hayden Allen, of Raleigh, and Miss Minnie E. Burns of Sanford, were married Sunday afternoon in the office of the register of deeds by Mr. W. H. Sawyer, Justice of the Peace.

Mr. William H. Eddins and Miss Annie Barham were united in marriage Sunday night at 9:30 at the home of the bride on Halifax street. Mr. W. H. Sawyer performing the ceremony.

To Flavor Fancy Food Deliciously use SAUBER'S PURE FLAVORING EXTRACTS, Vanilla, Lemon, etc. Thirteen highest Awards and Medals.

Chalybeate Springs Commencement. (Special to News and Observer.) Chalybeate Springs, N. C., April 22.—The commencement exercises of Chalybeate Springs High School will take place on April 23rd and 24th. Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock there will be exercises by the primary department. Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 will come the literary address, delivered by Hon. John A. Oates, of Fayetteville, and exercises by music and elocution classes. In the evening at 8 o'clock, the High School department will give a play—"A Kentucky Belle."

Mrs. G. H. Humber Entertains. Carthage, April 22.—Mrs. G. H. Humber was a most charming hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Club at its last meeting in honor of Miss Mary Worthy, who on April 14th, becomes the bride of Mr. U. L. Spence. The parlors were very attractive in their decorations of dog-wood and woodbine. After a few rubbers of bridge were played, the hostess distributed dainty cards to the guests, asking them to write happy wishes to our popular bride-to-be. The reading of the cards showed how dear to each member of the club Miss Worthy's happiness is.

Broadhurst-Borden. Invitations reading as follows have been issued: "Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Borden request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Mabel Moran to Mr. Jack Johnston Broadhurst on the evening of Tuesday, the thirteenth of April, nineteen hundred and twelve at eight forty-five o'clock, Saint Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Goldsboro, North Carolina."

Winkler-McDaniel. The following invitation has been issued: "Mrs. James Elizabeth McDaniel invites you to be present at the marriage of her daughter Eunice Foye to Mr. Thomas Allen Winkler Tuesday Morning, April the thirtieth nineteen hundred and twelve at Home near Trenton, North Carolina."

Peoples-Perry. Invitations have been issued to friends reading as follows: "Mr. James McMill Peoples and Miss Mattie Perry announce their marriage on Wednesday evening, May the first One thousand nine hundred and twelve at half after eight o'clock, Louise Hotel, Washington, North Carolina."

At home after fifth of Mar. The Orion, Wilmington, N. C. ROXBORO'S SOCIAL AND COMMERCIAL CLUB.

New Organization Enjoys Its Initial Success. (Special to News and Observer.) Roxboro, N. C., April 22.—The Roxboro Commercial and Social Club held its initial banquet here at which a splendid menu was served.

Mr. J. A. Lenz, Jr., the president of the club, graciously presided as toastmaster and introduced the speakers and their subjects in a most happy manner.

Guests were responded to as follows: "Our Club," by Mr. W. D. Merrill; "Our Schools and Their Problems," by Prof. A. B. Staley; "Our Banks," by Mr. J. A. Bradburn; "Manufactures," by Hon. J. A. Lenz; "Street Improvement," by Mr. A. M. Burns.

"Roxboro, Its Advantages and Possibilities," by Mayor M. C. Whitstead; "The Success of a New Career," by Mr. J. O. Adams; "Some Reminiscences," by Mr. J. W. Reed; "The Ladies," by Mr. F. G. Carter.

The responses had been thoughtful, interesting and were of a high order of merit. There was no doubt but that it was a most successful and enjoyable affair.

The Commercial and Social Club of this city, organized for the purpose of promoting the welfare and prosperity of Roxboro and its vicinity, held its first banquet here at which a splendid menu was served.

Mr. J. A. Lenz, Jr., the president of the club, graciously presided as toastmaster and introduced the speakers and their subjects in a most happy manner.

