

TAR HEELS SMASH PALMETS ELEVEN

The Chapel Hill Lads Run Through Opponents for a 48 to 0 Score

Chapel Hill, Oct. 12.—The University of North Carolina football aggregation operated the steam roller here this afternoon without any stubborn opposition, crushing South Carolina's outfit completely by the score of 48 to 0.

The Palmetto eleven was unable to make first down. The story of today's game in the main was a repetition of the humiliating defeat administered by Virginia Medical College last Saturday week.

The South Carolina machine was so badly crippled in the first half that a make shift eleven was called into service in the second half. The pilot of the South Carolina team, Captain Hill, sustained a fractured ankle, necessitating his permanent retirement for the football season.

Other first string men had to be carried off the field as they were mowed down by North Carolina's heavier and better trained machine. North Carolina's line averaging 153 in weight from end to end, could not be penetrated. Offensively, the Tar Heels swept away opposition at every angle, only frequently penalties for offside, keeping the score within reasonable bounds.

North Carolina failed miserably in forward passing, completing only one of the six attempted. Half back Parker's interception of South Carolina's forward pass, and running 25 yards for a touch down was one of the spectacular plays of the game.

It was current talk on the side lines that coaches representing the Universities of Georgia and Virginia, respectively, were acting as scouting parties. The University of Georgia will be played in Atlanta on Saturday.

Baker, with two successive stops and throws in the ninth inning and Schmidt, who in the eighth inning stopped Evers' drive along the base line with one hand and while prone on the ground threw the runner out at first. Connolly contributed the Braves' only run when he dropped Collins' bunt in the opening innings.

A record Boston world's series crowd witnessed the game, 55,529 persons paying $43,808 to pass through the turnstiles into the park. Of this sum the National Commission took $9,888.50; the players received $34,456.32, and the club owners $11,485.44. Had the capacity of Fenway Park been greater these figures would have been considerably increased.

The cleanser gates were opened at 9 o'clock and the long rows of fans, many of whom had stood in line all night, filed through so rapidly that within less than two hours the gates were closed with several thousand still clamoring for admission.

Weather conditions were favorable. The sky was partly overcast and while a stiff wind blew, the stands cut off the strength of the breeze.

Tyler is Cheered. The vast crowd had settled back before Umpire Klem called "play ball." Tyler was cheered as he walked to the pitcher's mound. Eddie Murphy, first up for the Athletics, shot the ball down the left field foul line for two bases to the great delight of the Athletic rooters.

Olding sacrificed; Tyler to Schmidt, and Tyler to Evers. Murphy scored when Collins drove a long fly in left field. Connolly dropped the ball, but Collins was credited with a sacrifice fly. Collins was held on first as Baker struck out. Collins fiddled off the base until he caught sight of a slow pitch and then stole second. McInnis walked and a moment later Collins was caught off second taking a long lead, Tyler making a quick throw to Evers, ending the inning.

Bush, who starred for the Athletics in the last world's series when he won in a game against the New York Giants on the Polo Grounds, had trouble in disposing of Moran, Boston's first batter. He threw ten balls to the Brave's leadoff man; three balls, two strikes, four fouls and then the pitch which Moran hit up into the air to Collins. Evers brought the Boston rooters to their feet by dashing a single into left field. Connolly lifted a high foul that Baker caught within inches of the Athletics' bench. Evers stole second, but he was left there as Whitted struck.

The second inning of the American leaguers was quickly over. Walsh, who was playing in centerfield, chopped a grounder at Tyler, who threw him out at first. Barry raised a foul which Big Schmidt gathered in without effort. Schang put up a fly which Evers had to back out to rightfield to get.

The National League champions tied up the scores in their half of the inning, after two were out. Schmidt struck out on Bush's slow ball. Deal worked a fly to Baker; Maranville bled; Bush for a base on balls, then stole second. He wasn't there long before Gowdy sent him home by a slashing two base drive into the bleachers in left field. Tyler went out, Barry to McInnis.

The world's champions also went out in order in the third inning. Bush fouled out to Schmidt and Murphy was retired on a sharply hit grounder. Evers to Schmidt. Olding ended the inning by grounding out, Maranville to Schmidt.

Boston fared no better in its half of the third. Baker scooped up Moran's grass cutter and tossed him out. Evers dropped a grounder to Bush and was also retired. Connolly gave Murphy a home run in right field. McInnis and Walsh hit.

The Athletics made their second run in the fourth inning. After Collins had shot a hot liner at Evers, which the Boston wide and tall backer struck out for the second time and there was great cheering. McInnis hit into the left field bleachers for two bases. Connolly made a daring try for the ball. He leaped into the air, but his balance and fell backward into the bleachers. He was out of sight for several seconds, but bobbed up unhurt. Walsh, like McInnis, waited until he was three and two and then slashed a single to left, bringing McInnis home. As McInnis was about to round third, Deal got in his way and both Harry Davis, who was on the coaching lines for the Athletics, and McInnis complained to Umpire Klem against Deal's alleged interference, but as McInnis had scored there was nothing for the umpire to decide. Barry grounded out. Deal to Schmidt, leaving Walsh on first.

