Walking through the United States capitol these days one is impressed with its summery aspect. Stately senators, members of the "greatest deliberative body on earth," who are ordinarily garbed in the long black coats and shiny silk hats of statesmanship, are now seen about the building dressed in the lightest of summer wear. The statesmen are preparing for a long siege in Washington, which may not end before August 1.

Tampico Is Still Considered by Washington As An Open Port—Complications May Arise If Huerta Interferes With Antilla And United States Tries to Prevent.

Washington, D. C., June 5 .- Informatton reaching Washington late today that the American schooner Sunshine, from Galveston, had landed ammunition at Tampico for the Mexican Constitutionalists, without interference on the part of the United States or the Huerta government, was received in official quarters here without comment. State and Navy department officials declined to verify the report but from other sources it was learned that the presence of the Sunshine off Tampico with arms aboard government for several days. In view of the fact that there had been considerable apprehension regarding the attitude the United States might take toward the landing of ammunition at this Mexican port, the delivery of the munitions without interference was regarded with significance. No Blockade At Tampico.

With the Cuban steamer Antilla en-route to Tampico with arms consigned to Carranza's forces, there has been much speculation as to what the United States would do if the Huerta government should attempt a blockade of the port, Every indication tonight, however, was that the United States would maintain its previously announced position that Tampico was an open port. Admiral Had-ger yesterday was ordered to keep watch upon Huerta gunboats at Puerto, Mexico, and Alvarado. Tonight there had been no report to the Navy Department that the boats had made any move toward Tampico.

There have been widespread reports that the South American mediators had protested against the United States permitting the delivery of r munition to the Constitutionalists at Tampico. Secretary Bryan tonight declared, however, that the State Department had received no protest. He also denied reports that Mr. Riano, the Spanish Ambassador, who represents the interests of Gen. Huerta in the United States had protested.

Complications May Ensue.
Foreign diplomats in Washington today displayed great interest in the situation. Should Huerta decide to attempt to stop the delivery of ammunition aboard the Cuban ship Antilla, international law requires that notice of blockade be given all foreign powers. International law also stipulates that a blockade to be recognized. powers. International law also stipulates that a blockade to be recognized by foreign powers must be effective. Press of Business Causes Williamson to Retire and Crowson May Reenter Contest.

APPOINTMENT DUE SOON

Senator Overman Pleased at Convention's Hearty Approval of Free Tolls Repeal-Mr. Britton's Telegram to Senator Simmons Read Into Record-Joke on Pou.

(By W. E. YELVERTON.)

Washington, D. C., June 5 .- Finley L. Williamson, postmaster at Burlington, has resigned his job effective as nated and confirmed. Representative Stedman, who returned to Washington this morning, intends to make a recommendation by June 15 to fill the

Mr. Williamson says in his fetter of resignation that his private interests are such that he cannot give the attention to the office that the work requires without neglecting his business, that by giving the office the required attention heretofore he has been compelted to neglect his business. In a regret that the necessity of making another appointment at Burlington should again fall on the Fifth District

Congressman.

O. F. Crowson was a prominent applicant for the office before Williamon was appointed, and will probably apply again. A stiff fight against against Williamson's appointment was made on the ground that he is well-to-do, has a splendid business and does not need the place. No charges were ever brought against him. The fight on him was something like the one against 8. W. Smith, of Wilson, withengendered in the Wilson battle. Congratulations Given.

Senator Overman and Representatives Pou and Stedman returned this morning from North were warmly congratulated by their colleagues on their renominations. Senator Overman was warmly wel omed on the floor of the Senate and oth the Washington afternoon papers printed his picture with congratula ry comments this afternoon. The one fact of the State Convention, which impressed Senator Over-man most, he said, was the enthus-lasm over the President's canal tolls policy Though he expected people in the State would endorse the Presi dent's stand, he was unprepared for the enthusiasm shown toward the reponl. his stay in Raleigh and his pleasure at seeing so many of his friends.

Joke Played on Mr. Pou.

Representatives l'ou's colleagues o the Claims Committee played a trick on him. The superintendent of the totanical gardens sent Mr. Pou a splendid bouquet of flowers this morning, but some members of the committee reached Mr. Pou's office before the chairman did. They cut the card from the bouquet and substituted the name of a woman who has been pressing a claim before Congress for year, and then guyed him unmercifully before they told him the joke. He gave such member of the committee a flower, however, and sent the remainder to his mother, Mrs. Anna M. Pou who is here visiting her son

With Mr. and Mrs. Fou also are Mr. Pou's sister, Miss Mattie T. Pou and two Hollins Institute students, whose homes are in Rock Hill, S. C. Mr. Pou came also T Boddle Ward, his secretary, who attended the State onvention Representative Webb secured sum-

Telegram Read Into Record.

Senator Simmons read into the Con-gressional Record today the telegram which Edward E. Britton, of Italeigh. sent him informing him of the State 'onvention's rousing endorsement of the national Administration's stand on canal tells repeal. Senator Ashurst, of Arizona, did all he could to detract from the occasion by insisting on the insertion in the Record of a telegram from one of his constituents saying that the Arizona Senator could be an undying patriot if he never did anything but vote against the repeal. Ashurst demanded that his telegram be printed in a column parallel to the one from North Carolina Visitors at Capital.

Charles A. Webb, of Asheville, mar-shal for the Western North Carolina District, is here on business with the Department of Justice, he says. declares his visit is merely routine Other visitors here include Joseph B. Underwood, Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sherrill, Charlotte, and Charles L. Abernethy, Beaufort.

Encampment Plans Changed. The North Carolina militia will make their camp this summer at a place to be designated by Governor Craig, instead of at Augusta, Ga., as originally scheduled. The War Department planned early in the spring to muster the ninth division in camp at the lale of Palms, but the Bleas mix-up changed this plan. Augusta was then fixed as the site, but now this idea has been abandoned because of the Mexican situation and a detach-ment of United States regulars will be sent to each State camp, gathered separately.
