

YOUNG MAN DIES TRYING TO SAVE DROWNING GIRL

Heart Failure Brought On From Exhaustion Was the Cause

WAS IN SURF BATHING

With a Girl Friend, Miss Isabel Williams, of Wilmington

POPULAR YOUNG MAN

Wilmington, June 27. Mr. John Quince Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Myers, one of the most popular young men in the city, died on Wrightsville Beach early this evening, probably from an attack of heart failure brought on by exhaustion following his struggles in saving Miss Isabel Williams from drowning in the surf in front of the Carolina Yacht club.

TRIED TO SAVE HIM

Dr. H. H. Seaman of this city, and Dr. J. W. Hopper, director in charge of the James M. Taylor hospital, worked for hours on Monday and a half in an effort to resuscitate Mr. Myers, but it was seen that nothing from the time he was brought from the water unconscious, but a pulse beat was noted and he was taken to the hospital where he died in the water or soon after being brought ashore.

Mr. Myers and Miss Isabel Williams of this city were in the surf together. Both were good swimmers and they were seen to be swimming about fifty feet from the beach.

They had been out only a short time when Miss Williams became exhausted and Mr. Myers started to bring her in. As he was in the vicinity of the Carolina Yacht club and both were on the beach in front of the house noticed their plight and started to their aid. The life boat was launched and several good swimmers also started toward the water.

Young Lady Saved. In the meantime Mr. Myers had brought Miss Williams to a point where the water was not over her head. He supported her for a few seconds and then he tried to give her strength and slipped back into the water. He made one or two feeble strokes as if to swim and then turned on his back and floated. Miss Williams had recovered sufficiently this time to be able to stand and she was standing in the water when several of the rescuers reached her.

Mr. Myers was taken on the beach and the two physicians worked on him but Miss Isabel Williams suffered no ill effects from her experience further than the shock of the sea affar.

BURGLAR ALARM CAUSES EXCITEMENT

Commercial Bank's Alarm is Sounded and Large Crowds Gather in Front of Building. The police officers gathered at the Tucker building pharmacy business were suddenly interrupted and drew into a crowd when a burglar alarm was sounded at about 8 o'clock when the Commercial National Bank pedaled forth its loud warning.

For the time being every thought of his previous few minutes in the vault and also of muffled men with pistols and tools attempting to rob them. A panic seemed to seize and for several minutes the streets were jammed with a mass of humanity feeling to the banks nearby.

Police men ran faster than ever before many cars were in evidence and soon the building was cleared for the supposed hidden gang.

But the search revealed the crowd and police nothing, and soon the watchman passed through the door of the bank and within a few minutes the alarm was again sounded.

KILLS NEGRO IN DEFENSE OF MOTHER

Negro Was Drunk and Used Light Words—On Howard Comes to Her Aid With Gun—In Jail Without Bond. Rocky Point, June 27. A white boy and son of Jane Howard, colored woman, was committed to jail without bond for the killing of Samuel Bennett, a negro porter of the Atlantic coast line warehouse.

The negro who shot the man in defense of his mother, who was this boy, was committed to jail without bond for the killing of Samuel Bennett, a negro porter of the Atlantic coast line warehouse.

BOY GOES TO JAIL FOR ASSAULTING GIRL

Child Badly Injured and Carried to Hospital—Only Seven Years Old. Lumberton, June 27. A white boy, seven years old, was committed to jail here yesterday charged with assaulting the seven-year-old daughter of Z. Hill, near the station on the Atlantic coast line, fifteen miles from here. The child is reported to have been so badly injured that she was carried to a Fayetteville hospital for treatment.

Young Tew is the son of a highly respected farmer, while the father of the victim is engaged in the saw mill business. Sheriff McNeill stated tonight that both families stood well in the community. Particulars of the crime have not been ascertained.

TRIES TO ARREST BEE; POLICEMAN GETS STUNG

Bees Revolt Affectionate Kiess On Head of Officers—Will Wear Iron Mask Next Time. From the headquarters of William Kiess on No. 30 West Third fourth street, Rayonette, N. J., the bees on that day afternoon stung. They had done so work in the morning and at 10 o'clock on the morning of the day his guests yesterday afternoon he was most anxious to have them brought back.

He was telephoned to Police Headquarters where the chief of police was waiting and no chief was sent to the house to see the bees.

By the time that Kiess arrived at the police station the bees had been brought back to the house and were again within reach. In the face of this Kiess was very anxious to see the bees brought back to the house.

Bees were becoming very warm and Kiess was very anxious to see the bees brought back to the house.

The policeman, ready to give up, called for aid. In the person of Ed Kiess, a fellow officer, who was sent with a box, closed to the bees and drove them from their perch on a tree limb. As he was carrying them to their hole a boy named a stone into the box. Kiess was stung and Kiess was stung and Kiess was stung.

DR. BOYLE IS DURHAM'S NEW HEALTH OFFICER

Dr. H. H. Seaman of this city, and Dr. J. W. Hopper, director in charge of the James M. Taylor hospital, worked for hours on Monday and a half in an effort to resuscitate Mr. Myers, but it was seen that nothing from the time he was brought from the water unconscious, but a pulse beat was noted and he was taken to the hospital where he died in the water or soon after being brought ashore.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

Altogether about 1000 birds were seen in the vicinity of the Carolina Yacht club and both were on the beach in front of the house noticed their plight and started to their aid.

They had been out only a short time when Miss Williams became exhausted and Mr. Myers started to bring her in. As he was in the vicinity of the Carolina Yacht club and both were on the beach in front of the house noticed their plight and started to their aid.
