FAYETTEVILLE.

Fayetteville, Feb. 24.—A George Washington party was given by Miss Frances Green Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Green, on Haymount, being one of the prettiest and most elaborate affairs of the kind of several seasons. Cherries, hats and red carnations were the attractive decorations of the home, the lower floor of which was thrown into one apartment. Misses Margaret Huske, Elizabeth Pearce, Lucy Cooper and Addie Huske assisted the young hostess in receiving the guests, fifty in number. Dancing and rock were the amusements of the evening. Cream and cake, with candied cherries for decorations, were served.

The Fayetteville Cottillon Club, the city's newest dance club, gave a much enjoyed dance in the Pemberton building Friday evening. Those dancing were Miss Mamie Holt and Haskell Bowen, Miss Marie Pemberton and George Howard, Jr. of Tarboro, Miss Mary Campbell, of Hope Mills and Clifton Corley, Miss Nina Withers Nelson, of Lynchburg, Va., and Mr. Sumner, Miss Emma Pemberton and Mr. Corner; stags: John Hubbard, Sol W. Cooper, Jr.; Dr. Everett Smith, of Raleigh; Wade Bennett, Earl Stewart; and Mr. Saunders, of Richmond, Va. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Godwin and Mrs. W. N. Williams.

The LaFayette Club rooms were again the scene of spirited bridge Friday evening, when a party of a dozen, composed of club members and their wives and friends, gathered for the ever popular game. The prize for the evening's high score went to Mrs. John M. DeVane. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Stebbins, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. DeVane, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Tolar, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Vardaman, Miss Maude Hailig, Fred Hais, and John B. Anderson. Refreshments were served following the game.

The influence of the moving picture show, for good and bad, was discussed by the members of the Woman's Study Club when it met with Miss Minerva Utley as hostess last week, at the home of Miss Utley's sister, Mrs. A. H. Slocomb, Jr., on Haymount. The good in the influence which the motion picture exerts on present day life was treated by Mrs. Sol W. Cooper, while the other side of the picture was shown by Mrs. Archer Boogher. Turkey salad, beaten biscuits, coffee, and mint, were served in the dining room at the conclusion of the literary program. Mrs. W. T. Brock was Miss Utley's guest.