Maranville Responds. With the Athletics having the advantage, the Boston rooters called for runs and the Braves responded by putting one across in their half of the fourth. Whitted drove a hot grounder at Bush which he could not hold. He managed to deflect it to Collins who tossed the runner out in the nick of time. Schmidt delighted the home fans by pushing a fine single into center field and the big first baseman rushed to second as Collins threw out Deal. The Boston shortstop hit a sharp ball that went down the right field line. It struck close to the chalk mark and shot across the pavilion fence, thence caromed again. Schmidt raced home and Maranville also made the circuit while Collins, Murphy and Walsh chased the ball.

All this time Umpire Hildebrand was making frantic signals that the ball had struck foul. He pointed to a spot about an inch outside the line while the crowd cheered, not realizing that the ball had been declared foul. The Boston players appeared as much surprised as the fans. After some discussion Maranville returned to the bat and Schmidt to second. The cheering was renewed when the little shortstop dropped a hit into right field on which Schmidt tied up the score. Maranville stole second and kept right on to third when Schang's throw to the middle bag to head the runner off went wide and rolled into center field. Gowdy was named to first and on an attempted double steal Maranville was out. Schang to Collins to Baker.

Murphy's Second Double. The Athletics got a man on the parts in the fifth inning. Schang gave Moran a long fly. Deal ran in and nicked up Bush's grounder and tossed him out. Bush making no effort to run to first. Murphy drove a smashing two-bagger into leftfield, but got

Bush pitched gilt edged ball, things looked gloomy for Boston. Gowdy looked to the plate, waited and caught a straight ball which he lifted into the bleachers far off in centerfield. "Joey" Devore was sent in to bat for Tyler. He struck out. There were cheers when Moran walked and there was a great outburst when he raced to third on Evers' third single of the game. The crowd frantically yelled to Connolly to tie the score. The Athletic fielders backed out toward the fences. The Brave's greatest hitter rapped a long sacrifice fly to Walsh and Moran came home with the bring run. Whitted fouled out to Baker. James went in to pitch for Boston in the eleventh in which neither side scored.

Gowdy Starts Rally.

It was getting quite dark when the Braves came to bat in their half of the twelfth inning. Gowdy, whose terrific hitting in the series has made him a tremendous favorite, threw the Boston rooters into another frenzy as he coiled one of Bush's shoots and poked it into left field bleachers for two bases. The Athletics appeared to be playing for time, for they slowly walked into their positions for the run for Gowdy and Gilbert was ordered to the plate to bat for James. Gilbert was passed purposely by Bush, and then came the play that broke up the game.

Moran bunted a slow grounder toward third. Bush dashed over, scooped up the ball and shot it to Baker straight victory. It is doubtful if Bush could have headed off Mann at third even had the throw been accurate.

PROFOUND SILENCE IN PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Oct. 12.—Such enthusiasm as the Athletics spectators previously had not had occasion to manifest during the present championship series, gave way today to a profound silence when the final flash showed the Boston Braves the victors for the third successive time. When Murphy and Schang dashed across the plate in the tenth inning, giving the Mackmen a two-run lead, a mighty shout went up from the thousands of fans who were watching the progress of the game as displayed on electric scoreboards in many parts of the city. Efforts of the police to preserve order were futile.

Even when Gowdy slammed the ball for a home run in Boston's half of the tenth the crowds did not become disheartened but when the Braves again tied the score, confidence in the Mackmen seemed to waver. When the end came expressions that "it seems to be nearly all over" could be heard from every side. Three to one was being offered here tonight that Boston would win the series with few takers. There were several wagers, however, of tomorrow's game at even money and ten to eight in favor of Boston.

MAY JOIN ALLIES. Roumania May Be Drawn Into Vortex of European Conflict. Petrograd, Oct. 12, via London, 1:25 p. m.—An official statement today expresses the belief that the death Saturday of King Charles of Roumania removes an obstacle to the turning of Roumania to the cause of the allies to which end recent Russian diplomatic efforts were unavailing. It is further said that the sympathies of the Roumanian people, who in the past have shown they opposed the championing of Prussia by the late King, will now assert themselves. Consequently, according to Russian authorities, Roumania now will cease to menace Russia by furnishing provisions and transporting troops for Germany.

NEW RUMANIAN KING. Ferdinand Succeeds His Uncle, The Late King Charles. London, Oct. 12.—(8:50 p. m.)—King Ferdinand of Roumania, in the presence of the members of the royal family, the diplomatic corps and other notables, took the oath of office yesterday in succession to his uncle, King Charles, according to a dispatch from Bucharest by way of Amsterdam to the Central News Agency. King Charles died at his country seat in Sautain on Saturday. The new king declared he would labor for the development of the State.