Guests were responded to as follows: "Our Club," by Mr. W. D. Merrill; "Our Schools and Their Problems," by Prof. A. B. Staley; "Our Banks," by Mr. J. A. Bradburn; "Manufactures," by Hon. J. A. Lenz; "Street Improvement," by Mr. A. M. Burns.

"Roxboro, Its Advantages and Possibilities," by Mayor M. C. Whitstead; "The Success of a New Career," by Mr. J. O. Adams; "Some Reminiscences," by Mr. J. W. Reed; "The Ladies," by Mr. F. G. Carter.

The responses had been thoughtful, interesting and were of a high order of merit. There was no doubt but that it was a most successful and enjoyable affair.

The Commercial and Social Club of this city, organized for the purpose of promoting the welfare and prosperity of Roxboro and its vicinity, held its first banquet here at which a splendid menu was served.

What Piano And Where Shall I Buy It?

Before finally deciding these important questions, let our Mr. Langley send you catalogues, prices and terms of our line.

No music house in America can show a better line at lower prices and on easier terms. We carry a large stock of

MASON & HAMLIN—(The World's Best Piano) CONOVER, CABLE, KINGSBURY, VOSE, BEHNING, WELLINGTON, CORLEY, SCHUBERT AND CAMBRIDGE PIANOS.

INNER-PLAYER PIANOS

The Behning Player-Piano The Tel-Electric Piano Player

Mason & Hamlin and Chicago Cottage

ORGANS For the Home and Church

This represents the finest line of Pianos and Organs carried by any musical house in America and if you anticipate buying or are investigating looking to a future purchase don't fail to inform yourself fully as to this line.

Remember: Free Catalogs on Request

The Corley Company

Successors Cable Piano Co. DURHAM, N. C. M. T. LANGLEY, Resident Manager.

Secretary of Teachers' Training School

Salisbury, N. C., April 22.—Dr. Franklin McIlfresh of Chicago, was the leading speaker at a big mass meeting held in the open house at Salisbury Sunday afternoon. Dr. McIlfresh is the international secretary of teacher training for Sunday School workers, and his address was one of great force. He was heard by a large number of leading Christian workers. Another visitor and speaker of interest was J. Van Carter, secretary of the North Carolina Sunday School Association.

SPENCE-WORTHY.

Pre-Nuptial Festivities at Carthage in Honor of Bride and Groom-to-be. Carthage, April 22.—The beginning of the social festivities of the week, in honor of Miss Mary Worthy, who next Wednesday becomes the bride of Mr. U. L. Spence, a prominent lawyer of the town, was made Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. W. G. Brown and sister, Miss Margaret Graves, on, retained humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

After a few rubbers of bridge and several games of nations had been played, it was found that Mrs. T. B. Tyson had made the highest score in bridge and Miss Tom Stuart had been most skillful in nations. Mrs. R. F. Seawell, with a few happy remarks, presented the prizes, a beautiful deck of cards to Mrs. Tyson and a darning to Miss Stuart, they in turn presenting them to the bride-to-be. Then Mrs. Seawell giving a charming little poem of her own composition, containing humor and good advice, presented Miss Worthy a pair of dainty bed-room slippers. As she was receiving them a shower of silk hose and lovely hand-made handkerchiefs fell upon her from a huge stocking improvised from yellow crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier. After a delicious ice course had been served, the guests departed, thanking their hosts for a charming afternoon and giving the guest of honor many good wishes.

DRYAN IN FLORIDA HELPING WILSON

The Governor of Florida is a Nephew of the Great Com-

tinguished Kinsman

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Hon. William J. Bryan, who made a series of speeches in Ohio the past week in the interest of the candidacy of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, addressing according to popular estimate, audiences numbering 100,000 people, will take the stump in Florida this week in behalf of the candidacy of the New Jersey executive. Mr. Bryan has agreed to address a mass meeting at Jacksonville next Thursday, and on Friday he will speak in Tampa. It is not unlikely that an engagement will be made for him at Pensacola.

