WILSON IS NOMINATED BY JUDGE J. W. WESCOTT

Native of New Jersey Places Name of Wilson Before Convention—The Peerless, Matchless, Unconquerable, Ultimate Democrat

(By the Associated Press)

Baltimore, June 27. The speech placing the name of Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, in nomination for the presidency was delivered by former Judge John W. Wescott, of Camden, N. J. Mr. Wescott spoke as follows:

New Jersey once found for the moral energy and intellectual greatness of a single soul; now she comes to this great convention in the glory of her emancipation to participate in your deliberations, not in formulating your judgments and assent in executing your decrees. The New Jersey delegation is not empowered to exercise the attributes of proprietorship, but is commissioned to represent the great cause of Democracy and to offer you, as its militant and triumphant leader, a scholar, not a charlatan; a statesman, not a doctrinaire; a profound lawyer, not a splitter of legal hairs, a political economist, not an egotistical theorist; a practical politician, who constructs, but restrains without disturbance, and destruction, a resistless debater, a consummate master of statecraft, not a mere sophist; a humanitarian, not a defamer of characters; in fine, a man whose mind is at once cosmopolitan and composite of American gentleman of unpretentious faith with the fear of God, this heart with the love of mankind exhibited in every act of his life, above all a public servant who has been tried to the uttermost and never found wanting—peerless, matchless, unconquerable Democrat, Woodrow Wilson.

The Reason

New Jersey has reasons for her course. Let us not be diverted to side premises. Campaigns of vilification, corruption and false pretenses have lost their usefulness. The conservation of national energy is towards a more intelligent morality in politics and in all other relations. The line of cleavage is between those who use politics as a game and those who regard it as the serious business of government. The realignment of political parties will be on this great issue. The situation admits of no compromise. The temper and purpose of the American people will not tolerate no other issue. The difference of the American people to politics be distinguished. A platform and any candidate conforming to this real issue and commercial behest will go down to an ominous defeat at the polls. Platforms are but often mere rubbish heaps of insincere promises. Candidates are but the fortunate creatures of circumstances and calculations. Experience, conditions, national needs and necessities make better platforms and greater leaders than theorists and men of proprietorship. A change of first premises will bring our structure crashing in ruins next November.

Again, the eternal conflict between equal opportunity and special privilege is upon us. Upon this is the issue of that struggle in our institutions. They do favor of equal be free and equal. In every century that principle never met the North American continent, nor the world with its beneficence inspired all nations with hope and faith the United States the asylum of the world. Yet America at this hour, presents the most astounding contradiction in history: a people politically bound by the most gigantic monopolies of all time and paralyzed by a system of taxation which exploits millions to enrich a few. We have preserved the forms of freedom but are fast losing its substance. The evils of this condition are felt in a thousand ways throughout the land. Therefore it is that America is awake. Therefore it is that it calls to take in our measures with it. Therefore it is that the great national exigency, the crisis and the right man. The latent and resistless resources of our patriotic and best men individuals are as nothing personal ambitions are worse than nothing. If the chosen candidate is in any sense of the degree completely to meet the situation, he is doomed to defeat.

Known by Speech and Deed

Men are known by what they and do. They are tested by who hate and oppose them. years ago Woodrow Wilson man is great who thinks for and no man is good who lives to secure the happiness and of others. This is the secret life. Later in his inaugural retain good will and sincerity in Principles, he declared, "The great not come from without, they comes in a moment from the and woods, and the fruits of stories and the noble thing gaining volume and force from the homes of our people. Do these words echo in the ears of our fellow-citizens? Have heard them? A great people through her spirit that now moves America."

His Spirit Universal

He shouted, "I will not cry peace so long as there is sin and wrong in the world. Here is the very soul of the silent revolution now solidifying with moral purpose in our common conduct.

The deeds of this moral and intellectual statesman are known to all men. They are not with the shams and false pretenses of politics but make politics to square with the millions of people determined to correct the wrongs of industry and to establish the social justice in liberty to all the people. Woodrow Wilson for the enemies he has made in New Jersey has won for himself a secure place in his country's history. Those opposed him are servants of the old order that has outlived its usefulness and must give way to the new. Those who have unwittingly been the tools of privilege and special interests will be forgiven. Those who have been wilfully and deliberately false to the people's interests will be punished. Woodrow Wilson has been tried in the fire of opposition and has not been found wanting. He is the peerless, matchless, unconquerable leader of democracy in this crisis of its fortunes. He is the ultimate Democrat.

All Unite to Him

Democrats of the United States, North America, the world with its beneficence inspired all nations with hope and faith the United States the asylum of the world. Yet America at this hour, presents the most astounding contradiction in history: a people politically bound by the most gigantic monopolies of all time and paralyzed by a system of taxation which exploits millions to enrich a few.
