In And About The City

The many friends of Mr. Barney Pike will regret to learn of his being confined to his room by illness.

The cells for the police station in the new Auditorium are expected daily. Word has been received to the effect that they are on the road.

Mr. R. E. Walker, principal of the Windsor graded school, passed through the city yesterday on his way from Wake Forest to his home in Rowan county.

Mr. J. P. Kerr, of Asheville, member and secretary of the Board of Drainage Commissioners who has been in Hyde county for some time was here yesterday on his way to Asheville.

Messrs. S. S. Farham, F. B. Hobards, George Giblin, Thos. Bullock and F. E. Logg, of Henderson, spent Sunday in the city as guests of Mr. W. W. Hobards. They came over in Mr. Farham's new touring car.

Do You Know

That many are making comfortable livings—yes—and laying up small fortunes—on what they are producing off five, ten or twenty acre tracts?

It's a fact. Some are doing this in truck farming, others in the dairy business, others in poultry raising.

You can do the same. Live right near town, too, within a few minutes' ride of the city, with all its advantages.

Independent? No, other life to compare with it. Strikes and lockouts have no terror for a man so situated.

We have some choice small acre properties for sale, also farms, at reasonable figures. Tell us what you want.
