

THE WEATHER

Full data concerning the weather will be found today on Page Ten.

The News and Observer

Best Advertising
Medium in North Carolina

VOL. XCIX. NO. 130.

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 1, 1914.

PRICE: FIVE CENTS

CARRANZA MUST HAVE HIS CHANCE

Washington Is Very Persistent In This Demand Upon Mediators

NO ANSWER TO NOTE
Its Publication Is Awaited With Interest—Constitutionalists Look With Favor On Vasquez Gomez as Possible Provisional Ruler, But Don't Care For Felix Diaz

(By the Associated Press)
Washington, D. C., May 31.—While Mexican mediation at Niagara Falls awaited word from the Washington and Huerta governments as to proposed terms of settlement of international differences and composition of the internal Mexican situation, prominent agents of the Constitutional movement in Mexico conferred heretofore, with Luis Cabrera as the center of interest. Washington officials, though in communication during the day with American representatives of the Constitutional cause, declined to discuss their attitude as to the reception of Carranza representatives into the mediation negotiations, but it was again declared that this government still was firmly of the mind that no protocol, which would outline terms of settlement of the general political affairs of Mexico, should be signed until agents of General Carranza had been given an opportunity to participate in the discussions.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan conferred briefly late in the day, and it was understood communications were forwarded to Commissioners Lamar and Lehmann at Niagara Falls. The belief in official circles here tonight was that the publication of the Carranza note to the mediators and the mediators' answer might be delayed for some days, pending further efforts on the part of this government to assure Constitutional representation at Niagara Falls.

Rebel Officials Confer.
When Luis Cabrera, whom Gen. Carranza hurriedly summoned from Europe, reached Washington, he was met by Rafael Zubarán, Capuchin, Minister of the Interior in the Carranza cabinet, and José Moncada, a second emissary of the Constitutional leaders.

The three were together throughout the day. The Constitutionalists again refused to discuss their deliberations, but it became known they were chiefly concerned with the Niagara Falls conference. Cabrera and Moncada, it was reiterated tonight, probably would go to Niagara Falls as delegates for the Constitutionalists, should the mediators determine to admit agents of Gen. Carranza.

No Answer to Note.
It was not tonight that no answer had come to the Carranza note dispatched Thursday, in which the mediators were informed the conflict in Mexico ought not to be dealt with in the absence of Constitutional representatives. Should invitation be extended to the Constitutionalists to take part in the conference, it is understood the Constitutionalist representatives would ask time to visit Gen. Carranza for instructions before appearing at Niagara Falls.

What was not officially informed about what is going on at the Falls or the names of Mexicans considered for the provisional government, the three Constitutional leaders plainly were interested in Felix Diaz and Vasquez Gomez. They apparently believe Diaz and Gomez may be under consideration by the mediators. They do not look upon Diaz at all with favor, but speak more favorably of Gomez, who is regarded as in sympathy with the Constitutional movement, although more or less neutral in the present struggle.

German Ship Fired.
Word reached Washington tonight that the fines assessed at Vera Cruz against the German steamer Yiranga, under Captain Stickney's interpretation of the Mexican navigation laws,

(Continue on Page Two.)

OPENING SERMON AT CHAPEL HILL

Dr. Edward Hill and Rev. Edward Hogue Preach To Students

BACCALAUREATE SERMON BY GREAT CHICAGO PREACHER IS MASTERFUL AND APPEALING—REV. R. W. HOGUE TALKS TO Y. M. C. A. BOYS ABOUT FAITH TO FIGHT HUMANITY'S BATTLE

AT STATE UNIVERSITY TODAY.
9:30 a. m.—Seniors form in front of Memorial Hall and march to Chapel for prayer.
10:30 a. m.—Senior Class-Day exercises in Gerard Hall. Orations by members of the graduating class in the contest for the Management medal.
5:30 p. m.—Closing exercises of the Senior Class.
7:30 p. m.—Annual joint banquet of the Dialectic and Philatropic Literary Societies in the Dining Hall.
9:30 p. m.—Anniversary meetings of the Literary Societies in their respective halls.

