SCOTLAND NECK

Scotland Neck, Oct. 23.—Wednesday evening at 5:30 o'clock Miss Essie May Dickens became the bride of Mr. Robert Harvey Pittman of Rocky Mount, the marriage taking place at the home of the bride on East Seventh street.

Promptly at 5:30 o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" the bride and groom entered the hall from east parlor and in a most impressive and beautiful ceremony were pronounced man and wife by Rev. H. A. McFarland, pastor of the bride church.

The bride was dressed in a blue tailored going away gown. Immediately after the ceremony the newly married couple and a number of their friends motored to Hobgood where Mr. and Mrs. Pittman took the night train for Rocky Mount, where a reception was tendered there by the parents of the groom, after which they will take an extended trip to Washington, Philadelphia and other Northern points.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Dickens of this place, and has a large number of friends here and elsewhere who wish her the best of happiness.

Mr. Pittman, whose home is in Rocky Mount, is employed there by the A. C. L. Co., and is well known in this section as this at one time was his home.

Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock Rev. A. R. McFarland united in marriage Miss Irene Parks and Mr. Carl Vaught of Rich Square, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. Hancock, at her country home just outside of town.

Many friends from Scotland Neck and the surrounding country as well as many out of town guests were present when Rev. A. R. McFarland, pastor of the bride, in a simple yet beautiful service pronounced them man and wife.

Many handsome presents were received by the happy couple, many of which were extremely handsome. Immediately following the marriage a wedding supper of old-fashioned variety was served the bridal couple and their many friends by Mr. and Mrs. Hancock, and until a late hour the young people present enjoyed the evening which was the best of success and happiness.

Miss Parks was one of the best known and most popular of the younger set here and has a host of friends here and in other parts of North Carolina.

Mr. Vaught is a well known business man of Rich Square and is well known to the people of this section, he having lived for some time here some time ago.

DUKE

Duke, Oct. 23.—Troop number one of the Duke Boy Scouts of America, Rev. N. C. Duncan scoutmaster, went on a hike Friday afternoon to the woods along the banks of the Cape Fear river, where they enjoyed a supper of oysters. After which they held their regular meeting around the camp fire. This was their first outing since their hike to Raleigh and ten days camping there during the summer.

The troop is doing the work scouting and new members are continually being taken in. On Wednesday they enjoyed a trip to the Great State Fair, the railroad granting them the same special rates as to the military companies.

Wednesday evening at the home of her sister in Baltimore, Miss Helen Finley was married to Mr. W. H. Lawrence. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Durham and reached Duke Friday afternoon, and at present will make their home with Mr. F. Smith, Jr. Miss Finley for some years had charge of the millinery department of the Hassell-Johnson Company. Mr. Lawrence is a contractor and builder from Durham, and for two years has been building and doing repair work in Duke.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis, and E. S. Yarborough attended the wedding of Miss Beattie Erwin and H. C. Jones at Durham last night. They will make the trip in automobile. Wednesday afternoon at the home

ASHEVILLE

Asheville, Oct. 23.—The wedding of Miss Maude Willis, attractive and accomplished daughter of Mrs. Julius Disney Willis, and Captain Clyde Rush Abraham, United States Army, which occurred at Trinity Episcopal church Wednesday night was one of the season's most brilliant weddings.

It was followed by an elaborate reception given by the bride's mother, after which Captain and Mrs. Abraham left for an extended stay in Pennsylvania. From that state they will go to Honolulu where Captain Abraham is stationed at the present time. The church was handsomely decorated for the wedding, pews and altar and flowers being used in profusion. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Julius M. Horner. Miss Linda Schartz played the wedding march and Mr. Edwin L. Day, Mr. John S. Hurely, Mr. Richard Lowrey and Mr. Hunter Campbell were the ushers and groomsmen. Miss Cammie Jones was the maid of honor with Miss Ada Emmett, of Chicago, Miss Geraldine Jones, of Memphis, and Miss Olive Ford, of Mississippi, acting as bridesmaids. Mr. Rowland Williams was Captain Abraham's best man.

Mrs. Perry Cobb entertained Tuesday afternoon at her home on Summit street with a delightful reception which was arranged as a compliment to Miss Myrtle Rollins whose marriage to Mr. Baxter Bell will take place the twenty eighth of the present month.

Mr. William Forest Bell was the guest of honor at a thoroughly enjoyable auction bridge party which was given by Miss Julia Grace Thursday afternoon at her home on North Main street. The home of the hostess was decorated in the most attractive manner for the occasion and the games were spirited, attractive prizes being awarded to the most fortunate players upon the conclusion of the contest. Refreshments were served.

Miss Geraldine Jones, of Memphis, was the guest of honor at a reception given by Mrs. S. Montgomery Tuesday afternoon at her home in Victoria. The reception was largely attended by the friends of the hostess who were pleased at an opportunity to meet the attractive visitor to this city. Miss Jones will spend several weeks at Asheville.

Mrs. Lawrence Hobart entertained eighteen of her friends at an enjoyable dinner Wednesday night. An elaborate menu was served and the guests engaged in dancing until a late hour upon the conclusion of the spread.

