

THE WEATHER

Fair and warmer today; tomorrow fair; stable on page 5.

The News and Observer

Best Advertising Medium in North Carolina

VOL. CII. NO. 104.

Raleigh, N. C., Tuesday Morning, October 12, 1915.

PRICE 5 CENTS

WAKE CELEBRATES PRESENTATION AND DEDICATION OF COURTHOUSE COSTING OVER QUARTER MILLION

National State And Municipal Officers Present And Take Part In Event In Persons of Secretary Daniels, Governor Craig, Chief Justice Clark And Mayor Johnson

EVENT BRINGS FELICITATIONS FROM PROMINENT MEN REPRESENTING STRONG INTERESTS IN COUNTY

Perfect October Day, Lively Music, Free Lemonade and Free Movies Interest Crowds Which Throng Streets All Day. Court House Exercises Three Hours In Length, and Thousands Inspect New Building

Raleigh, North Carolina, and the Nation, joined Wake County yesterday in celebrating the acceptance of the $275,000 Temple of Justice, declared to be the finest example of court house architecture in the State.

Mr. Edward E. Britton, chairman of the general committee, presided and introduced the speakers. Beginning at 10:45, the program continued without a break until 1:45. The formal presentation and acceptance were brief.

Even the County Commissioners could not have chosen better for a day. It was "Wake County Day" and the celebration in Wake or any other county can have. Rich, warm, cheerful sunshine, not oppressive, just something, softened the bitter tinge of that which has been a raw October wind, sunbaked, and crisp air, the touch of fall, the crowds and the music of bands—these and the spirit of the dedication were the forces that held Raleigh captive.

One of the guests of honor yesterday did not speak. But he was present on the streets, in the court house and bent to the right of Secretary Daniels. On the street he leaned upon his cane and his eyes half-closed looked about the new Raleigh and on the new court house as he told in his soft voice of the time when Raleigh was a forest. It was J. W. Kierulff, a hundred and four years old, the father of twenty-one children and the survivor of two wives. He lives in House Creek township, and came to Raleigh yesterday morning to take part in the exercises.

Two of the expected guests yesterday did not arrive. They were Hon. Francis D. Winston, who wired his congratulations but was prevented from attending by reason of court session, and Mr. Judge Charles M. Cooke of Louisville who was held at Beaufort. Judge Cooke, however, sent his greetings in the shape of a letter. This Chairman Britton read at the proper time.

"It is barely possible," Judge Cooke had said, "that I may be with you in Raleigh Monday but certainly not."

FOREIGN EXCHANGE ON DECLINE DESPITE LOAN

New York, Oct. 11.—Foreign exchange rates went down again today, in the face of the successful flotation of the $500,000,000 credit loan to Great Britain and France.

WILSON AND FIANCEE MAKE WEDDING PLANS

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt, his fiancée, today began making preliminary arrangements for their wedding. The President and Mrs. Galt are not discussing their detailed plans even with their immediate friends and relatives.

MOUNT AIRY MAN FALLS 90 FEET, SLIGHTLY HURT

Mount Airy, Oct. 11.—Falling 90 feet over the side of a mountain here Sunday afternoon, J. H. McCraw and his son, J. H. McCraw, Jr., sustained slight injuries when the horse attached to the automobile in which they were riding took fright at a passing automobile and backed the vehicle over the bank.

COMMISSIONERS WHO PLANNED COURT HOUSE AND GUESTS OF HONOR AT DEDICATION YESTERDAY

Left to right—Commissioner W. H. Chamblee, Jr., J. H. Lynn, John A. Mills, Chairman; E. C. Beddingfield, B. S. Franklin, B. C. Beckwith, County Attorney.

LOCKE CRAIG, Governor of North Carolina

JOSEPHUS DANIELS, Secretary of Navy

CHIEF JUSTICE WALTER CLARK of the State Supreme Court

DUFFY LEWIS' HIT SENDS BIG 'ALEX' DOWN IN DEFEAT

Ninth Inning Rally Gives Red Sox Second Victory Over Phillies

BOSTONIANS NOW HAVE ADVANTAGE OF SERIES

Crowd of 42,300 Persons See Opening Game in Boston. "Dutch" Leonard Turns Philly Batters Back With Only Three Safe Blows During Game; Barry Stars

OFFICIAL RECEIPTS YESTERDAY'S GAME

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Total attendance 42,300. Paid admissions $83,191.00. Players' share 44,923.14. Commission's share 8,319.19. Each club's share 14,974.38.

