

Full data concerning the weather will be found today on Page Five.

WIFE OF DOCTOR PLACED IN JAIL

Coroner Holds Mrs. Carman Guilty of Murder of Mrs. Bailey

NERVES GO TO PIECES

And She Takes Good Cry as Jail Doors Close Behind Her. New Witness, Whose Testimony Caused Her Arrest, Locked Up; Coroner in Tears as He Reads Charge.

(By the Associated Press.) Freeport, N. Y., July 8.—Mrs. Florence Cokkin Carman, wife of Dr. Edwin Carman, was arrested today, accused of being the assassin who a week ago last night murdered Mrs. Louise Bailey, wife of a Hempstead manufacturer, by firing a bullet through her heart as she stood in the physician's office.

Tonight Mrs. Carman, at the finger of suspicion has pointed since the discovery that she had installed a telephone instrument in her husband's office, to hear conversation between him and his woman patient, in the Nassau county jail at Mineola. There she will remain until Monday when she will again be examined by the coroner, before whom she pleaded not guilty today when arraigned.

Mrs. Carman's nerve is shattered. When the door of the Mineola jail closed behind her today she pulled her heavy veil from her face and broke down. Her husband and the sheriff, who took her in an automobile from her home here to the jail, assisted her to the top floor of the building.

Eye Witness Found. The immediate cause of the arrest was the testimony given this morning by Ellwood T. Bardes, an insurance agent, whom the authorities called the single reliable eye witness of the crime. Bardes also is under lock and key, detained as a material witness; for his story is of such importance that the authorities feared an attempt might be made to get him out of the jurisdiction of the New York courts.

Bardes' story, briefly told, is this: "At 7:30 o'clock on the night of the murder," Bardes said, "he determined to visit Dr. Carman to have him dress a minor injury. He walked to the physician's house. Arriving, he decided he could dress the injury himself and thereby save a doctor's fee. So he walked past the doctor's house and around to begin his journey home.

At that instant he heard an explosion. He thought it was caused by an automobile tire but when he looked for the machine he could not find it. He looked toward the lawn at the side of Dr. Carman's home. A woman, tall, well built, hatless, wearing a light shirtwaist and a dark skirt, was moving away from one of the windows on the side of the doctor's office to the rear of the house. She was wearing 'in a hurry' the witness swore.

Priest Advised Story. Bardes was discovered yesterday morning by a priest, who had been called to administer the last rites to a woman who telephoned the district attorney and then to a priest for advice. The priest advised him to make his story known. But before an opportunity presented itself he was taken into custody by orders of the district attorney.

Bardes testified today after Mrs. Carman's twelve-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, had testified in the mother's absence, and representatives of the manufacturers of the telephone instrument told of selling the device to the physician's wife and of installing it in her home.

For an hour after spending an hour studying the testimony of Bardes and other witnesses, made out his charge, stating that he does "on his oath, say that Louise Bailey came to her death by being shot in the back with a bullet fired into her back with a revolver held by Florence Carman."

He then ordered Mrs. Carman's arrest. George Levy, Mrs. Carman's counsel, telephoned Dr. Carman of this action. Coroner Moved to Tears. Word was sent to Mrs. Carman that she was about to be arrested and a few minutes later county officials entered the physician's office. Mrs. Carman, pale but controlled, accompanied by her husband, her attorney and others came in a minute later.

When she was taken into custody, she read the charge and the warrant of arrest he had signed. Mrs. Carman stood erect, facing him. Between them, on the floor, was a dark stain marking the spot where Mrs. Bailey died.

"Are you guilty of this charge or not guilty?" asked an assistant district attorney. "Not guilty," answered Mrs. Carman.

"When is My Mama Coming Home?" "I'm sorry I had to" began the coroner. As he said "to the door" the door opened and Elizabeth Carman entered.

"Mr. Pettit," she said to the sheriff. "The sheriff placed his hand on the child's head and answered: 'Tomorrow.'"

