RAIN STOPS PRETTY PITCHERS' DUEL

Myers and Munoz Were Masters of Situation For Six Innings

With "Chief" Myers and "Cuby" Munoz swirling air-tight ball and neither team being able to gather but a brace of bingles off the delivery of the hurlers, rain yesterday robbed spectators of another beautiful exhibition between the Tourists and Capitals.

Although the rain terminated the contest in the sixth, those present didn't make any complaints of the abbreviated contest. They saw an excellent contest even if the teams didn't get the chance to run the game to the regulation nine innings.

It was another of the A-1 baseball exhibitions that have been staged in the Capital City during the past two series.

The short contest from the start was nothing but a pitchers battle between Myers and Munoz with the odds slightly in favor of the hurlers. For six innings Myers had the visitors at his mercy and from the way the Tourists found trouble in solving his mystifiers it is reasonable to believe that the elongated one had a good chance to capture another victory.

However, Munoz was going like a house afire and looked almost equally as good as Myers. Myers allowed but two hits, both being of the infield variety. He walked a couple and fanned half a dozen.

But Munoz was just as stingy with hits, allowing but a brace and being tight in the pinches. He passed a couple of Raleigh batters, but with a couple of errors in the strike-out act as Myers, the Cuban fanning only two Capitals. He allowed two infield hits.

Britain and Jimmes were the Tourists who secured the bingles off Myers' delivery, while Dyzert and Tally were credited with the hits of the delivery of Munoz.

COBB'S FLEETNESS HELPS TIGERS

Yankees Beaten By Two Runs, Cleveland Defeats Boston; Athletics Lose

(By the Associated Press.) Detroit, Mich., May 19.—Cobb's darting on the bases helped Detroit defeat New York, 3 to 1 today. His single in the third inning sent Cleveland home with the run that tied the score. The fleet Georgian stole second and third, but Peckinpaugh's fine stop of Veach's bounder over second stopped the rally. In the eighth Cobb walked, stole second, advanced on a wild pitch, and came home on Young's single. Tyrus had four stolen bases to his credit.

DIAMOND DUST.

It was a very pretty game for the rain to break up. Guess Myers, Harper, Currie, Gittings and Parnham compose a strong pitching staff.

Charlotte and Durham fans were prevented from seeing anything that resembled a baseball game. Old J. Pluvius didn't even allow them to start play.

Jack Harper, last year with Greensboro and giving a trial in spring by Connie Mack, yesterday joined the Raleigh team. Harper was released by the Richmond club.

Manager Charles Sisson is determined to give Charlotte a winning team. He now announces the acquisition of Burge, a pitcher whom he secured from Manager Ryan of Rocky Mount.

It is needless to state that Harper will strengthen the Capitals' hurling staff. Fans who know of his work last year should be well satisfied that he will win many games for the Carolina Mackmen.

Arch Farmer may be given the clean-up place. Archie seems able to hit the ball solid at any rate and with more responsibility placed upon his shoulders it is hoped he will deliver bingles at more opportune times.

When "Doc" Watson, third sacker last year with Asheville, joins the Patriots, Rowe will have another job of getting rid of a coolie. Young, unless he switches Edwards to first and places Watson at the keystone position.

McCoy, formerly of the Hornets and of late member of Kelly's Bulls, has cast his lot with Jack Corbett's Tourists. McCoy is trying to make good behind the plate this year and it is very probable that Corbett will release "Red" Roth, the big receiver.

In an effort to improve the batting of the Capitals Manager Mack will today change his batting order. Perkins has fallen down as a clean-up man and since the plucky, little catcher is idle with the stick Mack thinks a switch will do Cyrus some good.

The Newton, Enterprise says "Herbert M. Young, well known pitcher and son of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Young, has been assigned to the Providence, R. I. club of the Colonial League. Friends here will follow his summer's pitching with interest."

Fans in other cities are getting jealous because all the best games are being played in Raleigh. Gah says the best way to remedy bad games is to get better teams. With such players as Raleigh, Asheville and Greensboro have, there's no reason why the fans of the Capital City can not see corking games when the latter two teams are here.

When the Raleigh club returns from its trip to Charlotte and Asheville local fans will see a new infielder with the Capitals. This player who will join the club on its return is McConnell, a fast infielder who is now with the Athletics. With McCord on the stick and an outfielder on third, Manager Mack finds that he can use a good, hitting infielder to advantage.

"Reddy" Rowe last night announced that he had released Buck Howard, infielder, and Altman, a southpaw twirler. Howard is a mighty good man to let go. He has been hitting better than either Hewell or Edwards and judging from his holding in Raleigh he is certainly a valuable man to have in any infield in this league. Altman failed to show the class of other good twirlers.

President Ellington yesterday received a telegram from Secretary Farrell, of the National Commission, awarding the services of Lee Gooch
