MAKE HER LIFE SO HAPPY.

Make her life so happy she will sing, she will sing.
A glory in her autumn that is beautiful as the leaves.

Make her life so happy she will think the darkest day a rosy road of sunshine.
In the bloomy fields of May.

Make her life so happy she will dance, she will dance.
Unto the tunes of morning in the gardens of romance.

Make her life so happy she will smile.
To all you with her summer.
Where the velvet violets grow.

Make her life so happy she will cry, she will cry.
With the joy of bending beauty underneath the gentle sky.

Make her life so happy she will love.
With your tenderness and devotion.
She will trust the days of dreaming.
To the stars that dream above.

Make her life so happy she will weep, she will weep.
With the joy of human gladness as the years around her creep.

Make her life so happy she will pay you back in tears.
Of a heart of golden laughter.
Through the sunshine of the years.
—The Benetton Bard.

'CORKING GOOD SHOW.'

That's What the Theatre-Goer Calls 'The Ham Tree.'

(By the Press Agent.)

Laugh and grow young in the great of 'The Ham Tree,' which comes to the Academy of Music tonight and tomorrow for matinee and night with the famous comedians, McIntyre and Health, in their original role, under the management of John Cort. 'The Ham Tree' is an elaboration of the Georgia Minstrel, which McIntyre and Health successfully used in vaudeville. The book is by George V. Hobart, the music by Jean Schwartz, and the lyrics by William Jerome—three things that would guarantee the show's merit had it not the reputation those clever comedians have made for it. Needless to say there is no plot to be taken seriously, it is just for fun.

Preferably such an apron would be made of sturdy linen or gingham. The edge is finished with stitched bands and these bands can be of the same or a contrasting color. The apron is a very simple one and one of the easiest things in the world to make, for it consists of one big piece with the pocket arranged over it in patch style, while the back cross at the back and button into place over the shoulders.

For the six-year size will be needed 2 1/2 yards of material 27 inches wide or 1 1/2 yards 36.

The May Manton pattern No. 8413 is cut in sizes for children from 4 to 8 years of age. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of ten cents.

WEDDINGS

CLAYWELL-GANTT

Announcement of Engagement of Morganton Girl and Bryson City Attorney.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Cathryn Claywell, of Morganton, and Mr. Robert Gantt, of Bryson City, the marriage to take place in the Morganton Methodist church on December 16th.

Miss Claywell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Claywell, of Morganton; received her musical education at the Durham Conservatory of Music and is considered one of the most beautiful young women of the mountain section of the state.

Mr. Gantt as he is affectionately known is a Trinity College man and an old baseball star, being one of the leading pitchers on the Trinity team while in college. Since his graduation he read law and is now located at Bryson City where he enjoys a fine practice.

The wedding will be one of the leading social events in Morganton this winter.

BALLEL-BURT.

Popular Young Lady of Fuquay Wells Apex Planter.

Fuquay Springs, Oct. 20.—A marriage of unusual interest to the public generally occurred yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Burt, near Fuquay Springs, when their daughter, Miss Clara Burt, was given in marriage to Mr. Hubert Bailey of near Apex. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. P. Robinson, pastor of the young couple. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Richmond and will point on their wedding trip.

Miss Burt, as was stated above, is the daughter of Mr. J. J. Burt, a man of prominence in this section, and one who is famous for his deeds of kindness and his excellent prayers. Miss Mamie Burt, sister of the bride, furnished the music for the occasion, and Mr. Max Burt, a brother away from the bride, acted as best man. Mr. Bailey is one of the best young farmers in the Whiteoak section, which is famous for its high class farmers and good livers over this and other States.

STEWART-THOMPSON

Former St. Mary's Girl Wedded to Baltimore Man.

The following account of the wedding of Miss Marguerite Verter Thompson and Mr. Warren Adams Stewart is taken from the Baltimore Star of October 14th.

"The wedding of Miss Marguerite Verter Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dalton Thompson, to Mr. Warren Adams Stewart, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyland P. Stewart, will take place this evening at 7 o'clock at the apartment in the Severn of the bride's parents, the Rev. Dr. Arthur B. involving officiating. Only the two families and a few intimate friends will be present at the ceremony and at the small reception which will follow. The rooms will be decorated with Easter lilies and one end of the room will be arranged in a chapel effect with an aisle formed of standards of lilies, through which the bridal procession will pass.

"The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white, duchess satin and point lace, with a tulle veil arranged under a cap of point lace and fastened with sprays of lilies-of-the-valley. The attendants will be Miss Nora Louise Thompson, a sister of the bride, and Miss Alma Oates, of Charlotte, N. C. They will wear cream colored satin trimmed with Oriental lace and will carry big bunches of yellow chrysanthemums. The best man will be Mr. Hyland P. Stewart, Jr., brother of the groom. After their return from their wedding journey Mr. Stewart and his bride will occupy an apartment at the Avon, which will be Mr. Stewart's home, which will be present are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Merrill and Mrs. W. Jessop

A PRACTICAL APRON

A Useful Little Garment that Mothers will Appreciate and Children will Enjoy

By MAY MANTON

Attractive aprons are real necessities for the proper clothing of the little child since they save a great deal of wear and tear on the frocks and are often pretty and attractive as well as serviceable. This one is new and will be sure to please the eye as well as to serve a useful end, for it contains pockets adapted to various uses, and all the equipment of school or the equipment of play can be kept conveniently at hand. The big pocket that covers the lower portion is stitched to form a succession of smaller pockets, and these smaller pockets are of different sizes and are for different needs. Preferably such an apron would be made of sturdy linen or gingham. The edge is finished with stitched bands and these bands can be of the same or a contrasting color. The apron is a very simple one and one of the easiest things in the world to make, for it consists of one big piece with the pocket arranged over it in patch style, while the back cross at the back and button into place over the shoulders.

