

RALEIGH MAY BE MUSICAL CENTER

Walter Damrosch Sees No Reason Why It Should Not Be a Leader in the South

COMPLIMENTS AUDITORIUM

Has Not Seen One Better in the South, and Few Larger. Says America Will Eventually Lead World in Music As in Other Arts; Says Raleigh Is Fortunate To Have Mr. Mildenberg Risks

"There is no reason why Raleigh should not become one of the great music centers of the South," said Dr. Walter Damrosch, director of the New York Symphony Orchestra, yesterday in an interview for The News and Observer. Mr. Damrosch is a pleasant gentleman, with simple manners. He was suffering slightly from an attack of lumbago and had not yet left the hotel when seen. However, when he reached the Auditorium and began his work of conducting the afternoon program he showed no effects of his indisposition and was soon lost in the spirit of his task.

"You people have a very fine thing in your magnificent Auditorium. I believe that of Atlanta is a bit larger, but not a bit better. Yours does high credit to a city the size of Raleigh and one much larger might well be proud of it. Spartanburg has made a great reputation for her festival and many thousands will visit that city during the next three days. Every year large parties come there from as far away as New Orleans. Raleigh can do the same thing if not even larger, for your great Auditorium gives you an advantage over most cities. You have, also, an abundance of native musical talent. Next year you ought easily to be able to surpass the success of today.

"American Art to Fore." "How about the American composers?" Mr. Damrosch was asked. "American composition is now developing wonderfully. Of course, it will take some years yet before this country can take precedence over Europe in musical art. But I think it will eventually do so. In sculpture, painting and architecture the United States now leads the world. "What do you think of our old Southern melodies and folk songs as a factor in the new American music?" "They have wonderful possibilities. I am sure, and I think their influence will be large in the development of the musical art in this country."

Compliments Mr. Mildenberg. "Yet me say," said Mr. Damrosch on his way to the Auditorium, "that Raleigh is indeed fortunate in securing Mr. Mildenberg. He is an enthusiastic, hard worker, a clever musician and a composer of marked ability. He will do much for your city."

MISERY IN HEAD AND BACK

A Lady Writes She Suffered So, Would Have To Stay In Bed For Days. Is Now Well.

Cartersville, Ga.—The following is from Mrs. Will T. Lawhon, of Cartersville: "I am writing this because I want other women to know what Cardui has done for me. Before I commenced taking Cardui, I had headache so bad, I would have to stay in bed for days at a time. I suffered untold misery with my head and back. I saw Cardui advertised and decided to try it. I took three bottles. After taking the first bottle, I could see a vast difference in my feelings, and decided to take the second, and took three in all. After taking the third bottle, I felt like a new woman altogether, and I will always praise Cardui as a boon to woman's life. I believe it saved my life and I am now a well, healthy woman, and my husband joins me in my praise for Cardui. Before I began taking Cardui, I was irregular, but since I began taking it, I have been regular and without any pain. Everyone tells me I am the picture of health since taking Cardui. I will recommend it to every suffering woman. If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic, why not give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial? Begin today. Your druggist sells Cardui.—Adv.

VALUABLE RECORDS TO HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Orange County Board Donates "Trial Docket" and "Minute Document," Both of Great Value. The North Carolina Historical Commission has received from the county commissioners of Orange county the "trial docket" of Orange county from 1768 to 1773, and the "minute document" from 1768 to 1788. These two volumes are among the most important historical documents in existence in North Carolina. They contain the famous records made in 1770 by the Regulators when, riding into Hillsboro, they broke up the Superior court, drove the judge from the bench, assaulted the lawyers, and filled the records of the court with profanity and billingsgate. The old records are badly worn and frayed from much handling and were in danger of being destroyed. The Orange county authorities, therefore, at the instance of Hon. Frank Nash, decided to place them in the custody of the Historical Commission for safe-keeping and preservation. The historical commission will have the volumes repaired, reinforced and rebound so that they may be used indefinitely without further damage. The county commissioners have also turned over to the historical commission a large collection of the tax lists of the county for many years back. They are of great interest and value in throwing light on social and economic conditions of the Revolutionary and Ante-Bellum periods of our history.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT NEXT ON CARDS