"Come over here and sit on my knee," said Mrs. Carman's attorney. "We'll take care of your mother all right."

SHE'S AT HOME IN ANY INDIAN ROLE

Princess Mona Darkfeather, the daughter of a famous Indian chief and one of the most popular actresses in moving pictures, has lived among the Blackfoot Indians, who reside in Montana; the Pueblo's in Mexico, and with Chief Isana's tribe of Moosehide Indians in Alaska. So she is at home in any Indian role.

PARTY NOT ENEMY TO ANY BUSINESS

So Declares President Wilson in Urging Confirmation of Nominees

A SACRIFICE PATRIOTIC

Chief Executive Holds That The Big Majority of Big Business Men Want to Be Honest and That Messrs. Jones and Warburg Are Offering Vicarious Service

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., July 8.—Representatives of big business talked at length with President Wilson at the White House today about the administration's anti-trust program. Ten leading members of the Chicago Association of Commerce gave President Wilson their views on proper trade-commission amendments, securities bills, and as a result the bills passed by the House and pending in the Senate may be modified.

Both the business and the business men have their own views regarding the cordiality of the meeting. As a direct result of the discussion, the President has today telegraphed to Representative Covington of Maryland, who framed the House trade commission bill, asking him to return to Washington to confer with the Chicago delegation.

The President listened carefully and interposed some ideas of his own. The question of business prosperity was mentioned in a general way, and afterwards officials said the President had not changed his previously expressed opinion that conditions are improving.

President Wilson tomorrow will receive Henry Ford, the millionaire automobile manufacturer, and a committee of Illinois bankers. In Washington, D. C., July 8.—Declaring it would be unfair to regard the Democratic party as the enemy of big or little business, President Wilson today gave out a statement in support of Paul M. Warburg, of New York, and George F. Baker, of Chicago, nominees for the Federal Reserve Board. President Wilson's statement follows:

"It would be particularly unfair to the Democratic party and to the Senate itself to regard it as the enemy of business, big or little. I am sure that it does not regard a man as an object of suspicion merely because he has been connected with great business enterprises. It knows that the business of the country has been chiefly promoted in recent years by enterprises organized on a great scale and that the vast majority of the men connected with what we have come to call big business are honest, incorruptible and patriotic. The country may be certain that it is clear to all thoughtful men that those who have tried to make big business what it ought to be are men to be encouraged and honored, whenever they respond without reserve to the call of public service.

Sacrifice is Patriotic. "I predict with the greatest confidence that nothing done by the Democratic majority of the Senate of the United States will be of a sort to throw suspicion upon such men. Mr. Jones and Mr. Warburg in manifesting their willingness to make personal sacrifices and put their great experience and ability at the service of the government, without thought of personal advantage in the organization of a great reform which promises to be so serviceable to the nation, are setting an example of patriotism and of public spirit which the whole country admires. It is the obvious business of statesmanship at this turning point in our development to recognize ability and character wherever it has been displayed and unite every force for the upbuilding of legitimate business along the new lines which

WOMAN IS BOUND TO HIGHER COURT

No Bail Allowed Mrs. Johnson, of Martin County, at Hearing at Oak City

COOL AND UNCONCERNED

The Only Thing That Seems To Worry Pretty Young Woman Is Little Baby; Mr. Manning, Just Behind Shooting Affair, Swears He Saw No One By The Roadside

Oak City, July 8.—(By Long Distance Telephone to Tarboro.)—Mrs. Joe Johnson, charged with killing her husband Saturday night in Martin county, was given a preliminary hearing this morning before Justice of the Peace R. J. House, at Oak City, and after hearing all evidence he bound the woman over to Superior Court without bond.

A tremendous crowd of interested people filled the Justice's office for the trial. The woman was calm throughout, and was taken to Williamson to jail immediately afterwards. The husband was twenty-four years old and had many friends in the community. There appears to have been strained domestic relations prior to this time. The whole county is deeply stirred over the affair.