(By S. R. WINTERS)

Chapel Hill, May 31.—Two sermons abounding in wholesome advice to young collegians just making their exit from a University life into a field offering wider service, furnished the momentum that set the wheels of the one hundred and nineteenth commencement of the University of North Carolina in motion. The baccalaureate sermon, preached by the Rev. Dr. Edgar P. Hill, of Chicago, Ill., and the Young Men's Christian Association sermon by Rev. Richard Kogut of Baltimore, Md., D.

Richard Kogut of Baltimore, Md., D.

the two events engaging the attention of the stream of visitors that are arriving on the "Hill" for the first day's exercises.

Judge Merrimon Re-enters.

The feature of overnight developments relates to the re-entry of Judge Merrimon as a contending factor.

Great surprise was occasioned this morning when some of his delegates declared that he had never withdrawn from the race and that reports that he was dead were erroneous.

Mr. Frank Chapman, who was with Mr. Merrimon in the basement of McCormick Seminary, Chicago, by his simple and direct manner of presentation of a decidedly practical subject, caught the responsive interest of the audience that filled Gerard Hall.

TWO CLASSES IN REUNION.

Invocation by Rev. W. D. Morris, pastor of Chapel Hill Presbyterian church, opened the exercises at 11 o'clock. The senior class, for the first time, attired in the dignity of full-fledged graduates, marched in body to chapel and occupied the front seats of the middle row. To the left of the graduating class sat the reunited class of 1913, assembled for a one-year reunion. On the right of the graduating class, assembled in a body, was the class of 1902 here for their first reunion since graduation.

CONCERNED WITH ETERNITY.

Students of politics see the possibility of an impossible obstacle to a nomination with him in the fall election, with Judge Merrimon eliminated.

His vote distributed as it was last night and Mr. Moore's strength apportioned among Reynolds and Gidger in the generally accepted ratio, neither of the leaders will have quite enough votes to make a majority.

In several counties are fractions of a vote not represented by any delegate and under the unchallenged ruling of Chairman Adams these must be indefinitely cast for the candidates they represent. The aggregate of 3,000 votes of many delegates attended chairmaning while a large number of others spent the day in Asheville, still others going to their homes in the far west counties. Some will be unable to return and this fact may cut some figures, but the choice of each delegate is now so well known that no effort will be spared to have every essential delegate in his place tomorrow afternoon.

HAKING THE WOODS.

The absence of some younger and Reynolds' delegates will of course make no difference, the remaining delegates for each candidate casting the vote unchanged. Automobiles were sent today far into the woods to get several delegates who were absent last night and whose presence would have added a fraction of a vote to each of the leaders.

Many new Reynolds supporters will come again tomorrow to aid in the short-cut demonstration. With three Asheville men candidates, there is intense interest in the mountain metropolis and Republicans, as well as Democrats, are coming for the big show. Waynesville is bearing up under the situation with remarkable fortitude and the hotels are not unhappy.

LEGISLATIVE CLASS GROWING.

That the class inquisitive about eternity were growing with increasing rapidity and was worldwide in reach, the speaker was certain. He read plainly the trend when he

(Continued on Page Two.)

CANDIDATES STAY TO THE LAST DITCH

By The Great Horn Spoon, Says Friends of Five in Tenth

MERRIMON IS IN AGAIN

HIS MANAGER SAYS HE NEVER REALLY WITHDREW HIM—"TILL THE SANDS OF THE DESERT GROW COLD," SAY MOORE'S MEN—"WE STAND PAT," SAY OTHERS IN THE CONTEST

Waynesville, May 31.—Reconvening tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock the Tenth District Congressional Convention will find Judge J. H. Merrimon, again being voted for by his delegates, and with only a dozen votes for candidate J. O. Harrison, divided among the other aspirants, the 11th ballot will find the situation very much as it was on the first ballot.

