

COTTON LOSES SOME GROUND

Rallies However After Being Thrown Into Demoralization by Wild Rumor.

NET LOSS 8 TO 15 POINTS

Liverpool Made a Very Strong Showing and the New York Market Opened Firm But as There Was No Aggressive Demand Prices Gradually Eased Off.

New York, May 10.—Quickly denied rumors of extremely disquieting developments in Washington threw the cotton market into a state of excitement which bordered on demoralization for a brief period late this morning. Rallies of several points followed, however, and the close was at a net decline of only 8 to 15 points.

Liverpool made a very strong showing and the local market opened firm at an advance of 11 to 17 points. There was no aggressive demand and prices gradually eased off some 20 to 30 points from the best under liquidation. Just before midday the market met a burst of general selling which caused a further break of about $1.50 per bale within the space of five minutes. Prompt details of the unloading of cotton vessels which were reported at this level and prices rallied some 16 to 24 points from the lowest on covering and trade buying. Rumors that some of the cotton vessels which were to have cleared from South Atlantic ports on Saturday had been temporarily held up helped to stabilize the market during the morning.

WHEAT CLOSES AT A DECLINE

Chicago, Ill., May 10.—False rumors that some harm had come to President Wilson put sudden additional strain today on the wheat market while values were tending downward owing to continued uncertainty as to whether the Louisiana tragedy would involve serious disturbance of diplomatic and trade relations. The market closed up settled, but with the greater part of the losses recovered at 5 1/4% under Saturday night's level. Corn finished 1/4 off to 3/8% up, oats 3/4 down to 1/2 advance, and provisions showing a decrease in un-filled orders. At the same time the financial district was flooded with alarming rumors bearing upon conditions in Washington and abroad. When it became apparent these reports had no foundation, the heavy selling abated and prices gradually made a two to 3 point recovery.
