HARTNESS STATES THAT HE'S IN RACE

Statesville Man Asks Fellow Democrats To Name Him For Secretary of State

Mr. James A. Hartness, of Statesville, a visitor to Raleigh yesterday cave out a statement that he is in the race for the Democratic namination for Secretary of State. This is the first definite announcement made through the press by Mr. Hartness, though it has been understood for some time that he would be a candidate.

Mr. Hartness is the cierk of court of Iredell county, and has been active in the political life of the State for many years. In 1887 he was licensed to gractice haw. He established and became the editor of the Statesville Massot, later the Statesville Sentinel, which he most owns. In 1888 he was Massot, latter the Statesville Sentinet, which he mow owns. In 1826 he was elected to the Legislature redeeping Irsdell from the Fusionists and Republicans who had carried the county two years before. He was the author of the "Fellow Servant" bill which became a law in 1897. Since 1898 he has been the chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Iredell county. In 1905 he was elected prasident of the North Carolina Anti-Sulous League.

Mr. Hartness is a native of Iredell, horn and reared on the farm and now lives on his farm in the suburbs of Statesville, being engaged in practical farming. In the statement given out by him on yesterday concerning but by him on yesterday concerning

he said:

"Four years ago I was urged by Democratis in the State to become a candidate for Secretary of the State.
In response to those requests, I stated that I could not offer myself for this jumition at that time, but that if, after four years, there should appear a sufficient demand for a change and the ficient demand for a change and the Democratic veters should seem in-clined to me as their candidate, I would seriously consider offering for

ERWIN-JONES

Durham, Oct. 28.—Many factors combined to make the wedding of Miss Bessie Smedes Erwin and Mr. Hamilton, Chamberlyne Jones, of Hamilton Chamberlyne Jones, of Charlotte, which was selemaized this evening, one of the most interesting and important events which has evertaken place in the State. Because of the love and exteem in which this young couple and their parents are held. St. Phillips' church was taxed to hold the large representative gathering of friends who assembled to witness the ceremony. With its lavish decorations of paims, smilax, Easter lillies and white chrysanthernums. lilies and white chrysanthemums. lighted by soft lights from myriad candles, the church presented a scene

Ilighted by soft lights from myriad candles, the church presented a scene of rare loveliness.

While the guests were assembling an elaborate musical program was rendered by Mrs. J. M.
