SUNDAY MORNING, JANUARY 4, 1914.

The News and Observer

and fast.

tions"

controlled and dominated by the Morgan interests. This is a step towards ending an intolerbeen brought about by the interlocking of direc-mended strongly, for by such voluntary action

there is at once an end put to "big business"

they must stop their questionable practices.

phone Company when it announced it would sur-

Because of what has been accompliahed the anti-trust legislation; which is on the program to be taken up by Congress, should have in it features which will bar the doors against actions locking directorates.

torates of great corporations.

Published Daily, Escept Menday, HY. The News and Observer Publishing Co. JOSEPHUS DANIELS, President. News and Observar Building, 113-114 W Martin Street TELEPHONES. FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE: .$5.00 One year Morning Tonic

(Mrs. Child ) E VERY human soul has the germ of some flowers within, and they would open if they could only find sunshine and free air to expand I always told you that not having enough of sunshine was what ailed, the world. Make peopleh appy, and there will not be half the quarrelmg, or a tenth part of the wickedness there is.

Uncle Walt Mason

THE year is young and joyous, the year is glad and gay; no gloomy doubts annoy us, as we jog on our way. We've shaken all bad habits, we're righteous as can be, and so, as blithe as rabbits, we gambol in our gles. Nomore from brimming flagon we'll blow the creamy securing progressive legislation has convinced foam, no more, with Al-

THE NEW YEAR. pine jag on, we'll go at . midnight home. The fleshpots are deserted, we scorn the demijohn, the jugs with which we flirted are banished now and rone.' We've fired the old rank briar that caused better, nobler life; we've joined the moral fogies who are in virtue versed, and shun the long black stogies which smell like wienerwurst. No more to back the ponies our footsteps will be bent; the bank will get our monies and pay us three spendthrift knows and swallow oherry ices instead of tangletoes. Our pledges are not shall low, they're founded on the rock; and every man a halo will wear around his block ... Now may the gods who guard us from their siesta rouse, and brace us and reward us with strength to keep our vows! Oh, may our lives be holy while this glad New Year stays, and may we never slowly drift announcements of withdrawals from other interback to evil ways!

"May a man hire his wife?" gravely inquires an exchange. No dear heart not if she gets to a your pocketbook tirst /

If you have already made some mistakes about in the future which would tend to give control it, why be cautious and remember it is now of this country to a lew great trusts. Not alone written 1914.

Here's a New Year's wish sent Charlotte ward the law which is enacted should provide a pen-The State hopes you will give us a great day in alty to insure good behavior. It should be a your city when the anniversary of the Mecklen- law which will feach every man who dares to bury Declaration of Independence comes around | violate it and by its provisions it should be a

It now becomes the duty of every man who elimeher in making it emphatic that "guilt is wants Raleigh to go forward to use his influence. personal," so that any who would violate it may to carry the election of January 14 in favor of realize that they do so at their peril. bonds for school buildings

RALEIGH LEADS. "DON'T SHOOT-I'LL COME DOWN." When great movements are afoot, when there The skies are clearing every day for that good weather time which is the right of the people of is action needed in the aid of a great cause, it this country. For years on years their financial has been found that in Raleigh there are men affairs, the welfare of this country, has been in and women who lead, with energy, ability and the grasp of a small group of financiers who have enthusiasm killed and made alive as they wished.

In the movement in this country in which ten States have already given equal suffrage to That the country is to be relieved of the strangle hold of this group is due to the election women, putting them on the same plane as men of Woodrow Wilson as President and that the in political life, Raleigh has a unique and distinctive place. It is that this city was the birthmajority in the House and Senate of the United States is held by the Democracy. That party place of Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake, a pioneer for enunciated its purpose at Baltimore to put an Women's Rights, who on last Tuesday, at the end to the domination of the money trust and age of 78, died in New Jersey.

THE NEWS AND OBSERVER

Mrs. Blake was born in Raleigh in 1835, her its allies, and its work in the ten months in which it has been in power is bringing reusits thick grandfather being William Samuel Johnson, at one time president of Columbia College, and she

The latest event showing that the Democrati eas distantly related to Aaron Burr. She was a remarkable woman; and at the age of sixteen. purpose to put its words into deeds is the resighearing Susan B. Anthony speak, she bceame an The set of the Bestoffice at Belgier, North is the set of the state of the set of the se also from those corporations which have been cause of equal buffrage.