NAVAL COMMISSIONS OPEN TO ANY YOUNG MEN OF LEGAL AGE

Secretary Daniels Makes Announcement of Requirements and Urges North Carolinians To Take Advantage of Offer If They Can Show Character

WILSON SANCTIONS RECOGNITION PLAN

President Formally Approves Action of Pan-American Diplomats

CHICAGO WOMAN, HOLDING $2,000 POLICY FILES SUIT IN FEDERAL COURT

TAKING $10,000,000 IS PLANNED, SHE SAYS

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE NOW ABOUT STAMPED OUT IN WEST

Department of Agriculture, Assisted by States Affected Has Won Fight Against Dreaded Enemy of Farmers; Virginia Now Is Safe

WILSON SANCTIONS RECOGNITION PLAN

President Formally Approves Action of Pan-American Diplomats

CHICAGO WOMAN, HOLDING $2,000 POLICY FILES SUIT IN FEDERAL COURT

TAKING $10,000,000 IS PLANNED, SHE SAYS

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE NOW ABOUT STAMPED OUT IN WEST

Department of Agriculture, Assisted by States Affected Has Won Fight Against Dreaded Enemy of Farmers; Virginia Now Is Safe

ASKS INJUNCTION TO KEEP MUTUAL OUT OF BIG LOAN

Chicago Woman, Holding $2,000 Policy Files Suit In Federal Court

MYSTERY IN DEATH OF DURHAM WOMAN

Miss Ardella Riley Dies at Hospital In Danville, Va., After Taking Poison

NAVY POLICYHOLDERS OBJECT

The complaint sets forth that among the thousands of policyholders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company are many persons of various nationalities, and that the investment of the trust funds of these policyholders in the Anglo-French loan would tend to produce antagonism among the policyholders.

NAVY POLICYHOLDERS OBJECT

The complaint sets forth that among the thousands of policyholders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company are many persons of various nationalities, and that the investment of the trust funds of these policyholders in the Anglo-French loan would tend to produce antagonism among the policyholders.

NAVY POLICYHOLDERS OBJECT

The complaint sets forth that among the thousands of policyholders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company are many persons of various nationalities, and that the investment of the trust funds of these policyholders in the Anglo-French loan would tend to produce antagonism among the policyholders.

NAVY POLICYHOLDERS OBJECT

The complaint sets forth that among the thousands of policyholders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company are many persons of various nationalities, and that the investment of the trust funds of these policyholders in the Anglo-French loan would tend to produce antagonism among the policyholders.

NAVY POLICYHOLDERS OBJECT

The complaint sets forth that among the thousands of policyholders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company are many persons of various nationalities, and that the investment of the trust funds of these policyholders in the Anglo-French loan would tend to produce antagonism among the policyholders.

NAVY POLICYHOLDERS OBJECT

The complaint sets forth that among the thousands of policyholders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company are many persons of various nationalities, and that the investment of the trust funds of these policyholders in the Anglo-French loan would tend to produce antagonism among the policyholders.

NAVY POLICYHOLDERS OBJECT

The complaint sets forth that among the thousands of policyholders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company are many persons of various nationalities, and that the investment of the trust funds of these policyholders in the Anglo-French loan would tend to produce antagonism among the policyholders.

NAVY POLICYHOLDERS OBJECT

The complaint sets forth that among the thousands of policyholders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company are many persons of various nationalities, and that the investment of the trust funds of these policyholders in the Anglo-French loan would tend to produce antagonism among the policyholders.

SERBIANS ARE BEATEN BACK BY TEUTONS NOW PAST BELGRADE; RUSSIANS REPULSED BY GERMANS

Assault Momentarily Is Expected By Bulgaria On Railway Connecting Nish and Saloniki; Rumania Also Shows Increasing Alarm at Actions of Sofia and Central Powers

CZAR'S OFFENSIVE STOPS AS GERMAN FORCES CHECK ATTACKS ON BATTLE FRONT NEAR DVINSK

Germans Leave Thousands of Dead On Field After Trying To Recapture Positions at Loos, Says French Official Statement; British Parliament Meets Today and Will Discuss Big Anglo-French Loan In United States

Vienna, Oct. 11.—(Via London)—Austro-German troops advancing from Belgrade have beaten back the Serbians both southeast and southwest of that city, the Austrian war office announced today.

London, Oct. 11.—While the teutonic armies continue to advance in the Balkans, there is nothing to indicate an actual military move by Bulgaria against Serbia, except a report that an assault is momentarily expected on the railroad connecting Nish and Saloniki.

Rumania is showing increasing alarm on account of the threatened military movement by Bulgaria and the central powers in close proximity to her frontiers but neither Athens nor Bucharest is exhibiting any readiness to depart from a policy of benevolent neutrality toward the triple entente powers.

The only significant point in any of the official reports of the fighting along the major fronts today was the statement from Berlin that Field Marshal Von Hindenburg had repulsed Russian attacks on the Dvinsk front which seemingly would indicate that for the first time since the German drive through Poland began the Austro-Germans are making no big offensive as yet along the whole eastern front.

