SOCIETY

HAT SHOP
RALEIGH, N. C.
CHILDREN'S HATS

STRIPED FOULARD

A design for [illegible] will be given by the model pictured above. The material is a light shade of [illegible] ice cloth, the shoulders are [illegible] collar of fine [illegible] beneath a wide [illegible] white satin. The [illegible] stripes running [illegible] are slashed [illegible] an under sleeve of [illegible] crosses in the [illegible] that the stripes [illegible] appear a continuation [illegible] The underskirt is of the satin-finished foulard.

THE SABBATH

Dear Lord, the day of [illegible]
With happy [illegible]
The sweet [illegible]
The [illegible]

Loud we [illegible]
With [illegible]
Despite [illegible]
The [illegible]

Which does not end with death is passed
And brought us [illegible]
Alight with [illegible]
We hope to see you [illegible]

In its glorious radiance
Or grief and [illegible]
For in God's gracious kindness
We will find perfect peace.

Ashesville.

* * *

Miss [illegible] of Goldsboro is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. W. Goodwin.

Miss [illegible] for an extended [illegible]

Mrs. [illegible] bury, who [illegible] ther, Mr. W. [illegible] ing with Mr. W. [illegible] beach [illegible]

Miss [illegible] is the guest of Parker [illegible]

Mrs. [illegible] Ferrell [illegible] Lenday at [illegible]

Mrs. [illegible] the [illegible] her [illegible] and Miss [illegible] Hill [illegible] ertson, [illegible] ginia [illegible] uates.

Miss [illegible] for [illegible] H. W. [illegible]

Miss [illegible] dist [illegible] Cary.

Mrs. W. [illegible] est, who [illegible] way at [illegible]

Miss [illegible] afternoon [illegible] Jam [illegible] relatives.

Mrs. [illegible] gone for [illegible] days.

Mrs. [illegible] W. [illegible] brides after [illegible] lovely presents which they let down in a shower upon the happy bride.

A course luncheon was served, and a miniature Japanese parasol was given each guest as a souvenir of the happy occasion.

* * *

BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Elizabeth City, June 15.—Miss Eloise Tatum entertained the members of the Auction Bridge Club most charmingly at her home on Main street Wednesday morning.

The [illegible] ladies were present. Mesdames S. S. Meads, of Baltimore, Charles of Newport, H. F. Tomkins, Wilson, Worth, Herbert Walker, Will Pool, [illegible] Speed, Hatcher, Hughes, Frank Scott, Harry Walker, [illegible]

* * *

PORCH PARTY

Wilmington, June 15.—The young people of this town spent a very enjoyable evening at a porch party [illegible] Mrs. H. [illegible] The party was held in honor of [illegible] Miss Emmie Westcott, of [illegible] Mount. All were [illegible] There was instrumental [illegible] by Misses Leader and Bradley, [illegible] were served.

Those present were: Miss Virginia [illegible] Haswell, Miss Sarah Davis [illegible] Miss Cornelia Bradley, Miss [illegible] Woodard, Miss Caroline [illegible] Miss Clarence Heath, Miss [illegible] Bradley, Mr. Hal Clark Boswell, of Richmond, Va., Mr. Joe [illegible] and Mr. Hal Bickett.

* * *

ENJOYABLE BARBECUE

Laurel Springs, June 15.—The [illegible] Tuesday [illegible] a most delightful [illegible] Those present were [illegible]

* * *

A SAILING PARTY

* * *

Weddings and Engagements

* * *

RAINBOW SHOWER

* * *

BRILLIANT MARRIAGE IN CARTHAGE

Carthage, June 15.—[illegible] occurred at the [illegible] Church on the [illegible] twelfth at the [illegible] when Mr. Rupert [illegible] united to Miss Margaret M[illegible] and [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] were [illegible] with [illegible] and palms [illegible] and [illegible] ferns and [illegible] ings were [illegible] each pew [illegible] and [illegible] with [illegible] on each side of the [illegible] white [illegible]

Miss [illegible] played the [illegible] Miss [illegible] [illegible] up the aisle escorted by [illegible] ushers, took her [illegible] at the organ [illegible] the wedding [illegible] by Mr. Rogers, [illegible] as the bride, was [illegible] in a [illegible] gown by Mr. [illegible] Mendelssohn's [illegible] Bridal Song" was [illegible] played. The [illegible] of the bride [illegible] Pop [illegible] grand march [illegible] exhausted [illegible] a professional, [illegible] six little girls [illegible] gowned in white and wearing pink [illegible] in their hair. Misses Johnnie [illegible] Virginia [illegible] and Jane Wil[illegible] preceded up the right aisle while from the left came Ella Meade Sewell, Evelyn Tyson and Martha Muse. Each trio carried ropes of smilax and sweet peas. Mounting [illegible]

* * *

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

* * *

MISS WELLBORN'S

* * *

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

* * *

MRS. H. McCORMICK, SOCIAL HIGH PRIESTESS OF CHICAGO, GETS SNUBBED

Mrs. Harold McCormick

[illegible] a few of the coronation [illegible] from Mrs. McCor[illegible] the [illegible] of the society [illegible] of the [illegible] be said to be [illegible] [illegible] That was the day [illegible] opening of the [illegible] leaders were [illegible] to [illegible] the guests. Mrs. McCor[illegible] that time [illegible] years was [illegible] In her place Mrs. [illegible] was at the head of [illegible]

[illegible] tendencies of Mrs. [illegible] power, proved [illegible] leaders, but the [illegible] of those who have been [illegible] [illegible] she has never yet [illegible] to be [illegible] by [illegible]

[illegible] The [illegible] on [illegible] is what is heavy [illegible] soft, real [illegible] [illegible] with [illegible] The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]