Mrs. Blake was one of the most picturesque figures in the fight for the woman's vote till adable condition in the financial world which has vancing years and the encroachment of a malady long threatened deprived her of strength. As a writer and speaker there has been no more bril-

Concerning his motive in withdrawing from liant mind devoted to the cause. Mrs. Blake's wit and beauty, her dignity enhanced by gowns, these directorates Mr. Morgan says for himself and his associates that they do so because atwere assets in her career that played heavily in her favor, but above and beyond all her juditendance at so many directors' meetings is a burden of which they will be relieved, and further cial mind made her a leader of vast importance. that "An apparent change in public sentiment in In her work for equal suffrage she helped frame and put through legislatures many laws which regard to directorships seems now to warrant us in seeking to resign from some of these connecwere in favor of women. She was the first person to demand that Columbia College throw The action of Mr Morgan in retiring from the open its doors to women, and consistently agidirectorates in many corporations is to be comtated to accomplish this. In her work she appeared before the Legislature of Connecticut and that of New York and addressed committees of both houses of Congress on many occasions. In methods which have been used to the hurt of 1896 she spoke in Raleigh in the Hall of the legitimate business. This action is such as to House during the sitting of the General Assembly. demonstrate most clearly that the election of Mrs. Blake had held national. State and city Woodrow Wilson as President and his success in offices in suffrage organizations, founded the New York Legislative League, filled the presidency of trust magnates and others violating the law that the New York City Mothers' Club (for while she believed ardently in the vote for women she be-Such action, while it is to be commended, lieved essentially in the home) and brought into should not in any way affect the antit-rust legislation which has place on the program outlined being the Pilgrim Mothers- a satire on the Pilby President Wilson Indeed, if anything, it grim Pathers whose yearly banques developed domestic strife; we're striving for the higher, the makes more emphatic the need of legislation many quips at the expense of the male. It was which would be a bulwark against future en at one of these banquets that Mrs. Blake ancroachments upon the rights and liberties of the nounced the discovery that the American Eagle people by great financial groups. The with- was a female. It was she who in 1894 first condrawal of the Morgan interest from various di ceived the idea of organizing women politically rectorates is an admission of the wrong in these, by assembly districts. Her career is a unique per cent; we'll dodge the stals devices that every and without doubt came because they had been one, and Raleigh leads once again in that she was born in this city. made to see clearly that such conditions were > not going to be permitted to continue. This, The date of January 14 should be kept in mind was seen by the American Telegraph and Tele by every citizen of Raleigh who believes in progress. On that day there will take place the elecrender control of the Western Union Telegraph tion to determine whether Raleigh will erect a lompany, and the Morgan announcement is needed school building and improve the present justly regarded as being the forerunner of other buildings. The bond issue of $50,000 should be carried by a unanimous vote.

Not Much Fun For Webb.

Newton News

should there be such anti-trust legislation which The Greensboro News makes fun of the candiprohibits any such control as has existed, but dacy of Hon. E. R. Preston. If Mecklenburg will to into the next congressional convention for Mr. Preston, there will not be much fun in that convention for Mr. Webb It will be a serious time.

Business Methods Pay.

Albemarle Enterprise

A substantial farmer of Western Stanly, whose name we withhold tells us he has found that it pays to run a larm in a business way He keeps 1 P Morgan and those allied with him. Let the an exact record of all receipts and expenditures, for years was the treasurer of the lines of the Vanderbilt systems of railroads west of Buffalo profits are. This farmer knows the value of his land in productivity and stands in no danger of his farm for less than it is worth. There selling should be food for thought in this for those farmers who have failed to use business methods in their work.

great uncle, Rufus Choate; John Hay, a master of the English tongue, and Lord Pauncefortz one of the greatest diplomats the world has pro duced, wrote that treaty that provided that the shipping of all nations should pass through the canal on equal terms. No author of any book of the Bible ever wrote a thing clearer, but we have some statesmen who have convinced Congress that "all" does not embrace the whole, and that our nation is an exception in the phrase "all mations'

There is nothing new in that-there never yet was a thief who did not first convince himself that he was excepted when it was handed down from Sinai, in awful imperative, "Thou shalt not-

5.8 8 8 The world will ever admire the chivalrous dispatch that the knightly Francis sent his mother, Louise of Savoy, from the fatal field of Pavia; "All is lost save honor." It is the ther ne of poet and a thousand times it enkindled the heroic spirit of whrlike France in subsequent epoch. But here we are gaining a miserable pittance at there the cost of honor |- Honor lest!

