In and About the City

Dr. Joyner to Greenville—Dr. J. Y. Joyner, superintendent of Public Instruction left yesterday for Greenville where he attended a meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees of the Eastern Carolina Teachers Training School.

Criminal Court Next Monday—The first term of the criminal court of Wake county for the new year will meet on next Monday, January 4. The court will be held in the temporary court room in the building, corper Hargett and Blount streets.

Reward for John S. Adams—Governor Craig yesterday issued a pro-clamation offering $100 reward for the apprehension of John S. Adams, wanted in Swain county on the charge of murder. Adams killed R. W. Whitson on December 12.

Atlanta. — Twenty-three On to On to Atlanta, — Twenty-three negroes and four white men with sight guards passed through the city yesterday on their way to Atlanta from Washington, the twenty-seven being prisoners of the Federal government recently convicted for various offenses.

First Court of Year.—The first court of the new year for Wake coun-ty will convene in the Federal court room at the temporary quarters or January 4, Judge Whedbee presiding. This will be a term of criminal cases and a number of cases of interest to Wake county people will be brought up at the time.

Making Record.—Mr. Burke Hay-wood of the City Engineering Department is now preparing a detailed chart of the water system showing the pumping supply for the months of the year, by the day, and the cost. This data atranged in this way will be invaluable for the department in making computations on proposed work or proposed extensions.

slight Fire.—The Raleigh Fire Department was yesterday afternoon called to 577 East Lenoir street where a blaze, originating in a closet, caused about a fifty dollar loss in the house, secupied by Rev. J. W. Ligon, a colored minister. The department used only chemicals and the blaze was quickly extinguished.

Weather Holds Up Work.—Most of the contract work on the city strects has been held up now by the unfavorable weather. One contractor alone had $1500 worth of concrete to freeze for him this year and there is no de-sire on the part of the contractors to repeat the performance. The city street force, however, starfed to work yesterday after the Christmas holi-days. Little work, however, can be done as long as the ground remains In its present condition

Date Uncertain—The date for the removal of the postoffice and the ob-er federal offices from the present building to the new one is still uncertain according to federal officers. It is thought that the postoffice will be able to be moved during the latter part of this week. The removal of this department to new quarters will be recompanied by more inconven-lence than any other, for the reason that the clerks and the carriers will have to learn an entirely new set of have to learn an entirely new set of boxes with an entirely different ar-rangement of office furniture. The present delay is caused, it is said be-cause certain marble material for wainscoting has not yet arrived; the work, necessary to be done, at most, will require only about two or three days after the material is on hand.

Return of Pocketbook Asked.

If the person or persons who got it. J. Bowen's pocketbook, with money passes in it, will return same, will be amply rewarded and no questions asked.