The crime was committed Saturday night of last week near the Holy Ghost church, in Martin county, and the facts as related by the officers appear to be as follows: Mr. Manning Saw No One. Mr. Johnson took his wife riding Sunday evening in a single buggy, the man sitting on the right and the woman on the left. Shortly after this time the horse was stopped at the Holy Ghost church as it appeared to be running away. As soon as it was stopped, Mrs. Johnson, who was in the buggy, said that someone had shot her husband a little ways back down the road. Investigation proved this to be true. Sunday afternoon she was heard before the coroner and she immediately charged that she testified that a man ran out from the roadside, hailed them and shot her husband, but that she did not see a relative, Richard Manning, a reliable white man of this county, testified at the investigation that he was about 100 yards behind the couple, and heard the shot but did not know anything was the matter until his buggy ran upon the body of the dead man. He said he saw no one though it was bright moonlight.

Sheriff Crawford visited the scene next morning and found the pistol that had fired the fatal shot lying where it had been dropped. The woods at the side of the road. All the chambers were loaded except one that had recently been fired. Johnson was shot in the left temple, and according to the officers, the bullet went straight through the temple as the skin around the wound, showing that the shot must have been fired at comparatively very close range. The officers contend that every indication points to the conclusion that the party and are working their case along that line.

Woman Very Cool. The arresting officers say she was the coolest person they ever saw under the circumstances. When they went for her she recognized both of them and coolly stated that they would have to wait until after she had eaten dinner before she would accompany them, and did not even flinch when Sheriff Crawford charged her with premeditated murder. She calmly ate a good meal and got into the auto with the officers and on the way to Speed made the remark that she wouldn't give a snap about this business, as it was not for her little baby. She is a very pretty woman about 22 years old and the only child in about six months old. The family was rather prominent in Martin county, and the affair has caused a tremendous sensation where they are known.

The people are known here and in fact the woman and her father-in-law were in Tarboro yesterday morning on a shopping trip and were followed back to Speed by Deputy Thomas and met there by Sheriff Crawford. The woman is apparently little concerned about the death of her husband and as soon as she was released by the coroner she left for Speed without again saying her husband or staying to the funeral which took place Sunday afternoon.

KING AND QUEEN WORRIED

Militants Allow Royal Couple to Have No Peace in Bombing

Dumfriesshire, Scotland, July 8.—Militant suffragettes made desperate efforts today to attract the attention of King George and Queen Mary, who are making a tour through Scotland. At Balthoch Bridge, at the foot of Loch Lomond, the women cut down all the decorations, and at Dalnairn, the suffragettes displayed such a hostile attitude that the militant suffragettes beat a hasty retreat.

BURN'S COTTAGE MENACED

Arson Squad Tries to Blow Up Birthplace of Beloved Poet

Glasgow, Scotland, July 8.—An attempt to destroy the cottage at Ayr where Robert Burns, the poet, was born, was made just before daybreak today by a number of a militant suffragette "arson squad."

The two women were surprised by a night watchman as they were in the act of placing a large bomb against the doors and windows of the poet's birthplace, which is venerated as a shrine by the Scottish nation. The man captured one of the militants but the other escaped.

SEX HYGIENE NOT CASE FOR TEACHER

National Association Places Responsibility On Home and Parents

BE HONEST WITH CHILD

Speaker Says Failure To Do So May Lead To Immorality. Dr. Keene Condemns Amid Applause, Woman Who Puts Care of Child Altogether In Others' Hands

(By the Associated Press.) St. Paul, Minn., July 8.—The teaching of sex hygiene never will be delegated to the American teacher, if it can be prevented by the National Education Association. This was evidenced at today's session when speakers who denounced such a course provoked ringing applause. "We should have but the strongest condemnation for the wealthy, club-going woman who has no time to teach her child fundamental truths of life and would throw the responsibility on a teacher or on a football coach," shouted Dr. Charles H. Keene, of Minneapolis, superior of hygiene and physical training. "Such shiftness is outrageous."