Our repudiation of a solemn treaty to this down to is not the bort prints . The Monroe Enguin more than half a century we have abandoned a more than half a century we have abandoned a purely protective tariff and concluded to be a merchant, trading with all the world. The Pan markets in this county. The differmarkets in this county. markets in this county. The different ent markets received the following number of bales: Monroe, 15,180 Marshville, 6,075; Waxhaw, 5,150; Wingate, 1,826; Indian Trail, 775. ama Canal was constructed to promote our mercantile establishment. What have we done? Why, we have angered every customer we have got and insulted every customer we expect. You can't be a successful merchant that way. Qur protective tariff for fifty years made conditions so that nobody would buy of us if he could get as good a bargain elsewhere. And here we chill Europe, Asia, Africa, Latin America, Australia and the islands of the sea, by this miserable policy of larding that fat sow, the American merchant marine, engaged in the coastwise trade. Not only has that opulent beggar robbed our people of untold millions, but now it has robbed us of what is of far greater moment, the national

Here we have built our canal. Suppose a merhant vessel from Liverpool or Antwerp, or Hamburg or Amsterdam, or other European emporium. is freighted for somewhere, a port that could be reached with equal dispatch and facility through either canal, Suez or Panama-What will that ship do? It will go by Suez, alleging that the United States is not an honest nation and will not stand hitched to a solemn treaty. By that sentiment alone we will lose more than we can possibly gain by voidance of the treaty. There are a heap of our people who are convinced that anything that is profitable is honor streets and good roads. Before the able-that was the doctrine of the pirate who streets and roads were improved it able-that was the doctrine of the pirate who harried the Spanish main. But if we should reflect a little we would come to realize that our dishonor and dishonesty in repudiation of our solemn obligation are wasteful Our loss of trade on that account in the market place will probably be as great relatively as our loss of character in the esteem of peoples whose respect is of value and without which we cannot get along saw before are now traveling over that road to this place to trade.

There is a great battle not yet fought to finish between Selfishness and Justice. Here it acute Shuft we be just and gain, not only ther espect, but the friendship, of the world and rean abundant material profit as well or whether we shall stand before the world upright recent dispensation from the postal officials at Washington permits one to or scamp-and then the folly of it even in the matter of vulgar and dirty gain' send a package by parcel post in the first a 50 miles, to a maximum weight of

New News of Jesterday (By E. J. Edwards.)

WERE SIMILAR.

. If N the early seventies I was associated with my brother, Jacob D. Cex, who was at one Spartacus, "I have met every form of man or beast the broad empire of time Governor of Ohio and as another a member of the first Cabinet of President Grant. My Rome could furnish. business frequently took me into Detroit. Our lion-" # Voice-"How about the Weish rabbit" (Cheers and cat-calls railroad had a terminal at Detroit and we were planning an extension of it across Canada to Niagara Falls " the arena. i - Puck In this way the late Charles Finney Cox, who Door and Ducks Morehead Coaster. Two deer and forty-two ducks is a record made at-Carteret Lodge, near Newport, during the past ten days by of education in Pitt county, I have never known but one ballot to be cast by the school board that was not party of sportsmen from Reidsville ligsboro, and Martinville; unanimous," said Professor W. H. VR. Ragsdale, of Greenville, a few days

Racy of the Soil

Hog Weighs 700 Pounds. Morehead Coaster.

Enquirer.

Fuquey Springs Gold Leaf.

world's record.

approximately $1,404.