The meeting of the British Parliament tomorrow promises to be of unusual importance. The Anglo-French loan, of $500,000,000 obtained in the United States will be discussed and ratified.

The country will await with far greater interest, however, for what over Lord Grey may throw upon the Balkan developments and whether he or Premier Asquith will reveal the cabinet's policy on the vital alternative which confronts it.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The influential Westminster Gazette secondly the protest of the Times, military expert against submitting to German dictation in the initiative, saying:

"If there is to be an expedition it must be on a sufficient scale and we must not weaken the west. We must have a clear idea of how to get new men in addition to those on whom it had previously counted."

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

The attack on the foreign office and Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. The military and newspaper critics are agreed that one or the other path must be followed.

PRESIDENT URGES AMERICANS TO BE NEUTRAL ON WAR

Stand For United States First, He Advises at D. A. R. Celebration

SAYS AMERICA TRIES TO PRESERVE PEACE

Peace Can Be Rebuilt, He Declares, Only Upon Principles of International Law; Great Cause of This Country, He Says, Is Cause of Humanity Itself

Washington, Oct. 11.—A demand upon all Americans on pain of ostracism to be more than neutral in regard to the European war, to take their stand for America first, last and all the time, was voiced by President Wilson here today in a speech at the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

"There is a very great thrill to me merely trying to keep out of trouble, but was trying to preserve the foundations upon which peace could be rebuilt."

"Peace can be rebuilt," he added, "only upon the ancient and accepted principles of international law; only upon these things which remind nations of their duties to each other and deeper than that, of their duties to mankind and humanity. America has a great cause which is not confined to the American continent. It is the cause of humanity itself."

Declaring his faith in the loyalty of the great body of naturalized citizens of foreign birth, the President said he believed the impression was too general that a very large number of these citizens were without a sufficient affection for the American ideal.

"But I am in a hurry to have a line-up," he explained, "and let the men who are thinking first of other countries stand on one side and those who are for America first, last and all the time, on the other side."

The President's address follows: "There is a very great thrill to me merely trying to keep out of trouble, but was trying to preserve the foundations upon which peace could be rebuilt."

"Peace can be rebuilt," he added, "only upon the ancient and accepted principles of international law; only upon these things which remind nations of their duties to each other and deeper than that, of their duties to mankind and humanity. America has a great cause which is not confined to the American continent. It is the cause of humanity itself."

Declaring his faith in the loyalty of the great body of naturalized citizens of foreign birth, the President said he believed the impression was too general that a very large number of these citizens were without a sufficient affection for the American ideal.

"But I am in a hurry to have a line-up," he explained, "and let the men who are thinking first of other countries stand on one side and those who are for America first, last and all the time, on the other side."

The President's address follows: "There is a very great thrill to me merely trying to keep out of trouble, but was trying to preserve the foundations upon which peace could be rebuilt."

"Peace can be rebuilt," he added, "only upon the ancient and accepted principles of international law; only upon these things which remind nations of their duties to each other and deeper than that, of their duties to mankind and humanity. America has a great cause which is not confined to the American continent. It is the cause of humanity itself."

Declaring his faith in the loyalty of the great body of naturalized citizens of foreign birth, the President said he believed the impression was too general that a very large number of these citizens were without a sufficient affection for the American ideal.

"But I am in a hurry to have a line-up," he explained, "and let the men who are thinking first of other countries stand on one side and those who are for America first, last and all the time, on the other side."

The President's address follows: "There is a very great thrill to me merely trying to keep out of trouble, but was trying to preserve the foundations upon which peace could be rebuilt."

"Peace can be rebuilt," he added, "only upon the ancient and accepted principles of international law; only upon these things which remind nations of their duties to each other and deeper than that, of their duties to mankind and humanity. America has a great cause which is not confined to the American continent. It is the cause of humanity itself."

Declaring his faith in the loyalty of the great body of naturalized citizens of foreign birth, the President said he believed the impression was too general that a very large number of these citizens were without a sufficient affection for the American ideal.

"But I am in a hurry to have a line-up," he explained, "and let the men who are thinking first of other countries stand on one side and those who are for America first, last and all the time, on the other side."

The President's address follows: "There is a very great thrill to me merely trying to keep out of trouble, but was trying to preserve the foundations upon which peace could be rebuilt."

"Peace can be rebuilt," he added, "only upon the ancient and accepted principles of international law; only upon these things which remind nations of their duties to each other and deeper than that, of their duties to mankind and humanity. America has a great cause which is not confined to the American continent. It is the cause of humanity itself."

Declaring his faith in the loyalty of the great body of naturalized citizens of foreign birth, the President said he believed the impression was too general that a very large number of these citizens were without a sufficient affection for the American ideal.

"But I am in a hurry to have a line-up," he explained, "and let the men who are thinking first of other countries stand on one side and those who are for America first, last and all the time, on the other side."