WHERE DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP GREENSBORO NEWS

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Green's Health—Her Own Statement.

Washington, Md. "This medicine has done me more good than all the doctor's medicines. At every monthly period I had to stay in bed four days because of hemorrhages, and my back was so weak I could hardly walk. I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I can stay up and do my work. I think it is the best medicine on earth for women."

How Mrs. Green Avoided Operation.
Brownsville, Ind. "I can say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me more good than anything else. One doctor said I must be operated upon for a serious female trouble and that nothing could help me but an operation. I had hemorrhages and at times could not get any medicine to stop them. I got into a very bad condition that I would have had to be operated upon if I had not got relief soon. Several women who had taken your Compound told me to try it and I did and found it to be the right medicine to build up the system and overcome female troubles. I am now in great deal better health than I ever expected to be, so I think I ought to thank you for it." Mrs. O. M. CLINE, S. Main St., Brownsville, Ind.

THE OBSERVER SUIT AGAINST INDIVIDUALS

The Hemphill Controversy Matter Relates to a Contract Between Stockholders And Not the Publishing Company

The suit against the individuals who were named in the Hemphill controversy, filed in the Superior Court of the City of Washington, D. C., on June 14, 1912, is not a suit against the publishing company, but a suit against individuals who were named in the controversy. The suit is based on a contract between the individuals and the publishing company. The contract provided that the individuals were to be named in the controversy. The individuals have refused to be named, and the publishing company has filed suit against them.

A MISREPRESENTATION

Judged in Several Instances—Declaratory News is Trying to Effect a Merger Which Stockholders Have Said They Do Not Want.

(By J. W. BAILEY.)
The statement favoring the removal of the Board of Directors of the Standard Life Insurance Company in this city, which I was unwilling to let go unmentioned, has been misinterpreted in several instances. The statement of these proposals was not made with the intention of being taken as a declaration of war against the Board of Directors. It was merely a statement of the proposals which were being made to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has refused to accept the proposals, and the declaratory news is trying to effect a merger which the stockholders have said they do not want.