Display of Work By Raleigh Children; Drills and Music Program

The next big event scheduled for Raleigh's big auditorium following the Damrosch concert of yesterday and last night will be an exhibit by the Raleigh township schools on Friday, April 23. Teachers and pupils of the schools are hard at work getting ready for the event, which will be on a scale commensurate with the size and importance of the Raleigh schools. There will be an elaborate display of the different varieties of work done in the schools and it is expected that it will be peculiarly impressive to the thousands who will view it. There will be no charge of course for admission to the exhibit of school work, but at night there will be an entertainment for which a moderate admission charge will be made, the proceeds to be applied to the Teachers' Retirement Fund. On this occasion the physical culture and music departments of the schools will have the boards and the pupils will provide an evening of unusual pleasure, it is planned. It is felt that the Raleigh public will give a liberal patronage to the event intended to aid the Teachers' Retirement Fund, which is a fund to take care of teachers who have given their best days to the service of the schools. This fund has already been started and by a consent of the teachers and by giving entertainments, if it expected that in a few years several thousand dollars will have been accumulated. The April school exhibit is not to be confused with the annual commencement exercises which do not take place until May 28.

COMMITTEE PUTS OUT A STATEMENT

Good Government Men Present a Discussion of the Commissioners' Record

Raleigh now has a Good Government Publicity Committee and a Good Government Organization, both of these bodies growing out of the mass meeting of citizens held on the evening of April 2 to protest against the manner in which the affairs of the city have been managed by the present Board of Commissioners. Messrs. N. A. Dunn, J. L. O'Quinn and J. M. Broughton, Jr., constitute the Good Government Publicity Committee and the latter organization is composed of all those who attended the mass meeting and all the rest of the citizens who entertain similar views. The mass meeting raised a sum of money to defray the cost of an investigation into the city's bonded indebtedness by the series of articles which will submit from time to time, commencing this morning, are based on the results of this investigation, a member of the committee explained. The first of the series of articles by the Good Government Publicity Committee was submitted to the News and Observer last night for publication. It charges the Commissioners with increasing the city's bonded indebtedness by a million dollars with selling the city's bonds at shamefully low prices, with letting contracts without public bids, with permitting the city's expenses to exceed its income at the rate of twenty-seven thousand dollars a year, with passing by Raleigh contractors to the advantage of the contractors of nearby and smaller towns and with greatly increasing the city's payroll. The committee insists that it is time for the citizens of Raleigh to take a hand.

Mad Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

The many recoveries brought about by Eckman's Alternative are attracting wide attention. Read about this case:—

"Gentlemen—I was taken sick in November, 1908. I grew steadily worse. Had two consultations. The verdict was the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless; only gave me two months to live. My physician tried every kind of treatment and none did me any good. He asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine. I began your Alternative. I was in bed from November 30, 1908, until February 25, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever." (Abbreviated.) MRS. H. K. BRILEY. Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and upbuilding the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. ### HEAD THE FREIGHT RATE CASE MAY 5

Special Examiner To Consider Virginia's Plea On That Date

The Corporation Commission yesterday received notification from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the case of the Corporation Commission of Virginia, complaining of discrimination on account of the reduction of interstate rates to North Carolina points, will be heard before Examiner Pugh at the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington on May 5.

This was the case recently continued in Richmond. The State of North Carolina was not a party to the case. But the Corporation Commission of this State intervened on behalf of the shippers of North Carolina in the case in which the Virginia cities allege discrimination. In other words, North Carolina has secured a material reduction of rates under the activities of the special session of the Legislature and the Corporation Commission is going to take every precaution that they are maintained. The Corporation Commission will go to Washington and there represent the interests of North Carolina in the hearing before Examiner Pugh.