Sanford Express

Mr. Cooper Adams of Salter Path. cation at the big banquet of business on Bogue Sound, was in town this week. In speaking of hogs' heads and collards, he incidentally remarkhad brought forth prolonged applause when he recited statistics ed that he salted a "porker" mek that weighed 700 pounds, dress showing the wonderful progress that ed,' and that the head of this one weighed pinety pounds. Mr. Adams is a great believer in keeping the best Hence his collard is to cat.

patch and the large hog. Service Cotton in Monroe.

Tobacco Lond Nearly $2,003.

week Mr. Tally sold on the local mar-

Autos and Good Roads.

ity until they are built and in use

Hog By Mail.

On Friday of last had been made in educational lines in his county. "Eleven years ago there was not a school in the county-that had more than two punchers, while today there 100 P 200 P 200 BARLIN MALER AND STREET en, two with six; one with five, three with three, and twenty-five that have two each. Today there are onlythirteen achool houses that were standing eleven years ago; all of the other 67 are new ones built since that time.

Go & Was G= Sayin'

"During the twenty-four years that have been county superintendent ago. Professor Ragadale had on the night before spoken on county edu-men held at Pitt's county seat, and

"We have never had a change on our county school board except when a member resigned or moved away, Mr. H. M. Talley, whose tobacco ralsing activities made Fuquay Springs and one thing. I believe, more than obacco market famous all over the fouthern States, has again broken the any other, that accounts for this great progress is the fact that the county has continuously kept the same men ket a single load of tobacco for $1,-804,78. The load was drawn by four in charge of the educational work. One member of our present heard has mules, and a large crowd fathered to seen twelve consecutive years of serwatch it pull in. The tobacco was raised on the fertile lands of Mr. J. Beale Johnson near Faquay Springs vice, another eight, and the other five, and all of them work in harmony, and and weighed about 5 400 pounds. Three years ago Mr Talley established in the interests of the county and the children of the county. a world's record when he sold with

Mr. A. H. Aiken a load of tobacco for "Eleven years ago we had an enrollment of 2,320 school children out of a school population of five thousand. Today we have more than five thousand children in our schools out Automobiles are now driven more of a population of 6,000 school popin Sanford and this section than we ulation. The value of school property have ever before known in the winter reason. This is due to our good in Pitt county then was $16,500, while it now exceeds $125,000. Then we had school terms of three and three ; was almost impossible for autmoobiles as well as other vehicles to pull through them at this season of the year. The good roads are bringing and a half months while last year the average term was five months and one day. In 1903 there was not a lomore people in Sanford to trade. A farmer who lives on one of the imcal tax district in Pitt county, and toproved roads a few miles out from Sanford says people whom he never day there are thirteen, paying more than $13,000 per year for the cause of education. I attribute much of this progress to the fact that the county one can have a true conception of what good reads mean to a commun superintendent has been, for the past few years, devoting all of his time. to the work of his office, and most of this advancement has come about since such provision was made. The interest of the people in education has increased in much greater degreethan has the material progress of the people.

"Our schools are now in fine shape, and practically all of them are now running. The compulsory education law is having good results in Pitt nd second gones, a radius of county, and everything is in fine shape educationally, except that we could always use to advantage more money than we have at the present time.

> "The good roads settimient is high in our section of the State," said Mr. J. H. White, of Marshall, Madison county, who was in the city yesterday on business with Governor Craig. Mr. White is president of the Citizens Bank of Marshall, and is one of the leading citizens of that section of the State.

"One thousand men in Madison and much confusion in the rear of county on good roads days in Novem ber marched forth with pick and shovel over their shoulders to work the roads of our section, and in the town of Mrshall alone there wera three hundred business men with overalls on out shoveling dirt. The business man closed their banks, of - f fices, and all of the stores, and the good women of the town served meals to five hundred people each day. At the end of the two days named by the Governor, we had graded one mila of road and put it in good condition. And the same thing will hold good for all of the whole county. "The State convict camp is only three miles from our town and in this camp there are now forty-one convicts, all of whom are busily engaged in road work. During the last four months they have built three miles of the Central Highway, the road heing 24 feet wide, and on a four and one-half per cent grade. "Madison county, about four months ago voted $300,000 in good roads bonds for the improvement of the highways in the county, and ali of these bonds have either been sold or contracted for. Early in the spring we are going to begin our road work in carnest. Our plan is to start out each way from Marshall, and build roads all over the county. "By the way, I would like to tell you, too, that Governor Craig is a favorite in our section of the county. There are scarcely any party lines up our way when it comes to choosing him for an office, for he is a favorite with both Democrats and Republiwhat they were, he said they were cans. I am a Republican myself, but I think Governor Craig is a mighty fine man and is making a good Gov-

grab Washington, January I Spirit of the Press

the spigot?

