SPEECH OF MAJOR E. J. HALE ON OCCASION OF WYATT UNVEILING

Misses President and daughters of the Confederacy, comrades, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to appear before you this afternoon, which is a fitting occasion for the unveiling of the monument to the brave soldiers of the Confederate States Army who fell in the great struggle for the preservation of the Union.

The monument is a fitting tribute to the valor and sacrifice of our brave soldiers. It is a monument to the great cause of the Confederacy, and it is a monument to the great cause of the Union.