The situation will be in fact merely an intensified form of the initial session, due to the grimly-voiced intention of the supporters of Walter E. Moore to cast his dozen and a fraction votes for him until the sapphire waters of Lake Junaluska are filled with ice, or dobbing delegates bowed with the tribulations of myriad blisters and Rip Van Winkle bears shall decide that the next Congressman should half to sail with her children early in June to spend the summer with her mother, Lady Grove, in Wilshire, England.

Leaders Are Confident.

But whether this stage setting is merely apparent and not real, or if real how long it will remain unchanged, opinions differ. The Reynolds forces believe that victory is just ahead and, forceful, resourceful, enthusiastic, stretch out their hands to grasp it are lampight tomorrow. The supporters of Congressman Gidger content themselves with the quiet assertion that they will, and are unshaking resolution to die in the last ditch.

Judge Merrimon Re-enters.

The feature of overnight developments relates to the re-entry of Judge Merrimon as a contending factor.

Great surprise was occasioned this morning when some of his delegates declared that he had never withdrawn from the race and that reports that he was dead were erroneous.

Mr. Frank Chapman, who was with Mr. Merrimon in the basement of McCormick Seminary, Chicago, by his simple and direct manner of presentation of a decidedly practical subject, caught the responsive interest of the audience that filled Gerard Hall.

TWO CLASSES IN REUNION.

Invocation by Rev. W. D. Morris, pastor of Chapel Hill Presbyterian church, opened the exercises at 11 o'clock. The senior class, for the first time, attired in the dignity of full-fledged graduates, marched in body to chapel and occupied the front seats of the middle row. To the left of the graduating class sat the reunited class of 1913, assembled for a one-year reunion. On the right of the graduating class, assembled in a body, was the class of 1902 here for their first reunion since graduation.

CONCERNED WITH ETERNITY.

Students of politics see the possibility of an impossible obstacle to a nomination with him in the fall election, with Judge Merrimon eliminated.

His vote distributed as it was last night and Mr. Moore's strength apportioned among Reynolds and Gidger in the generally accepted ratio, neither of the leaders will have quite enough votes to make a majority.

In several counties are fractions of a vote not represented by any delegate and under the unchallenged ruling of Chairman Adams these must be indefinitely cast for the candidates they represent. The aggregate of 3,000 votes of many delegates attended chairmaning while a large number of others spent the day in Asheville, still others going to their homes in the far west counties. Some will be unable to return and this fact may cut some figures, but the choice of each delegate is now so well known that no effort will be spared to have every essential delegate in his place tomorrow afternoon.

HAKING THE WOODS.

The absence of some younger and Reynolds' delegates will of course make no difference, the remaining delegates for each candidate casting the vote unchanged. Automobiles were sent today far into the woods to get several delegates who were absent last night and whose presence would have added a fraction of a vote to each of the leaders.

Many new Reynolds supporters will come again tomorrow to aid in the short-cut demonstration.

With three Asheville men candidates, there is intense interest in the mountain metropolis and Republicans, as well as Democrats, are coming for the big show. Waynesville is bearing up under the situation with remarkable fortitude and the hotels are not unhappy.

LEGISLATIVE CLASS GROWING.

That the class inquisitive about eternity were growing with increasing rapidity and was worldwide in reach, the speaker was certain. He read plainly the trend when he

DIPLOMAT'S WIFE TO SUMMER IN ENGLAND

BY THE GREAT HORN SPOON

SAYS FRIENDS OF FIVE IN TENTH

MERRIMON IS IN AGAIN

HIS MANAGER SAYS HE NEVER REALLY WITHDREW HIM—"TILL THE SANDS OF THE DESERT GROW COLD," SAY MOORE'S MEN—"WE STAND PAT," SAY OTHERS IN THE CONTEST

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load

Boat Was Sinking, They Could Not Swim, But Jumped To Lighten Load