

$6,900 LEFT FOR Y. M. C. A. WORKERS

Two More Days For Raising of $25,000 To Reduce $40,000 Debt

Two more days to work and $6,900 to gain. That is the status of the Y. M. C. A. campaign to reduce the indebtedness of the institution by raising $25,000 subscription. The total of $14,797.50 with which the workers began the day yesterday, was raised to $18,100 by the luncheon hour. And the big subscription of the day was that given by Dr. A. W. Goodwin, amounting to $500. Thus far, professional men, it ap-ears, are ahead of the business men strictly speaking, in the team work. Offices have been abandoned, business has been left by the wayside, and every effort is being concentrated on the object of raising the amount to insure an untrammelled Y. M. C. A. The luncheon yesterday, prepared under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., was served by the Young Ladies Auxiliary of the First Baptist church with Miss Theo Thompson, chairman.

Prof. Branson Speaks. Prof. B. C. Branson, of the chair of Rural Economics of the University of North Carolina, spurred the workers yesterday in a brief talk. Prof. Branson emphasized that the common good of man is the aim of all right endeavor.

The aim of the church, of education, of all Y. M. C. A. work is in the end the exchange of the common wealth into well, the common wealth into the common weal of all.

A spirited tilt between Mr. Carey, H. J. and Dr. W. S. Rankin and the ladies of the various organizations which have helped in the service of the luncheon.

Resolutions of appreciation were passed yesterday to the press and the ladies of the various organizations which have helped in the service of the luncheon.

Letters are being received from various Y. M. C. A. organizations in North Carolina and Virginia as well showing that the campaign is being watched with interest by workers out of this city. A letter was read yesterday from a general secretary of the Richmond association, B. K. McKee, expressing the hope that the records for campaigning have already been broken.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

Have your hair! Double its beauty in just a few moments.

25-cent "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful.

Within ten minutes after application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first, growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, stimulates the growth, stimulates and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, soft and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luxury, softness and beauty.

Get a 25-cent bottle of "Danderine" from any drug store or toilet counter, and you will find that it has been recommended by all—your surety can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will use a little Danderine.

SYMPATHY TOKENS STILL COMING IN

More Letters From News and Observer's Great Host of Friends

With more room this morning at its command by reason of the arrival of paper the News and Observer is enabled to print more of the many messages of sympathy and tokens of assistance in the great misfortune that has overtaken it in the loss by fire for the second time of its building and plant.

In one of these letters, that of Dr. Howard Routhaler of Winston-Salem, the opinion is expressed that the News and Observer is as much a part of North Carolina as the Yadkin river or Cape Hatteras. That is the way a great many people feel about the News and Observer. When disaster comes to it there is a feeling that the state itself has received a blow. This is indicated in the number and sentiments of the large number of letters which have come in the last few days from friends in this

With more room this morning at its command by reason of the arrival of paper the News and Observer is enabled to print more of the many messages of sympathy and tokens of assistance in the great misfortune that has overtaken it in the loss by fire for the second time of its building and plant.

In one of these letters, that of Dr. Howard Routhaler of Winston-Salem, the opinion is expressed that the News and Observer is as much a part of North Carolina as the Yadkin river or Cape Hatteras. That is the way a great many people feel about the News and Observer. When disaster comes to it there is a feeling that the state itself has received a blow. This is indicated in the number and sentiments of the large number of letters which have come in the last few days from friends in this and other States. Some of the more recent of these letters follow:

Thos. J. Pence, Washington, D. C.: I was terribly distressed to hear of the second great loss sustained by the News and Observer, but was rejoiced to know that Mr. Bagley was no more injured than he was. The first account that I saw indicated that he was badly hurt, but yesterday I got a copy of the News and Observer and learned the facts. My heart goes out in sympathy to both him and Mr. Daniels, for I know that the loss means to both of you, the whole thing is almost unbelievable and to me difficult to realize. I admit the fine spirit displayed by the paper published immediately after the fire. There is sunshine back of every cloud, and it will take something more than a fire to shake the spirit and purpose of the News and Observer. Hoping that Mr. Bagley's wounded arm will soon be as strong as ever, and with every good wish to you.