Charlotte Observer. Mr. J. W.-Blanton yesterday re-ceived a fifty-pound hog by mail from Tillman's, South Carolina, sent here by a friend. The package, or rather shall we be selfish and court, the enmity and disdain of the world loss at the bung and save at That is all the issue there is in this canal toll the "pig in the poke," came via par-cel post and cost 66 Cents, which is It is for the 'manhood bf. America' to say rather cheap as freight goes. The 50 pounds. The South Carolina friend of Mr. Blanton took advantage of this and sent the nice porker as a present. Smile and Be Happy

TWO MILLIONAIRES WHOSE CAREERS

unite with this progressive body in working for Raleigh son means business. He has the correct idea that a platform was made to stand on, not that it is a thing metely useful to get in on-law made to serve all the people-

The news is that the heis are in a repeirtant

Treasury McAiloo. He has rendered a signal ser- given where help is the need. vice to the people of the United States and all. The superintendent, Rev. R. S. Stephenson, wish that he may have a speedy recovery

The policy of President' Wilson with regard to Mexico is bearing fruit. That the Huerta guy

The school officials of North Carlina are looked to by the people to see that the children are in school. The compulsory attendance taw in education

The bankers and business men of the country are speaking forth us strong words of praise of the currency and banking reform law. Its passthe fact that the people intend to rule, and is accepting conditions. It is wise to do so.

All who want the very best for North Carolina growing condition. will find that the way to get one good thing is to keep up the fight for good roads.

business on a big scale this year.

10000 Raleigh's Chamber of Commerce descrees the legal gun be loaded with such animunition, that knows what each grop has cost him and what his support of every business man, in Raleigh If there will be none who will endanger themselves you are not on the membership roll, hirry and by getting into the danger zone of its range.

"Don't shoot. I'll come down," is the us

DOING ITS WORK WELL.

The way the trust converts are promising to be There is a field for systematic charity work in good shows that they realize that President Will every place where people live in numbers, and where the poor are to be found. Work of that character is being done in Baleigh by the organization known as the Associated Charities. and it is doing this work well-

The banks of this country have already given. There is published this morning in this paper notice that they work to come under the pro a review of the work of the association for the visions of the new banking law and its value past six months of last year. It makes a most may be seen in the applications made. It is a interesting story, showing in what manner has it might as well be deaf, blind and dumb been expended the money which has been contrabuted by the people of this city.

The Associated Charities of Raleigh deserves mood, and that they will now produce ages more the full support of the people of this city, and all abundantly. The will be good 1914 news to the who are able should regard it as a privilege that folks who have been paying 40 and 45 cents a they can contribute in a worthy cause. Investigations made by the officers of the association are

The people of the entire country have feit, such as to put the money donated to proper deep concern in the dimensionly Secretary of the use, and the work is so systematized that help is who is ever diligent in his work, says that right now there is a need for money to aid sufferers who are not able to provide for themselves. It Mexico is beaning fruit. That the Huerta gov ernment is fast crumbling is the behef in the for fuel and clothing and medicine. Now is the best informed corles. The President is a man time to help the organization and there should whose judgment and wisdom are being more and be a prompt response to the urgent cell which is made on help of the substantial kind.

THE CITIZENS NATIONAL.

