CHARACTER, INTEGRITY AND ABILITY WANTED

Will Be Given Office in Preference to Partisans Without Better Qualifications

THE PRESIDENT'S ATTITUDE

Not That He Is Going to Ignore Recommendations of Senators and Representatives

(By H. E. C. BRYANT.)
Washington, D. C., April 14.—The president's attitude toward recommendations of senators and representatives is not that he is going to ignore them, but that he is not going to appoint men to office unless they are fit. Men of character, integrity, and ability will be given office in preference to partisans without the better qualifications. Politicians of the ward-heeler type need not apply if the president knows their real position back home.

After Stormy Business Meeting That Results in Partial Victory For Mrs. Story

NOTABLE WOMEN PRESENT

The Daughters Urged to Apply Principles of Their Revolutionary Ancestors to Modern Problems

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, D. C., April 14.—Delegates to the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which began its twenty-second annual session here today, were welcomed to Washington by President Wilson in his first public address since his inauguration. Addresses of welcome also were made by Secretary of State Bryan and the French ambassador, M. Jusserand. Both the president and secretary Bryan told the daughters that it was their duty to apply the principles of their revolutionary ancestors to modern problems.

THE BARACAS AND PHILATHEAS GO TO DURHAM NEXT

Baracas Elect State Officers and Philatheas Will Do So at Today's Sessions

E. W. TATUM PRESIDENT

Day of Inspirational Addresses and Round Table Talks Among Leaders and Members

(Special to News and Observer.)
Charlotte, April 14.—Durham gets the next State Baracas-Philatheas Convention, the determination of the delegates from this city making itself felt from before the time the convention convened—the Durham folks began their work on the train coming into Charlotte. The only other town to make a strong bid was Raleigh, but the decision was Durham's from the first.

PRESIDENT PICKS SUMMER CAPITOL IN NEW HAMPSHIRE; WILL LIVE ON NOVELIST'S ESTATE DURING HOT MONTHS

(Special to News and Observer.)
Cornish, N. H., April 14.—In Harlakenden on the beautiful 200-acre country estate of Winston Churchill, the novelist, near here, President Woodrow Wilson will establish the summer capital. He has leased the building for the coming season. The mansion stands within seven-and-a-half acres of the Connecticut river and is in the midst of a heavily wooded forest of oak and pine. Nearby is a colony of artists and writers. Among the President's neighbors will be Kenyon Cox, Norman Hapgood, Maxfield Parrish, Louis Shipman, Mrs. Augustus St. John and Stephen Parrish. The house is pretty, but not pretentious. It is of brick, two stories in height, and contains thirty rooms. Two staircases from the main roadway lead to its rear entrance.

EFFORTS TO PUT CATTLE AND SHEEP ON FREE LIST FAIL

Democratic House Caucus Votes Down Amendments

AGAINST CHANGE IN BILL

Wilson Believes the Tariff Bill Meets General Approval of the Country

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, D. C., April 14.—Persistent efforts to put cattle and sheep on the free list, to cut the duty on swine and to otherwise alter the Ways and Means committee tariff revision bill, were defeated in the Democratic caucus of the House today. The Democratic leadership fight for the bill as reported, was piloted by Representative Burton Harrison, of New York, in the absence of Representative Underwood, the majority leader, who is ill. On the Senate side of Congress the tariff revisionists were inactive.

Goldsboro, April 14.—This morning shortly after 9 o'clock E. Cleveland Prince, a prominent young business man of this city, accompanied by a young lady, visited the Goldsboro Hospital, where Mrs. May L. Carter Lomax was a patient, and shot her dead in her room. She was undergoing treatment for a sprained ankle, the result of an automobile accident.

SECRETARY DANIELS HAVING SOME LUCK

Cattle, Poultry, and Cats Increasing in Numbers Around Single Oak Since the Head of the Navy Occupied It.

(By H. E. C. BRYANT.)
Washington, April 14.—The New York World of 28th day carried the following story:

Secretary of the Navy Daniels had had one streak of good luck after another ever since the day he was sworn in. He was worried for a week after his appointment to the cabinet lest he could not find enough ground and open space for his four boys to romp on. Senator Newlands helped him out by leasing to him a single oak, an estate of ten acres, on the edge of the city. The contract for "Single Oak" provided that Mr. Daniels have the use of Old Mool, a black and white cow, and six chickens, and keep Tabby, an aged brindle cat. The lease was signed and the Daniels moved in. Since the day he has produced a calf, the cat five kittens, and the hens a brood of seven biddies and thirty-seven eggs.

Hen That Lays 11 Eggs a Week

Owned by J. N. Price, a Wayne County Farmer—Has Been So Inducious Since February 1.

(Special to News and Observer.)
Waynesboro, April 14.—J. N. Price, a Wayne county farmer, has a gallinawhich lays 11 eggs a week regularly. The program of the "industrious fowl" is to produce one egg one day and two the next alternately, and she has been at it since February 1. Part of the eggs have double yolks and all are with unusually hard shells. The hen's nest is in a child's crib in Mr. Price's home, and he has watched it carefully to see that no other fowl frequented it. His neighbors bear witness to its extraordinary record of the hen.

N. C. NEWS AT THE CAPITAL

(By H. E. C. BRYANT.)

Washington, D. C., April 14.—Senator P. M. Simmons went to New Bern tonight to attend the marriage of his daughter.

J. A. Hartness, of Statesville; R. E. Neill, of Boone; Judge Walter H. Lott, of Laurinburg; and D. Elias, of Raleigh, called on Secretary Daniels today.

The dinner to Walter H. Page, ambassador to England, was given at the Cosmos club tonight by Republicanists.
