Buffalo Bill's 101 Ranch Show. (By The Press Agent.) The Buffalo Bill (Himself)—101 Ranch Show will give two performances in Raleigh, Monday, November 6, and already a great deal of preliminary interest has been aroused by the up-to-date and strenuous character of this season's exhibition. Two facts of especial interest to the public stand out in relief. The first is the fact that Col. Wm. F. Cody, famous wherever men read tales of romance, as "Buffalo Bill," is with the show in person and will be seen "in the saddle at every performance." The second is the new military spectacle, "Preparedness," presented, it is announced, in co-operation with the United States War Department, and enlisting the services of a large number of soldiers from the regular army, who have been given a furlough for the purpose.

Wallace. Wallace, Oct. 22.—The "tacky party" at the home of Mrs. J. S. Westbrook Thursday night, under the auspices of the Woman's Club, was largely attended, in spite of the inclement weather, and was a most enjoyable affair.

After the crowd had gathered, arranged in all styles and fashions, there was a grand promenade on the porch, which surrounded the house, in order that the judges might decide to whom the prize should go. Mrs. James A. Cavanaugh was the "lucky one," as it seemed her outfit was most appreciated.

This affair was arranged by the ways and means committee, consisting of Misses Anna Clement, Charlie Westbrook, Mary Lillie Hussey and Mrs. W. L. Byrd. Refreshments suitable to the occasion were served, and a nice sum realized.

One of the most enjoyable dances of the season was given by the young men of Wallace here in the tobacco warehouse.

Benny-Trafton. Belcross, Oct. 23.—The first marriage of autumn to be solemnized here was that of Miss Naa Trafton and Mr. Harry Hill Benny Wednesday, October 11, at 2 o'clock.

While awaiting the bridal party the guests were delighted with a fine musical program—Miss Katie Bray, of Shawboro, at the organ, and Miss Cora Drake, of Norfolk, sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me." The bridal party entered the church while Lohengrin was sung by a double quartet.

First of the bridal party to enter were Masters William Trafton, of Norfolk, and Joseph Pritchard, wearing white serge suits. Then the pastor, Rev. E. K. Henderson, proceeded to his position, just as the little boys opened the gates between the arches. The bridesmaids were Miss Estelle Wood, of Ferris, Va.; Miss Maud Bray, of Hertford; Miss Mary Stevens, of Camden; Miss Bessie Lasher, of Elizabeth City; Misses Ruth and Christine Middleton, of Goldsboro. All were gowned in tulle over white messaline, wearing gold cloth slippers and yellow tulle hats.

They carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums which were tied with tulle of the same shade. Dr. Robert Woodhouse, Jr., of Virginia Beach; Howard Gans, of Norfolk, Va.; Woodie Bonny and Henry Woodhouse, of Oceana, Va.; John Woodhouse and Joseph Bell, of London Bridge, Va.; and Harry Perdue, of Camden, were the groomsmen. They wore suits of navy blue. The maid of honor was Miss Bessie Pritchard, who followed the bridesmaids and groomsmen, wearing a gown of green satin and gold lace. Next came the matron of honor, Mrs. John C. Wood, of Kampsville, Va., wearing pink georgette and tulle. Both wore tulle hats and carried pink Killarney roses. Little Miss Susie Wood was ring-bearer and made a charming picture. Little Miss Margaret Wood, as flower girl, wore pink with white shadow lace. At last came the bride on the arm of her brother, Mr. Frank Trafton, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Allie Bonny, of Norfolk, Va. She wore white satin combined with tulle. To the end of the long court train extended the lovely tulle veil which was caught with sprays of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Bonny left for a northern wedding trip.

URIC ACID POISONING! The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles, or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called "Auric"—which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside. If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, headache, pains here or there, you can obtain "Auric" at any drug store and get relief from the pains and ills brought about by uric acid; or send Dr. Pierce 10c. for trial package "Auric"—many times more potent than lithia and eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you.—(Adv.)

CALOMEL SELDOM SOLD HERE NOW Nasty drug salivates, makes you sick and you lose a day's work. Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place. "Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back. Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake-up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.—(Adv.)
