THE MOTHER-HEART.

I never touch the wonder of her hair—
Her golden alambra, like a sunlit mist
That curls of other children are not there—
Wee heads, unkempt, unknissed.

I never feel her small, confiding hand
Slipped softly, like a flower, within my own.
But other little ones beside her stand,
Unloved, untaught, unknown!

I never bend above her rosy sleep,
Or kneel in gratitude beside her bed,
But other babes in outer darkness weep,
Unwatched, uncomfited.

O little daughters whom no mother tends!
O wee lost lambs that stray in stony ways.
How shall we find you?—and how make amends.

For our child's happy days!

BEAUTY DOCTOR TELLS SECRET

Detroit Beauty Doctor Gives Simple Recipe to Darken Gray Hair and Make It Soft and Glossy.

Miss Alice Whitney, a well-known beauty doctor of Detroit, Mich., recently gave out the following statement: "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1-4 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.—Adv.

Mother-Made, Quick Acting Cough Syrup

Should be Kept Handy in Every Home—Easily Prepared and Costs Little.

Mother, you'll never know what you are missing until you make up this inexpensive, quick-acting cough syrup and try it. Children love its pleasant taste and nothing else will loosen a cough or chest cold and heal the inflamed or swollen throat membranes with such ease and promptness. It's equally as good for grown-ups as for children.

This splendid cough syrup is made by pouring 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), into a pint bottle and filling the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—a family supply—better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.50—a clear saving of $2.

The moment it touches the inflamed, cold-congested membranes that line the throat and air passages, the healing begins, the phlegm loosens, soreness leaves, cough spasms lessen and soon disappear altogether, thus ending a cough quicker than you ever thought possible. Hoarseness and ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Excellent for bronchitis, whooping cough, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma of winter coughs.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with gualacol and is famous the world over for its quick healing effect on the membranes.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction—money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

SEARCH IN VAIN FOR HARRY THAW

but against whom there was no indictment. Although the arrest of Brower was at first a disappointment, the District Attorney's men say they found him valuable in developing their case. A number of documents and letters having an important bearing on Thaw's relations with young Gump, were found in Brower's possession and some of this evidence was presented today before the grand jury. It was expected that another indictment might result.

Brower's movements were traced and it was found that subsequent to the alleged assault on Gump, he had gone to a New York hotel. A suitcase left there by Brower, having the letter "T" on it, was seized by the District Attorney.

Meanwhile, the authorities here say O'Byrnes has disappeared. They have no idea where he is and no better description of him than that given by the Gump boy to guide them in the search.

Frank P. Walsh, counsel for Gump, was in communication throughout the day with Assistant District Attorney Black, who is presenting the case to the grand jury. On advice from Pittsburgh that the police there would not arrest Thaw unless they had a copy of the indictments against him, Mr. Black tonight sent a copy to them.

Detectives said that among Brower's papers they found two letters written by Thaw. One was addressed to J. R. Warner of Pittsburgh.

Its contents were not made public. The other was addressed to John Hartley of Annapolis, and asked if he could find a position for a boy friend.

Among other things found, the detectives said, was a card on which was written these phrases:
"Look up his parents."
"He is supposed to use dope."
"Goody boy."
"He lives with his parents."

In front of each phrase was written a number of figures.

Released, Then Hunted on New Charge. (By The Associated Press.) Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 10.—After his release on $1,200 bail today, the local authorities received a telegram from Assistant District Attorney Black, of New York, requesting them to hold Oliver F. Brower on the charge of "conspiracy to kidnap" in connection with the indictment against Harry K. Thaw as the result of allegations made by Fred Gump, Jr., of Kansas City. Brower, who is 38 years old and lives in Pittsburgh, was arrested here last night in mistake for Geo. F. O'Byrnes, charged with aiding and abetting in the alleged kidnapping of Gump.

Brower left the city hall today as soon as he secured his liberty and has not been seen since. His attorney said he expected to see him again prior to his hearing on Friday. Brower had told them Thaw feared trouble from Gump and had entrusted with him letters and other papers.

A Prominent North Carolinian's Tribute to the NEW EDISON

Hon. Thomas A. Edison, Orange, N. J.
Dear Sir:—
I am the possessor of the best creations of God and man. A good wife, and a New Edison, "Music's Re-Creation." Nothing can compare with or fill the place of either in a home.
My Wife—"Why man she is mine own
And I as rich in having such a jewel
As twenty seas, if all their sand were pearl
The waters nectar, and their rocks pure gold."
My New Edison, "Music's Re-Creation." An inspiration for the "Grown Ups" education and happiness for the children, and pleasure for my friends and neighbors. It brings into my home, Miss Miller, Miss Case, Miss Rappold, Miss Spencer, Mr. Middleton, Mr. Chalmers, Mr. Van Brunt and other celebrated artists, who charm us with their sweet songs, also Mr. Spaulding, with his violin, whose sweet strains make the blood course freer through one's veins. Miss Miller starts me off for my day's work, by her masterful rendition of that beautiful "Song Prayer," "Just for Today," and Miss Spencer greets me at twilight with "Love's Old Sweet Song."
All lovers of music should own a New Edison, Music's Re-Creation, for:
"Music religious heart inspires
It wakes the soul and lifts it high
And wings it with sublime desire
And fits it to bespeak the Deity."
My New Edison is priceless.
Very truly,
(Signed) STERLING M. GARY.

DUPLIN FREE RANGERS LOSE MANDAMUS FIGHT
(Special to The News and Observer.)
Waraw, Jan. 10.—The new mandamus proceedings brought by the "Freerangers" of Duplin against the Board of Commissioners of the county were dismissed by Judge Connor at the hearing held in Kenansville today upon the ground that the summons did not give ten day's notice as required by law. This is the second mandamus that has been dismissed for failure to comply with the requirement of the mandamus statute and both times at the cost of the free rangers.

Let Us Settle the Furniture Question For You

PUT your trust in men who know. You cannot become an expert on furniture, but you can deal with a house that sells on honor, as we do, and feel that what you buy is the kind you want. Also, that the price is as low as shrewd buying and careful business judgment can devise.

You should not judge furniture by the price. If price were the criterion by which furniture should be judged, then quality would be a matter of figures. The furniture we sell is the kind in which the quality is put in before the price goes on.

We will be glad to help you settle the furniture question any day. Come in.