Miss Myrtle Rollins was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Arthur T. Fritchard. Red carnations were used in the decorations and enjoyable refreshments were served. Out of town visitors who are here for the wedding of Miss Rollins and Mr. Bell next week arrived at Asheville yesterday in large numbers. They were entertained at the home of the bride's father, Major W. W. Rollins. The house party is proving to be an interesting social event and a number of events are being given complimentary to the members of the bride's party and visitors here for the wedding.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hiltman, at the residence of their daughter, Miss Martha Heltman, became the bride of Mr. Edwin Estill Stokely, of Newport, Tenn. Immediately following the ceremony, the bride and groom were the guests of honor at a reception given by the former's parents at which many friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Stokely left for an extended tour of Canada and the Great Lake region and will be at home after the middle of next month at Newport. The bride is one of Asheville's attractive and popular young women while the groom is prominent in the business circles of the Tennessee city.

An enjoyable auction bridge party of the latter part of the week was that given by Mrs. W. W. Turnbull at her new home at No. 1 Pearson's Drive at which a score of friends were present. The game was highly enjoyed and the winner of the first prize while the second was awarded to Mrs. M. H. Harris. A three-course luncheon was served upon the conclusion of the playing, hands playing cards being used in the dining-room.

LENOIR

Lenoir, Oct. 23.—Miss Jessie Courtney was hostess to the Picnic Club, Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Ella Lambeth. The subject of the program for this occasion was "Belleville" everyone present giving an interesting item about this once enterprising nation. Mrs. J. Ralph Todd read a sketch of the lives of King Albert and Queen Mary. Miss Mary Fries Hall gave an interesting account of Belgium's two great cities, Van Dyck and Rubens. Miss Lambeth delighted her hearers with several vocal selections rendered in her sympathetic manner. The hostess was assisted in serving a two-course collation by Mrs. M. M. Courneyne, Mrs. C. C. Courtney, Misses Alice and Ruth Courneyne. Those enjoying the hospitality of Miss Courtney besides the club members were Mesdames H. B. Martin, J. L. Fox, J. L. Nelson, F. E. Barnhardt, H. T. Newland, W. S. Livingston, J. A. Courtney and Miss Vera Tuttle.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lambeau entertained at two o'clock on Thursday evening at their home on College avenue, Miss Ella Lambeth of Thomasville, guest of honor. Those present were Misses Lambeth, Frances Atkinson, Mary Fries Hall, Jessie Courneyne and Mrs. M. M. Courneyne.

Mrs. C. H. Hedger entertained the Q. V. Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on Ash street, in honor of her house guest, Mrs. F. H. Marley of Old Fort. Several interesting games of cards were included in the program, after which a salad course was served followed by mince, cake and coffee. The invited guests were Mesdames R. A. Bamcarr, F. F. Allen, J. D. Mather and Miss John Hancock.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Moore, Globe, in the upper part of this county, their daughter, Grace, was united in marriage to Mr. Claude L. Lenoir, of Valle Crucis. Sunday afternoon in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Rollins of Lincoln.

After the ceremony an elegant dinner was served. The bride and groom left for a short visit to Washington City and other Northern cities, after which they will return to Valle Crucis, where they will be tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Mast. They will make their home at Valle Crucis. Mr. Mast is a young man of many fine traits and is a farmer, who has made farming a special study. For a year or more he taught agriculture at the Patterson school at Lenoirwood in this county. The bride is a daughter of one of the best families of the county, and is an accomplished young lady.

AHOSKIE

Ahoskie, Oct. 23.—The Tongue and Needle Club met with Mrs. M. D. Curtis on Thursday evening. Present among those attending the State Fair from this place were G. J. Newberry, J. C. Brett, John Adkins, Charlie Early and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Willoughby.

Mr. W. Green came very near losing his car on last Friday night near Stone Creek. In holding a lighted match too near some waste gasoline, the car became ignited and at one time threatened to go up in flames, but by quick work on the part of Dr. Green the flames were snuffed before very much damage was done.

J. M. Willoughby & Co. of this place, have about completed their new station which they have been constructing on the vacant lot next to their place of business. The station is 110 feet long and 75 feet high and will receive messages 2,000 miles. Continued heavy rains have been in order on the market here this week, and the prices are holding up very good.

Mrs. J. E. Ward, of Robersonville, is spending this week with Mr. R. J. Baker of this place. While here she spent a few days with relatives in Harrelsville.

Mr. Talmage Baker returned to Norfolk this week to resume his studies at the Southern Shorthand and Business University.

Mrs. J. W. Godwin and little son, Henry Vann, left this week to spend a few weeks with Mrs. Godwin's father, Dr. J. W. Godwin, of Salisbury, Md. W. G. Smith, senile editor of the Hertford County Herald, but who is now devoting his entire time to the purchase of tobacco, spent the weekend with his family here. Mr. Smith is a lawyer on the Robersonville market.

Messrs. Robert Vann and R. E. Wilkins.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

25 cent bottle of "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy and wavy.

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

Be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair: soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within three days there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair: but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower.