E. McK. Goodwin, Supt. N. C. School for the Deaf, Morganton, N. C.: I wish I could be with you to present my personal feelings and sympathy in the destruction of the News and Observer building and its plant. The News and Observer is not yet destroyed. May it live long and useful career and mission for the uplift of North Carolina and its interests.

If there is anything I can do in my feeble way, command me, I shall be glad to join many others in aiding in any way I can that it may not be in the least crippled.

C. T. Weaver, Staunton, Va.: Sincerely sorry to hear of the destruction of the News and Observer building. However, I there and nothing but a new from its ashes and go on to accomplish even bigger and better things than it has in the past. As long as Mr. Daniels, Bagley, Britton and others of your splendid organization do not burn, the old "punch" will still be anything that the Hill Direct shall will be needed to make the paper greater than ever.

J. L. Hill, President Hill Directory Co., Richmond, Va.: I am certainly grieved to see that you have had with second misfortune from fire, and hope it is not as bad as the newspapers report it. If there is anything that the Hill Directory Co. can do to help you out in this trouble, command us and it will give us pleasure to serve you. Hope that your insurance will largely protect you against loss and that you will soon be back on your feet with the same game spirit shown in your last trouble.

T. T. Thorne, Rocky Mount: Just a line or two to say how much I regret the very great loss sustained by you and the News and Observer in the Saturday morning fire. There is no need for me to tell you after our long friendship how deeply I sympathize with you. If in any way I can serve you, please do not hesitate to let me know. As ever, sincerely yours.

Howard E. Routhaler, Pres. Salem Academy and College: I desire to express my profound sympathy in the great loss which has befallen you and to express the hope that out of this disaster your newspaper may emerge with new evidence of the affectionate loyalty of a vast number of readers. We have felt in this State that North Carolina was very widely known by reason of the widespread influence beyond the borders of the State of your publication. It is difficult to conceive of its absence from the well-ordered life of our commonwealth. To many of us it seems as much a part of North Carolina as the Yadkin river or Cape Hatteras. Permit me to add the pathetic expression of my father, Bishop Routhaler, who is much concerned in view of your great loss. With kindest regards.

Joe C. Drewry, The Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore: Letting that the Saturday morning fire, I have just heard of the burning of the News and Observer plant. My heart goes out in deepest sympathy to all of you in this great loss. I sincerely trust that you will be able to rebuild at once on a broader and more substantial basis.

Robt. H. Wright, President East Caro. Teachers Training School: You have our most sincere sympathy in this trying time.

I was afraid yesterday that I would not get the morning paper. I was very surprised to find it in my box after the mail came. When I saw the paper I said, "Well, the News and Observer force is determined to give the people of North Carolina a good paper regardless of misfortune." This shows you what I think. With kind regards and best wishes.

Walter H. Savory, Washington, D. C.: I want to take just a moment of your busy time to follow up my telegram, by saying, all kindness aside, that my heart goes out to you and Mr. Daniels in your misfortune, and to assure you that anything in the world I can personally do, or my company can do, to aid you in getting on your feet in better shape than ever, will be promptly and cheerfully done. Mr. Daniels has had more than his share of misfortune in the last few years, even though he has in another line been so successful, and I know he knows how to feel about it. With warmest regards.

James H. Caine, Editor The Citizen, Asheville, N. C.: Ourselves and yourself. Trust you are improving.

Louis E. Wilson, Librarian, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill: Please let me express my great regret at the loss which you sustained on Friday through the fire. I hope that the News and Observer will emerge from the disorganization necessarily incident to the fire stronger and more representative of the State's life than it has ever been before. I am writing the enclosed through which the Library places its subscription to send you immediately a check for the renewal for two copies for 1916.

W. T. Whitsett, Pres. of Whitsett Institute, Whitsett, N. C.: My deepest sympathy goes out to the entire force of the News and Observer it is indeed a case of being tried by fire. I have often spoken of the firm and unshakable stand of the paper for morality, for education, and for all that pertains to the uplift of the State and the South. You have suffered a great blow, but your place is too firmly fixed in public esteem for the loss to do more than cause redoubled efforts. Extend to Mr. Bagley my best wishes for an early recovery from his injury. With every good wish for every one connected with the paper, sincerely yours.

Moe Lacy, Norfolk, Va.: I noticed in yesterday's paper of the unfortunate fire, and sincerely trust that everything will come out all right.