Raieg's continues to go forward and the latest provides to way to have them there. All to, evidence is that the litizens National Bank is gether for a North Carolina which goes forward now "at 'home in its magnificent new bank building. The transfer of its millions from its temporary quarters to its new home by the members of the bank force was a feature of interest. as it marked this accomplishment of a big work age was opposed by "Big Business," but that National Bank building is an addition of value One of Raleigh's two skyscrapers, the Citizens to Raleigh Its occupany marked the completion of three new and handsome bank buildings in Raleigh, buildings which would be a credit The advocates of good roads in North Caro- to any city. The Citizens, National Bank is lina have seen great progress made in North recognized as being one of the strongest banking Carolina during the past year in road building . institutions of the South and it is now "at home This year should see even greater progress made. in a building which bents its prosperous and

There is not going to be any panic. The money kings, the special favorites of the tariff, and The reports from all sections of North Carolina | the Republican reactionaries would have welare that the State is in a prosperous condition and comed one, indeed would have been glad to aid that the outlook for business in 1914 is of the in bringing on one, but the Wilson administration best. With that in view it behooves the busi- has seen to it that their claws have been drawn ness men of North Carolina to get ready to do and their teeth extracted. The year 1914 is to be one of unexampled prosperity.

The Discreet Mr. Lind.

Atlanta Constitution.

In a day of garrulous and self-advertising di-plomacy it is refreshing to encounter such a personality as John Lind, President Wilson's sonal envoy to Mexico. Mr. Lind has now been summoned from his post at Vera Cruz for a conference with his chief at Pass Christian But for all the world knows of the issues to be discussed, Reticence and discretion have been the key notes to John Lind's program in Mexico. nan was well chosen for a task admittedly deli cate Had a talkative individual or one given to self-emblazonment, been sent on this errand the blunders he perpetrated might well have been irreparable. What Lind has done in the way of ironing out the wrinkles in the Mexican puzzle American knows save Lind and the President He has pleased sentiment at home and he has kept on terms of at least long distance negotiation with even the impossible Huerta-

Praise be for a diplomat in our day whose diplomacy is not verbal or vocal!

Captain Eber B Ward, of Detroit, who at his death, in 1875, left an estate valued at nearly $6,000,000. He was the father of Clara Ward, who gained international notoriety as the wife of Prince de Chimay "I used to hear a great deal about Captain Ward," said Mr. Cox. "He was a poor boy and he began life on a little vessel which sailed

through the lakes. He was not content to be a mere sailor himself, so he gradually accumulated money enough to buy a sloop, and then as he added to his fleet, until at he made money last he was recognized all through the West as the greatest and most influential owner and man ager of shipping that sailed through the great

I was told that just about the close of the Civil War Captain Ward suddenly abandoned his steamboat and sailing vessel business on the Great Lakes and turned his attention to the man ufacture of Bessemer steel. He was so successful that he established mills at Chicago, and he ac tually made the first steel rails which were ever produced in the United States

"Captain Ward changed suddenly and absofrom his position as a master of navigation lutely through the Great Lakes to that of a manufac turer of steel; and especially of steel rails,

Some years later I became associated with the Vanderbilts in their railroad system, and it suddeply occurred to me one day that there was an extraordinary similarity between the careers of Captain Ward, of Detroit and Chicago, and that of Commodore Vanderbilt. I don't think I ever heard anyone speak of this remarkable similarity, but I myself have often thought of it.

"Commodore Vanderbilt, like Captain Ward, was a very poor boy, and he began life as a ferry man, rowing passengers from his home on Staten Island across to the mainland of New Jersey. He was shrewd and saving, and when the commercial practicability of steam as a motive power for boats had been demonstrated the commodore began to invest in steamboats, at first in a small relics of a loss race isn't that interway, quite as small as were Captain Ward's first investments in a little sailing vessel on the Great ernment, that should stand for justice and integ | Lakes, "Then Commodore Vanderbilt buoght and built more steamboats, exactly as Captain Ward Hid. and at about the same time. At last the com modore was recognized as the steamboat king of the East. Suddenly and at about the same time that Captain Ward abandoned his vessels for our language is the gibberish of Babel. And that steel making. Commodore Vanderbilt absolutely abandoned his business as a steamboat owner pen to all ships under every flag on equal terms and operator and turned his attention exclusively to railroads. As Captain Ward was the first to the first to work out completely the plans for unifying and controlling a trunk line stretching from Chicago to the Atlantic seaboard.

cases, but there was one point of difference. Commodure Vanderbilt's estate was approximately a hundred millions Captain Ward's was approxi

"I might speak on another rather forced emblance. Captain Ward's daughter married a prince of one of the courts of Europe. Two of Commodore Vandrebilt's great-granddaughters married-one a European prince and the other reserved.)

