The Currie - Error - Baserunning mbingtion proved too powerful for iory's cellusites yesterday and the Capitals annexed another victory. making two out of the series. It was winning and the one run scored easy winning and the one run scored in the initial frame was quite enough to get the victory in the face of the superb work of Murphey Currie.

Currie shut-out the visitors and allowed but five scattered singles. It is true he was wild, issuing half a dozen bases, but he always tightened with runners on the paths and it was impossible for the Horrets to push a single run across the covered piece of Impossible for the Horists to push a single ran across the covaced piece of rubber. The nearest Chazlotte came of scoring was in the fourth frame when the Hornets secured two of when the Hornets secured two of their hits. With Munch on second and two out Sheehan singled clearly to center. Musch sprinted for home, to center. Musch sprinted for home, lost was equight at the plate by a perfect throw from Schuyler in center, feet throw from Schuyler in center, the throw cut the plate in two on as direct line and beat the runner by several feet. It was easily the best fielding feature of the afternoon and Pob was given nice applause on route to the bench. After that inning the tight wall. In the seventh two errors gave one run. In the eighth McDaniel, singled. Hohart bunted and McDaniel, was caught at second. Brouthers walked. Hewell beat out a slow roller to third. Van Horn hit to first and Mohart was caught at second. to Tally. The Hornets staged another of The Hornets staged another of their erratic contests, but yesterday they bunched their miscues in the second frame at which time the Capitals piled up half a dozen tallies by adding three bingles at the time when the visitors took their ascension. After the awful second round the Hornets settled down with their fielding and put up a good exhibition, contributing but two more bobbles to their large list. But with these two errors they convinced the fans that their large ind. But with these two errors they convinced the fans that they have some ability as players. Heck, in the right garden, made a pretty run and catch of Newman's little fly in the eighth inning and so sure was Citrano that the fly would fail safe that he was doubled off schayler and Citrano figured in the two biggest fielding features of the game. Schuyler with his perfect throw to the plate in the fourth robbed the Hornets of a run. In the seventh Moore drove a fly directly over second. The lick left his bat with all the marks of a hit when Citrano leaped into the air and speared the drive ere it fell to terra firma. Citrano also loomed mighty large at the plate, the Capital shortstop batting 1,000 per cent with his four hills in four times at bat. He had a double in the fifth, but fast fielding ouble in the fifth, but fast fielding y Boykin caught him at second. Iowever, in the eighth he laced out corking triple to left-center, the Local fans saw two of the Capitals in action for the first time. Buck Roberts, recent new member, played in right field and it's no use to say how he worked. Everybody in fandon knows this young man's ability a ball player. He didn't bang out y bingles yesterday, but it must taken in consideration that he has not been playing lately. He came here from Chattanooga, where he had trouble with his throat. The uther Capital who was in his first game here was Murphey Currie, of Racford. Currie was on the mound and he Charlotte appeared very large to the Hornets. Christenbury, if...

Five bingles he allowed them, but when they looked threatening, he always served them an assortment of offerings that were simply unhittable. He was wild, giving six Hornest free transportation to first, but that little matter-of-fact didn't get him into much trouble. Currie served a combination of fast ones and auick breaking curves, keeping them the corners. But Ruleigh faus saw one thing more real than anything else. It was the umpire—Sir Peter Boyle, ex-Twin and now a member of Presi-dent Arthur Lyon's umpiring staff.

Raleigh's first tally came in the first inning when Dysert walked, went to second while Mack walked and soored when the pitcher threw bad to first after Roberts bunted. Mack tried to score ch the same play, but was caught at home.
Six runs were added in the second frame and it was the last time the locals scored. Tally, first up, was safe on Munch's error. Citrano best out an infield tap, McCord sacrificated and was safe on fielder's choice, both runners advancing. Newman ed and was safe on fielder a choice, both runners advancing. Newman was thrown out at first by Sheehan, Tally crossed the rubber, Currie was passed. Dysert singled to right, scoring Citrane and McCord, When Dysert was caught between first and second Currie went home and was safe when Havener dropped Emery's throw. Mack hit a high bounder to Munch and beat the fielder to first. Roberts hit to Sheehan, who fumbled and allowed Roberts life on first and then threw the ball to rightfield. Dysert scored and Roberts reached, ascond. While Schuyler was drawing a pass Roberts stole third. Schuyler walked. On the double steal, Roberts scored and Schuyler took second. Tally

Those Charlotte players are simply hacked to death rather than an inferior club. Emery has several good players, but the boys are so anxious to win a game that every time they get in a close place they lose their nerves. If they ever win one spectators will see a change for the better.

GOOD EIELDING

Bulls Hit Munoz Hard, But Asheville Hit More Opportune and Wins.

(Special to The News and Observer) Asheville, May 4.—Brilliant fielding by Fenton and Wasem saved Munoz, the Cuban twirler, a defeat this afternoon, when the Bulls pounded his delivery for ten safeties. Asheville, however, hit more opportunely and got the victory by a score of 4 to 2. Many of the visitors' hits were -wastoff, and when runners were on the paths and bingles sorely needed, Munoz alwaya tightened. Forbes pitched a good game, but he failed to tighten at the right time.
