A. & M. TO CLASH

Russell and Smith Will Be Op posing Twirlers In This Afternoon's Game

The first of the series of baseball ames between A. and M. and Wake orest, old-time rivals, is scheduled als afternoon at Riddick Athletic and will be the first important with the local collegians. The will start at $:30 o'clock. The Park rame ne between the two teams will be Easter Monday. ame

To some the outcome of the games with Wake Forest is not so promis-ing as last season and supporters of the Red and White think Coach Anthe field and white think coach an-derson's players will have easy trou-ble winning from the ancient rivals. Baseball, however, is a funny thing, and never a game is a sure victory un-til the last man has been retired. til the last man has been retured. Coach Thompson, it is true, has not made any great showing with his col-legians so far this season, but with recent improvement and Smith round-ing more into form, a lively battle can be expected this afternoon.

can be expected this afternoon. The A. and M. has made wonder-ful, progress during the past two games and those who have seen the recent exhibitions at Riddick Park are very pleased with the clas of baseball the collegians have been playing. Winston has been batting at a .750 clip and the moundsmen are now get-ting into great form. Russell has mitched but one same and prior to ting into great form. Russell has pitched but one game, and prior to that contest had not thrown but few balls, but he is now in good condition for the Wake Forest sluggers this afternoon. Wheeler has been playing sensational ball at short and is fast on his feet as Harry Hartsell. Gam-mon at third, Hodgin at second and "Ty" Farmer at dirst, are the other members of the fast infield. Taking care of the outer gardens are Cor-relle, Liverman, and Patton.

Russell will probably be opposed by Smith and the mere mention of these two twirlers is sufficient to insure the fans of an interesting game.