Plays No Favorites,

One Beast Spartacus Had'nt Met.

"For twelve long years," roared

The Numidian

Hostess (gushingly)-They tell me began the narration to me of his first knowledge doctor, you are a perfect lady-killer. Doctor (modestly)—I assure you my dear madam, I make no distinction whatever between the sexes. Tattler

Lesson of the Dairy.

My efforts to keep a diary conme of one thing. "What's that?"

That there are mighty few days the year on which a man does anything really worth recording."-Detroit Free Press.

That Dreamy Look.

Boreleigh (at 11:40 p. m.)-"I love that dreamy look in your eyes. have never seen it in any other girls Miss Bright (stifling a yawn) Perhaps you don't stay as late with hem as you do here."-Boston Transcript.

"Rastus, what's a alibi?" "Dat's rovin' dat you was at a prayer meetwhat yoh wasn't in order to show yoh wasn't at de erap game whar yoh was."--Life

What She Would Want.

"She will doubtless have a harp and a halo in the beyond ". "Well?" 'But she won't be contented without a lorgnette."-Washington Herald.

Hubby Won.

"Oh, yes, my busband is an enthusiastic archaelogist," said Mrs. Smith. "And I never knew it until yesterday. I found in his deak some queer looking tickets with the inscription, 'Mud-horse, 8 to 1.' And when I asked him rse, 8 to 1. -Everbody's esting !

In the Field. "Where's your son, Siram ?"

"Going to an agricultural college." "I've heard them colleges ain't ractical.

that next year they're going to let him take care of centre field."-Pittsburg Post. Doubtful.

Mark Twain, so the story goes, was walking on Hannibal street when he et a woman with her youthful fam-So this is the little girl, ch?" Mark said to her as she displayed her chll-dren. "And this sturdy little urchin in the bib belongs. I suppose, to the contrary sez." "Yassah," the waman replied; "yas-sah, dat's a girl, too."-Christian Register. Register.

ernor." . . . "Let me introduce you to Mr. J. A. Ramsay, color bearer of the Second North Carolina Cavalry," Maj. W A. right out in the field. My boy writes a youngster by the hand and led him to the Statesville warrior. "I went through the army without a scratch." Mr. Ramsay said, "and just a few days before the surrender. I was taken prisoner. I spent alightly more than sixty days in prison and got, home about the last of June of 1865. That was the worst thing that happened to me during the whole WHT." Mr. Ramsay is visiting in Raloigh few weeks. He is retaining his youth by dividing residence between Statesville, the driest of all the towns, they say, and Wilkesboro, the jowel of the Brushles. The long, patriarchal beard is all that keeps him from being the boy who rode after terprise. In a hundred respects it is bound to make steel rails, so Commodore Vanderbilt was "I am sure there is no parallel to these two mately six millions.

Yankees half a century ago.

(Copyright, 1913, by E. J. Edwards. All rights

what the world interpreted it to be precisely. Now we built that canal as a speculative enbe of more advantage to us than to any other nation. It is estimated that the profits arising from it in legitimate tolls will return in the not very remote future to our posterity, the capital invested with ample dividend yearly. Then, if it were practical, why play the hog urrender our national honor for a paltry and a delusive advantage? Here we repudiate a sol emn compact when we allow the vessels of the States in the coastwise trade passage through the canal free of toll. We admit out dishonesty when we refuse to submit the question arbitrament of a Hague tribunal that is an English duketo the the richest fruit of the civilization of the nine teenth century.

Joseph II. Choate, a lawyer in th cclass of his

Savoyard's Letter

THE CANAL TOLL GRAB.

SPEAKING of the human heart. Jeremiah, the Prophet of God, observed, it is 'deceitful above all things and desperately wicked."

Before we put spade to dort down at Panama to divide the land and unite the water, our gov-rity as well as for wealth and power, deliberately promised the world in solemn covenant, signed, acknowledged, sealed and delivered, that the canal should be open to all nations on equal terms. If that is not what that treaty says then