DOWN TOWN ARC LIGHTS NOW BURN

Turned On Last Night; Remainder in Operation By Thursday Night

The down town circuit of arc lights was turned on last night and the business portion of the city enjoyed street lights for the first time since the night of the storm. There are 52 lights in the down town circuit. More circuits will be turned on tonight and it is thought that all the arc lights will be in operation by Thursday night. This is the substance of a statement made by officials of the Carolina Power and Light Company last night. Practically two hundred and seventy-five lights have been put out for more than ten days, in addition to other residential lights. The light company has been working desperately at its system since the blizzard of the night that the light is off means a loss of money to the power company.

This is for the reason that as a part of the contract between Raleigh and the Carolina Power and Light Company the company is docked at a regular rate for the time the lights are not burning. Ordinarily the police department is charged with the duty of inspection. When a light is not burning on the street corner, the policeman on that beat reports the matter together with the number of hours of darkness, and at the end of the month this is settled with the power company.

NIGHT SCHOOL REACHES 50

Yoder School Will Close Saturday—Fetmster Will Deliver Address

Newton, April 13.—The enrollment in the night school of Yoder being conducted in Miss Matt Cochran's school house by the ladies of the town, reached a total of 50 the first week. So much interest is manifested by the students that the volunteer teachers are delighted. The night school for day workers who cannot attend a regular school, is sure to be productive of incalculable goods. The Yoder school closed Saturday. Hon. W. C. Fetmster, of Newton, delivering the address Superintendent F. George E. Long also attended. The Yoder school will close this week. A very interesting program has been arranged and Rev. J. D. The teachers are Misses Mary Bolick and Lulaine Mundy, and the school has been a fine one this year. Rev. W. W. Rowe, of the Reformed church, has been invited to deliver the literary address at Claremont College commencement May 11 and will accept. Saturday he delivered the address at the close of the Reepsville school.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Raleigh People Know How to Save It.

Many Raleigh people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay in detecting the danger. Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Raleigh citizen's recommendation. C. H. Beine, 408 E. Hargett St., Raleigh, says: "I have taken a great many boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills in my time and have always found them so reliable that I have recommended them to many of my friends, who have also received like results. Once in awhile my kidneys act irregularly and I suffer from inflammation of the bladder. Whenever I feel the trouble coming on, Doan's Kidney Pills never fail to put my kidneys in good working order." "I have been at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Beine had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y."

APPEALS ARGUED FROM THIRTEENTH

Only One Case of State Before Court, Being State vs. Kennedy, on Manslaughter

Arguments from the Thirteenth Judicial district were heard in the Supreme court yesterday. Only one case for the State was argued that being State v. Walter Kennedy, indicted from Stanly county for murder of John Morton. The appeal was taken on a verdict of manslaughter and a sentence of six years. The case itself involved directly contradictory testimony. The prosecution's testimony of the killing was substantially that the deceased kept a little store in Oakboro, adjoining a barber shop. On the evening of the homicide the defendant was passing the store in company of a lightning rod agent and upon hearing jeers and curses directed at his companion went into the store to investigate. Shortly after this, the deceased left the store and went to the barber shop, leaving his brother in the store. The brother then also went to the barber shop just in time to see an altercation between Kennedy and his brother, in which the former slapped his brother's face. At this point Morton placed his hand on Kennedy's shoulder and the latter fired.

In support of the self defense plea of the defense the two Mortons had had cut his clothes severely with a knife and he was in fear of death when he fired. Appearing in the case on appeal yesterday were Assistant Attorney General T. H. Calvert for the State and J. C. Brooks, F. J. Osborne, R. L. Smith, R. E. Austin, G. D. B. Reynolds, A. C. Honeycutt, and J. J. Parker for the plaintiffs.