He added: "The cheating has subsided. Sex instructions placed on the same plane with spelling and arithmetic will rob it of all its sacredness. We talk about the inability of the poorer mothers to teach their children personal hygiene, but it is not for these children that we have to fear."

"Knowledge never will combat purity. Sex instruction in schools will but tend to lower the standard of morality. If we take up sex hygiene in our schools the homes of America will continue to lose ground, and will give up the few privileges they now have to train the children."

Honestly With Children. N. D. Showalter, president of Cheney Normal School, Cheney, Washington, said: "When a father or mother turns aside a child's natural question or deals dishonestly with sex questions, he lays the foundation of an immorality which may develop into a tremendous force."

Methods for the conservation of the future race were advocated before the department of social education by Miss G. Campbell, Chicago psychologist. "Every year the public schools produce human waste, as is evidenced by those who pass through our courts and reformatory laboratories," she said. "We should conserve the child born in public schools by having a special report every few months on those who are slightly retarded and are beginning to lag behind, so that deviations from normal could be studied in time to prevent mental and normal disaster. Many an immoral act has its genesis in the discouraged boy or girl."

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, July 8. SENATE: 11 a. m. Debate was resumed on the sundry civil appropriation bill.

The Alaskan railroad license law was repealed and a new income tax was enacted for those lines. An appropriation of $500,000 for expenses of a Federal exhibit at the San Francisco Exposition was passed.

Acting Chairman Hitchcock, of the Banking committee, issued a statement explaining why the committee wanted to question Paul M. Warburg, nominee for the Federal Reserve Board. Passed sundry civil appropriation bill, currency, $147,000,000. Adjourned at 6:25 p. m. to 11 a. m. Thursday.

HOUSE: Met at noon. Bills under calendar Wednesday were considered.

The resolution empowering the President to invite foreign delegates to the Home Education Congress in Philadelphia in September was adopted.

Representative Cantor of New York introduced a constitutional amendment to permit the President to veto any portion of an appropriation bill. Adjourned at 5:43 p. m. to noon Thursday.

Everybody's Doing It

Wilson, July 8.—A few days ago Black Bros., the contractors who are erecting the handsome grade-school building (White, No. 5), in the western section of the city, approached the writer and queried: "Do you know where we might employ eight or ten auto-cleaning machines? Our work is at a standstill and we are afraid that if you can't help us out, we will not be able to turn over the work as promised."

"How about a 'want ad' in the 'Old Reliable' never fails to bring results." The little washer-maker was inserted twice and the Messrs. Black are now receiving responses from every quarter.

One hundred thousands pairs of eyes scan the columns of The News and Observer every morning. Everybody's doing it—a pointer for merchants who wish to get a portion of the mail-order business. Merchants in every North Carolina town can get results like enterprising Wilson people do.

WHO IS TO BLAME FOR DESTRUCTION OF N. Y. TENEMENT BY INFERNAL MACHINE?

(e) Underwood & Underwood. Ruins of New York tenement (taken just as upper stories collapsed) in which four were killed by dynamite bomb.

Detectives are trying to learn whether the dynamite bomb which destroyed the upper stories of a big New York tenement Saturday, killing four, was made by the anarchists who occupied the room in which the explosion occurred, or whether the bomb was sent them by an enemy. Louise Berger, step-sister of Carl Hansen, one of the dead men, says that the presence of the bomb in the anarchist quarters was the work of an enemy.

THE REBELS UPSET NORTH CAROLINA ALL PEACE PLANS HOME OF AVIATION

Torreon Conference Decides Not to Send Delegates to Meet Huerta Men

PROTOCOLS ARE NULLIFIED No American Governments Will Recognize Martial Rule in Mexico and Military Status at Vera Cruz Looked To Next—Minister Naon Is Disappointed

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., July 8.—Border dispatches stating that the Constitutionalists would not enter Mexico for peace conferences with Huerta representatives were partially confirmed here tonight. Rafael Zubaran and Luis Cabrera, the two most prominent Carrancista representatives here had nothing to say, but word that most of the Constitutionalists generally to whom the plan for conferences had been submitted had disapproved it came from well informed circles.

