TIMES SQUARE

Charles Abernethy, solicitor, was visitor to the lobbies yesterday. Mr. Abernethy admits that there is more than sumor in the report eminating in New Bern to the effect that he will opof | post George E. Hood of Goldsbore for Congress two years hence. Mr. Abernethy would like to have it known, however, that he has never told any one that he did not believe Mr. Hood would make the race next time. He says who ever credited him with such a statement was laboring under a delusion.

Song services were frequent in the yesterday while members loitered around awaiting ratificlerks cation of bills. In the sacred a leadership as compared with the Sergeant-at-Arms Moring, who teaches mators who are there for their first singing in the churches around his home not far from Raleigh, did the leading, with the more pious members chiming or his district and this fact was pretty in on the chorus. Popular airs were well known at the time of his nomina more in line with Alex Lassiter, Tom tion, for he never does things by halves Moore and the other clerks who sit just above the press table, and the way doing things, for he plunges in with they rolled out melody was very ac-all his might for anything that he at- ceptable to the young women who watched and listened from the galleries. Col. Fred Olds, as usual, had found a party of sight-seeing young women. He escorted these into the House just in time to get the benefit of the best melody. He and his charges seemed to en joy it.

> Yesterday was pay day for pages around the House. All of the little fellows were well-heeled last night and in the best of humor. The last week has been hard for them and there is a general feeling around the House that the boys deserved all they got. It is prob-able that they will be voted extra pay before the present session adjourns.

Because this is the day Bickett and Gardner are to be inducted into office as Governor and Lieutenant-Governor there will be very little doing in either side of the Legislature. Both houses meet at 11 o'clock probably to adjourn a few minutes later, Sol Gallert, the man of Rutherfordton who ran Zeb Weaver a tight race for nomination in the congressional primary last year, arrived yesterday and was a visitor to the capitol. He is here to attend the inauguration.

Former Lieut. Governor W. C. New lands, of Caldwell county, was one of the distinguished visitors in the Senate chamber yesterday and received a cor dial greeting from his many friends. He was extended the privileges of the floor. Another visitor was Mr. C. B. Armstrong, of Gastonia, one of the largest cotton manufacturers of the State. Prof. F. P. Hobgood, of Oxford also pecped in.

One of the best natured and largest ien in the Senate is Senator Gregg, of Randolph county. He is the first Re-publican Senator that has come from that county for the past 16 years. His opponent in the election was Mr. W. C. Hammond, of Asheboro. Senator Gregg once lived in Raleigh. This was from 1900 to 1904. During these years he pulled the bellcord on a Scaboard Air Line Railway, his passenger run being from Raleig's to "inmlet and Monrie He is now located at Liberty and is pulling teeth, being a dentist. He is very fond of Raleigh. Since he resided here he has travelled extensively through the western states. "In my travels," he said, "I have not seen a city that has made more progress in so short a time. Why the town den't lost like the same place." The Senator's father is a Democrat and was one of the candidates defeated in the last election.

The reading clerk of the Senate, Mr. C. C. Broughton, of Troy, has been put to a severe test during the past few days in the rush of emergency bills. Something like 550 bills have passed three readings. Mr. Broughton has come out of the battle unscathed.

Prof. E. McK. Goodwin, superintendent of the School for the Deaf and Dumb at Morganton, dropped in on the gislators yesterday.

Mrs. Mary J. Moore. Mrs. Mary Jane Moore died yester home in Barton's Creek township, Wake county. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. E. T. Bledsoe, of Wake coun ty, and also leaves a sister, Mrs. M. J. Palmer, of Durham. The funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock this

FEARS DANGEROUS

To the Editor: Judging from the way office-seekers have gone after pie I fear raise in salaries would cause a rush to cause football stars to take notice. Is it not curious that a man will run until his ankles catch on fire, so to speak, for a salary that will let him

In campaign season does it appear they are after a job with too little pay and a sideline has to be added? In the matter of high cost of living the rich and poor have to pay about the same for food and if the man getting from $5 to $10 per day can scarcely live where will the hard laborer, getting from $6 to $9 per week, appear?
Officeholders that I have known re ceived twice as much while in office as they did before and after.

MR. BURNETT PROTESTS

Pender Man Says Majority Demand Repeal of Stock Law.
To the Editor: Is it possible that this bulldozing stock law delegation can them to ignore the wishes of our representatives from Pender county, who are representing at least 75 per cent of the qualified voters of Pender county? If this is true it is undemocratic, and peal the stock law in our county.

seven I years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years passed and the rupture has never returned, sithough I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Fullen, Carpenter, 256-C Marcellus Avenue, Manascquan, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.—Adv. good. Finally I got hold of something that

The Woman's Club is composed of thrifty, sanitary housewives who are leaving no stone unturned to make Wilson one of the healthiest towns in the State.

FORMER RALEIGH MINISTER DOING GOOD WORK IN WILSON

(Special to The News and Observer) Wilson, Jan. 10 .- Rev. W. C. Richardon, formerly of Raleigh is known here as "the working parson" and as "a tree is known by its fruit," Mr. Richardson's work, since he has been pastor of the Second Baptist church, located at Five Points, speaks for itself. In seven months after he took charge of the church fifty-four new members were added to the fold. Also, mainly through his untiring efforts a new church house is being erected in East Wilson to be known as the Pender Street Baptist. He says: "I hope to see this new house of worship dedicated about March first of this year."
