

W. G. GLEAD JOINS CHARLOTTE SOON

Raleigh, Charlotte and Southern Will Be Ready June 1

Farther End Is Getting Ready for Commercial Traffic—President Hix in the City

That active traffic between the points of Mt. Gilead and Charlotte will begin no later than June 1 is the judgment of President C. H. Hix, of the Norfolk Southern, who is spending the night in the city.

President Hix came here yesterday in his private car and was accompanied by Traffic Manager Carr and Engineer Nicholson. They will be here this morning and go in the forenoon to Norfolk.

But good judges believe that the road is pleased with the progress of the work. There has been more done than he could have hoped at this time. And everything looks good for continuation of the work.

Mr. Hix cannot say how long it will be until there is through connection between Raleigh and Charlotte over the new road. When such connection is made, Raleigh people may go to Charlotte on twenty miles less riding. That will have the effect of reducing somewhat the freight and passenger rates between the two points.

The Raleigh, Charlotte and Southern extension is making good progress, on account of the favorable weather anticipated, said Mr. Hix. "All connection will be made through Mt. Gilead by May 1st and commercial traffic will be handled regularly by June 1st. The line between Mt. Gilead and Charlotte is in such state of advancement as reasonably to expect its connection through to Charlotte by July 1st.

Mr. Hix said that the unusually open winter has contributed much to the progress of this work. The agency forces at Raleigh have been consolidated at the Jones street terminal of the Norfolk Southern, which will work a material improvement in the expeditious handling of merchandise freight.

The team track yard at Hargett street is completed and in operation, avoiding long haul to Raleigh and Southport terminals as heretofore.

MRS. PANKHURST'S SENTENCE THREE YEARS' SERVITUDE

Standing on the seats they shrieked and shouted anathemas at the court. For three minutes they held full sway in the courtroom. The police were powerless. The judge's warning that he would commit the entire party to prison for contempt fell on deaf ears.

Under the leadership of Mrs. T. P. Harrison, the club has had not only a delightful and a profitable retrospect, but a really brilliant administration. The reports yesterday of the retiring officers were very gratifying and told of a year's work filled with good work.

Locally, Col. Pogue declares the outlook most promising. Large purses are soon to be announced. No prospect has been so good at this distance from the fair. And Fayetteville is to follow Raleigh, as she did last year, with a big exhibition.

Developments are said to have shown, however, that the little child had not been taken to the cave.

At the request of the chamber of commerce, Mrs. Harrison appointed a committee of six to act in co-operation with a similar committee from the chamber of commerce to provide for a series of sacred concerts to be given on Sunday afternoon during the election.

A letter of appreciation from Mrs. Swift was read on behalf of the children of the State, and expressing sincere thanks for assistance in securing child labor and school legislation.

Mrs. Daisy Denson urged a large attendance at the Sociological Conference to be held in Atlanta in the near future. Reduced rates are offered both by railroads and by the State.

Mrs. Hutt and Mrs. Rosenthal were appointed to help the ladies of Middlesex organize a Woman's Club.

The music department reported a most delightful entertainment by Mrs. Wade Brown on the folk songs of the British Isles, and announced a grand concert on Friday, April 24 in Mrs. Mary's auditorium by Mr. Blinn Owen.

At this point the club gave Mrs. Brown a rising vote of thanks for her excellent program of last Friday.

The magazine committee asked for a new supply of magazines. Members will please send or bring their contributions to the club room next Thursday afternoon.

The social service committee's report proved that they have lived up to their name. They welcome to the members of the club and their friends has added greatly to the pleasure of the meetings.

After the regular business of the afternoon was completed, and while the club waited for the report of the tellers, Mrs. W. N. Hutt was asked to give a report on the biennial meeting of the National Federation of Women's Clubs held in San Francisco in 1912.

Mrs. Hutt told of the interesting trip, the wonders of the far West, the courtesies received by the delegates everywhere, the brains, capable women assembled there, of the things they did and for.

MR. JUDD RETURNS. Superintendent Judd returned to the city yesterday after a two days' trip in the western part of the county, speaking at the commencement exercises of Fair View School in Swift Creek township and Carpenter School in Cedar Fork township. TO ISSUE BONDS. Dayton, Ohio, April 3.—Through a terrific lightning storm and over roads which in many places were ankle deep in water, Governor Cox and members of the Ohio food relief commission, accompanied by General John C. Speaks and his military staff, tonight returned to Dayton from Hamilton, where they had gone to investigate the flood situation. Practically all members of the commission tonight agreed with Governor Cox in the plan announced today of State aid for the rehabilitation of points in the State which have suffered most from the recent high waters. In brief, the plan calls for the enactment of a State law by which municipalities and other public subdivisions would be authorized to issue bonds immediately without submitting the bond issue question to a vote of the people.

RAILROAD ASSOCIATION ENTIRELY NEW

Their Showing Better Now Than Last Season

SO SAY CONNIE MACK

His Understudies Give Promise of Developing Into Great Players

Connie Mack and his mixed squad of Yanniaks and regulars left last night for Norfolk, where this afternoon and tomorrow they will try conclusions with the team of that city. The squad, including Mrs. Connie Mack, Mrs. Combs, Trained, "Doc" Chadwick and John O'Brien, sport writer for the Philadelphia Public Ledger, numbers 17.

Connie is well pleased with the showing made by both his regulars, now playing the Nationals in Philadelphia. The Athletics look entirely different compared with their showing at the start of last season and will start the pennant battle in better condition. The players now in his care, he says, are the best understudies that he has collected in recent years, and will be heard from very soon. The Yanniaks have made better showing in Southern States than any other regulars since beginning practice. They were with Birmingham, Fort Worth and Houston; the latter two teams being members of the Texas league.

Of the squad now in Connie's care, the most promising are Dailley and Orr, and both of these men will be retained as members of the Regulars. "Los Angeles" club of the Pacific Coast league in exchange for Maggett, outfielder, Crab, a pitcher and two other players. Connie considers this playing one of his greatest finds and will use him as utility outfielder. Orr, who played the shortstop position in yesterday's game with Raleigh, was rated as the star infielder of the Pacific Coast league and will be used by Connie as utility infielder on the major club.