Minister Naon, of Argentina, the high one of the mediators in Washington, read the dispatches with evident surprise. He indicated that the mediators would take no action until the attitude of the Constitutionalists was definitely known. Secretary Naon said it would be improper for him to discuss the situation in advance of the arrival of Carranza's formal answer to the pending proposal.

The Constitutionalists' leaders strongly oppose the idea of peace conferences did not surprise officials who have maintained it would be virtually impossible to modify the plan of Guadalupe, the platform of the Constitutional movement. This plan declares a military government shall be set up after Mexico City is conquered and that no elections shall be held until the country is pacified by military force. The present purpose of the Constitutionalists, it is understood, is to follow that program to the letter.

Trace Only Temporary. Reports from Torreon that differences between Carranza and Villa had been composed were killed today by agents of both, but there was an undertone of comment indicating that it was but a temporary truce. The break has had a disorganizing effect politically in the Constitutional ranks and emphasizes the basic antagonism between Carranza and Villa.

Reports from the border today and one of the conditions of the agreement between Carranza and Villa was that Rafael Zubaran be retired from his post as head of the Constitutional army here. Zubaran and Cabrera have worked hard to bring about informal negotiations with the Huerta delegates.

Wob's Recognize Martial Rule. Despite the Carranza-Villa split, it is evident, one common purpose of the Constitutional factions seems to be to force the conquest of Mexico City.

Record at Kitty Hawk Will Be Commemorated In The Navy

(By W. E. YEAZARBON.) Washington, D. C., July 8.—The 25th anniversary of the flight which today passed by purchase into the hands of the Greek government, will be replaced by the North Carolina as an aviation training ship and will be stationed at Key West. This assignment brought the state into prominence a second time in connection with aeronautic progress and Secretary Daniels made the assignment with that as one of the purposes in view.

Flying was fully accomplished for the first time by the Wright brothers at Kitty Hawk, N. C., a record which has been maintained for several months as the supreme aviation achievement. The navy is paying more attention to aviation, which is recognized as the coming impetus of warfare, and Secretary Daniels thinks especially fitting that North Carolina's connection with the science be commemorated.

(Continued on Page Two.)

TRADESMEN TALK SALESMANSHIP ON THEIR SECOND DAY

Hard Goods, The Ancient Enemy, Accounted For By Poor Talking

WILL TRY THE EXCHANGE BUREAU NEXT YEAR

Commissioner James R. Young Speaks This Morning—Officers and Place of Next Convention To Be Chosen—Barbecue and Baseball Features; Convention Will Close Today—Offer Solution of Excessive Insurance Rates

Address—Hon. James R. Young, Insurance Commissioner of North Carolina—Subject: "Five Insurance Common Sense."

Annual report of the president. Annual report of the treasurer. Election of three directors to succeed U. B. Blalock, A. R. Craig, and T. W. Dixon, whose terms expired by limitation.

Discussions. Thursday p. m., July 9, Auditorium, 2 O'clock.

Call to order by the president. Report of nominating committee and election of officers. Selection of next place of meeting.

Report of resolutions committee. Unfinished business. New business. Installation of officers. Adjournment.

The Hardware Association of the Carolinas yesterday made salesmanship the talismanic term in sessions that stretched from 9:30 a. m. to 10:50 p. m., and it retired with a big day's work done.

True, it ate barbecue and watched Raleigh dissemble its love for Asheville, though Raleigh kicked the mountain climbers to the nethermost point of the cellar. Barring these innocent recesses, the dealers were in continual session until late last night and reserved for the close its most absorbing feature—the association's executive session for last night had changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

The hardware visitors had set an executive session for last night but changed the collective mind and talked the difficulties into which they had stumbled into themselves, though they had not the least intention of doing so.

(Continued on Page Two.)