In Florida Governor Wilson is opposed by Representative Oscar Underwood. Both Underwood, Harmon and Speaker Clark had friends and supporters in the State, but they decided not to run in the primary contest and when they withdrew the influence of all their supporters was thrown to Mr. Underwood. The fight of the allies in Florida was centered on Mr. Underwood for the reason that he was a large part of Alabama is contiguous to Florida, and it was thought that he would make the stronger race there. It was agreed that Mr. Underwood could make a better fight than either Governor Harmon or Speaker Clark against Governor Wilson in that State because of the fact that appeal could be made to the neighboring sentimentality.

In Florida Governor Wilson's candidacy has a strong supporter in Governor Jennings, who is a nephew of the distinguished Texan. Governor Jennings is a very active member of the Florida Woodrow Wilson League, and is a contributor to the campaign fund in East St. Louis.

The following telegram was received at Woodrow Wilson headquarters today from Judge A. Van Wageningen, of Sioux City, Iowa:

"Governor Wilson has 112 delegates instructed and elected to the State convention. The Clark and Harmon delegates with those doubtful added only total 234. In addition there are 12 delegates committed to the nomination of Mr. Bryan. It looks like Governor Wilson will have a good majority in the State convention."

Four attempts to form a Taft Yale club have been failures. At a meeting of the Yale Club upper classmen a vote of two to one was given in favor of the nomination of Governor Wilson. The opposition was divided between Clark and Harmon. The Yale Woodrow Wilson Club was formed by Professor Seligson and vice presidents from each school.

DONE AT DUNN

Fayetteville Presbytery Adjourns; Pleasant Anticipations of Coming Commencements; Deputy Sheriff Ferrell Dead

Dunn, April 22.—Fayetteville Presbytery adjourned yesterday, having held its 1912 session, to meet again at St. Paul's next fall. There were in attendance a large number of delegates and preachers. Col. E. P. M. Rice was selected moderator.

The closing exercises of the Dunn school will be held on May 10th and 11th. Dr. H. M. North, Raleigh, will preach the commencement sermon on the evening of the 10th and the main address will be delivered on May 11th by Prof. N. Y. Gully, dean of the law department of Wake Forest College. Under the efficient management of Professor H. G. Henry, the school has been very successful indeed. A movement is now on foot to enlarge the school building which was only built a few years ago, and it was thought at that time the building was ample sufficient for the next ten years.

The Daughters of the Confederacy, Officers' Chapter, will award a prize to the student who writes the best paper on the causes leading up to the war between the States.

The commencement exercises at Duke's Creek Academy will be held on May 14th and 15th. Judge Peter C. Pritchard will deliver the main address of the occasion. The laureate sermon will be preached on the Sunday before by Rev. W. M. Johnson, of Wake Forest. This school under Rev. J. H. Campbell's management is doing a fine work for the young men and women of Harnett and the adjoining counties, and there are quite a number of students from other States.

Rev. J. H. Shore will deliver the address at the closing exercises of the Newton Grove High School, which has had a very prosperous year under the management of Professor Pittman.

Deputy Sheriff L. A. Ferrell died suddenly at Wake Creek yesterday from heart failure. He was a young man and seemed to be in fine health.

The boys from the Dunn High School are finishing a series of four winning two ball games from Danahoe and Davidson Academies.

MAKING IT HOT FOR THE BOOZE-MAKERS

Father and Son Jailed By Officers and For Jumping Bonds Three Others Are Committed; One is the Alleged "King Bee"

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, April 22.—Edward J. Grant, Sheriff of Henderson County, today committed to jail four persons charged with the manufacture of whisky. One of the persons is the alleged "King Bee" of the county.

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, April 22.—Edward J. Grant, Sheriff of Henderson County, today committed to jail four persons charged with the manufacture of whisky. One of the persons is the alleged "King Bee" of the county.

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, April 22.—Edward J. Grant, Sheriff of Henderson County, today committed to jail four persons charged with the manufacture of whisky. One of the persons is the alleged "King Bee" of the county.