STOP THIEF! SATURDAY.

Matinee and Evening Performances of Famous Farce Comedy.

(By the Press Agent.)

Kleptomaniacs has been seized upon by Carlisle More as the subject matter for his farce, 'Stop Thief,' which will be presented at the Academy of Music Saturday, matinee and night.

In the play two people, who are obsessed with a morbid desire to take and hide things, are confused with a real crook who steals for 'keeps.' 'Stop Thief' is said to abound in ridiculously humorous situations and bright chatter, punctuated every now and then with real thrills and a heart throb or two.

Bert as the thief and Hazelle Burgess as the maid, are said to excel in the parts, and a good supporting company is assured.

When an absent-minded wealthy person takes things that don't belong to him and forgets to put them back he is called a kleptomaniac. A shorter and uglier term is used to describe a poor man who develops the same tendencies.

After the matinee performance Miss Hazelle Burgess will be hostess to her audience and invites all to attend the tea show will have served after the final act. Miss Burgess will be glad to have all the ladies who wish to see the inside stage workings of a real professional performance, come up after the matinee and meet her and other members of the company if they wish. Real war prices will be in order. Matinee, entire—lower floor, 75 cents; matinee, balcony, 50 cents; children, 25 cents to any part of the Academy. Night, $1 to 50 cents. Seat sale opens Friday.

'MY HEALTH IS PERFECT'

So Says A North Carolina Lady in Telling What She Owes to Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Ms. Alry, N. C.—Mrs. Ada Hull, of this place, says: "About six years ago I got in very bad health. I suffered terrible pains in my abdomen and back. I dreaded to see the sun rise and I dreaded to see it set, for I suffered such agony. No one except myself will ever know how badly I suffered. The doctor said I was suffering as a result of the menopause.

As nothing gave me any relief, I asked the doctor if I hadn't better try Cardui. He said, 'It might help you,' and told my husband to get me a bottle. At this time I was so weak I could not lift my head, and my voice was so weak, people had to lean towards the bed to hear what I said. I looked so bad and had such a dark color that I looked like a dead woman, and my relatives thought I would never get up again.

I took one bottle of Cardui and it relieved the pain and suffering so much that my husband got another bottle, and that improved me still more. I began to strengthen and gradually got well. I have now had better health for six years, than I ever had in all my life. I have taken no medicine since, and my health is perfect.

Cardui is the finest medicine a woman could use."

Try it. At druggists.

HOKE OS LEAVING COTTON

Tobacco Raising Better—Wheat Sowing Move Begun.

(Special to The News and Observer.)

Raeford, Oct. 20.—A good quantity of tobacco was sold here today at an average of 14 cents. The sales are increasing daily in quantity and price. Everybody seems to be satisfied with the prices and the outlook for a big crop next year is splendid.

Messrs. Ashley and Saunders who are managing the warehouse are experienced men at the business and are working very hard to please the farmers who are coming here from Moore and other counties. One man brought a little pile of tobacco in an automobile which netted him nearly as much as a bale of cotton would.

A movement is on foot now to induce farmers to plant wheat in this section. A number of them have already prepared to sow enough for their own use at least. A roller mill is assured provided farmers will agree to sow wheat enough to justify the building of it.

MISS BIZZELL ENTERTAINS

Charming Function at Goldsboro in Honor of Bride of Today.

Goldsboro, Oct. 20.—Miss Eunice Bizzell in her usual charming manner delightfully entertained a number of friends on Friday evening from 8:20 to 10:30 in honor of Miss Eunice Edmondson, whose marriage to Mr. Greene Sharpe Johnston, Jr., will take place next Wednesday.

As the guests arrived they were ushered into the library, where tables for games were arranged.

After an hour was spent in playing "Auction" and "Rook," slips of paper were distributed and each guest was asked to write two of her favorite recipes. After these were collected the hostess presented the bride-elect with a most attractive and unique recipe book in which she could easily arrange the recipes in classified order. After this delightful refreshments were served.

Those who enjoyed Miss Bizzell's hospitality were: Misses Eunice Edmondson, Eddie Mae Vann, of Como, Ethel Watson, of Greenville, S. C., Glennie Elvertson, Louisa Stocumb, Hattie Dewey, Mildred Edmondson, Lou Norwood, Helen Creech, Allie Freeman, Magdeline Hummel, Nellie Edgerton, Ruth Bizzell, Emma Hol-lowell and Mesdames Z. T. Brown, Dewey Stocumb and G. S. Forbes.