Chas. L. Bethge, Syracuse, N. Y.: Kindly accept my sympathy on your unfortunate material loss, but friendship and fellowship will be with you in your bereavement. As you wish we can be of help to you. Constantly at your service.

J. S. Mann, Raleigh, N. C.: No one more sincerely regrets your misfortune and financial loss than I do. The friendship of a life time should assure you of this. I have been a subscriber to the News and Observer since I was a student at the University and that which injures it or its editor wounds me also. I make to help in any way I can, and I hope that the fire will soon fully recover from the blow and attain a still wider sphere of influence and usefulness.

Smith, Dixon Co., Baltimore: We note with regret advice.

Make Your Hair Curly and Wavy Over Night!

To curl the hair, without at the same time burning the life out of it, nothing equals plain liquid simerine. If a little be applied to the hair with a clean tooth brush before retiring the loveliest wavy effect imaginable will be in evidence in the morning. It will be found an excellent dressing for the hair.

This simple method is not to be compared with curling by means of a hot iron because instead of injuring the hair, it is really beneficial. A few ounces of the liquid, which may be procured at any drug store, will last for months. One can curl the hair in any style desired and the effect will be one of perfect naturalness. The best way is to divide the hair into strands and moisten each of them from root to tip. The hair will be beautifully glossy, yet without the least greatness of stickiness.—adv.

CALOMEL SICKENS! IT'S HORRIBLE! DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

I guarantee "Dodson's Liver Tone" will give you the best Liver and Bowel cleansing you ever had.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quick-acting and it siccates; calomel injures your liver.

If you are bilious; feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your fine, your liver will be working, your head aches or stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone instead of using sickening, salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerful; full of vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want, without being sick. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning. Children gladly use Dodson's Liver Tone because it is pleasant tasting and doesn't gripe or cramp or make them sick.

I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tone to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable, liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. But one bottle on my sound, reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about me.—adv.

of the disastrous fire which destroyed your plant, and we wish to express our sympathy in this trouble and offer our services in any way we may be of use to you in this emergency. We are very sorry that Mr. Bagley was injured and sincerely hope these injuries were not serious and that he will quickly recover. If we can be of any service whatever, we will be pleased indeed to hear from you and will respond with the utmost promptness.

J. J. Dick, Postmaster, Mebane: If I can serve you let us know.

J. H. Young, Norfolk, Va.: I am greatly shocked to hear of the destruction of the News and Observer plant and desire to express my sincere sympathy to you and Mr. Daniels. If there is anything we can do please command us. I trust that your personal injury is not serious.

Geo. A. Parker, Charlotte, N. C.: You will never know how my heart sank when I first learned of the disastrous fire which drifted your way Saturday. Such unrelenting misfortune, it would seem, is enough to bring discouragement to the strongest heart, but you can scarcely imagine my increased appreciation for you and Mr. Daniels when I saw the announcement that you, soon after being injured and treated, were back on the scene directing affairs, and that Mr. Daniels had arrived, and you and he had plans under way for the rebuilding of the most useful newspaper plant in the South.

I have no money, but I would like to do something to assist you, Mr. Daniels and the Old Reliable, and in your fertile brain if you can figure out something for me to do, be kind enough to command my services. Glad to hear you are not injured beyond repair, and here is wishing you a most speedy recovery from all of your injuries, both mental and physical, and with high personal regards for you always, I am, Your good friend, Bion H. Butler, Southern Pine, N. C.: I hope your injuries are not going to prove severe. I have sent the boys a story as usual, not knowing whether your schedule will want it or not, but it is not to be paid for, and I also have wiped off of my record the charge against the News and Observer from October 1, so that your account with me is square. This is not much, I am aware, but it shows in a trifling way, at least, that I regret your misfortune. Once is not so bad, but twice is hell.

Attilio C. Conti, Yonkers, N. Y.: I was sorry to learn through the papers of the fire which visited the plant of the News and Observer. I trust that the damage was not as great as dispatches stated, and furthermore, I was pleased to hear that the paper is being published as usual. I can only wish it rapid recuperation, and continued success.

Fire Threatens Building. (Special to the News and Observer) Built, Nov. 10.—Fire nearly destroyed the gin house of W. R. McNeill here yesterday. The blaze was extinguished by volunteers. The loss several hundred dollars, was covered by insurance.