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, April 22.—Edward J. Grant, Sheriff of Henderson County, today committed to jail four persons charged with the manufacture of whisky. One of the persons is the alleged "King Bee" of the county.

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, April 22.—Edward J. Grant, Sheriff of Henderson County, today committed to jail four persons charged with the manufacture of whisky. One of the persons is the alleged "King Bee" of the county.

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, April 22.—Edward J. Grant, Sheriff of Henderson County, today committed to jail four persons charged with the manufacture of whisky. One of the persons is the alleged "King Bee" of the county.

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, April 22.—Edward J. Grant, Sheriff of Henderson County, today committed to jail four persons charged with the manufacture of whisky. One of the persons is the alleged "King Bee" of the county.

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, April 22.—Edward J. Grant, Sheriff of Henderson County, today committed to jail four persons charged with the manufacture of whisky. One of the persons is the alleged "King Bee" of the county.

JUST Three-Fifty

Stands between you

this NIFTY PUMP

Made in any leather or fabric

POOL & CROCKER

We Fit The Feet 124 Fayetteville St. Raleigh, N. C.

and were bound over to the last term of Federal court at Charlotte. Dave Foster had him arrested again together with Mack Hoffield, charging criminal assault, according to Mr. Grant, who intends to take the prisoners to Salisbury tomorrow for trial. Dave Foster is alleged to be the "king bee" of moonshiners of his section, and it is said has given the officers considerable trouble for a number of years.

The three men brought here today as prisoners refused to attend court. Their bonds were forfeited and Marshal Grant and Chief of Police Bob Norman, of Saluda, made the arrests early this morning, the former stating that while lying in wait for the men he was within 100 yards of a distillery that was in operation, but he was bent on his mission of capturing these three men so did not capture the distillery. Bone Sentele, the intimidated witness, as referred to above, Mr. Grant said, was charged with criminal assault, but at a subsequent hearing was acquitted and in order to carry out his plans Dave Foster had him arrested again together with Mack Hoffield, charging criminal assault, according to Mr. Grant, who intends to take the prisoners to Salisbury tomorrow for trial. Dave Foster is alleged to be the "king bee" of moonshiners of his section, and it is said has given the officers considerable trouble for a number of years.

Knows the Game. (Webster's Weekly.) Whatever you do, whether you be a Simmons man or a Kitchin man, don't make the mistake of supposing that Judge Clark does not know the political game. We'll wager a watermelon that he has written more letters with his own hand than Simmons and Kitchin put together.

get that order now

Mr. Business Man, you can think right now of hundreds of instances where a Day Letter or a Night Letter would have saved the expense of a trip, captured a doubtful order, flashed an important inquiry and brought back the information on the jump.

Analyze your territory and you will find that Western Union Day Letters and Night Letters will add to your efficiency, multiply your customers and increase your sales.

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY

STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM

We are now serving real Strawberry Cream, made from the Natural Berry, and made by one who knows how to make Ice Creams. —IT IS DELICIOUS— Other Ice Creams Served in Sixteen Different Styles.

THE WAKE DRUG STORE

SCHOOL MEDALS

Let us furnish you our price for manufacturing school and fraternity pins and medals.

We guarantee fine workmanship and better quality medals at more attractive prices than you have been paying.

Jolly & Wynne Jewelry Co.

RALEIGH, N. C.

COUNTY OFFICERS' BONDS

and all other bonds of the INSURANCE COMPANY OF THE LOWER STATES, Raleigh, N. C.

AMUSEMENTS MOTHER GOOSE

Will be presented at THE NEW AUDITORIUM Friday Night, April 26th, with a large cast including Country Mary with a Garden of Pretty Girls and the old woman in her shoe and her large family of little tots.

WEAR La Grecque CORSETS and have a Better Figure

For Sale by BOYLAN-PEARCE CO. Van Orden-Corset Co., Mfgs. News, N. C.

