NORTH WILKESBORO.

North Wilkesboro, Feb. 24.—The Friday Afternoon Book Club had a very enjoyable meeting with Mrs. Genio Cardwell February 22. The guests were directed to the cloak room by Misses Corinne Clements, Lucile and Annie Belle Cardwell. The house was tastefully decorated in honor of George Washington's birthday, the most interesting feature of which was a miniature cherry tree, under which stood a small figure of Washington with his little hatchet. The spicy news items by the members at roll call added much to the interest of the business session, after which the meeting was turned over to the hostess, who appointed captains to choose their soldiers and prepare for war. The first training was practice in bombardment, and the ammunition was small balls of red, white and blue paper. This battle afforded much amusement, since none of the soldiers had to be taken to the hospital. There were other amusements in keeping with the occasion. Refreshments, consisting of a dainty salad course with stuffed dates and coffee, were served by Mrs. Cardwell, assisted by Mrs. R. M. Houck, Misses Louise Horton and Ethel Clements. Several invited guests outside the regular club members were present. The Young People's Missionary Society met on the evening of the 19th at the home of Miss Ruth Colvard. The president, Miss Bessie Jennings, called the meeting to order and after devotional exercises a social hour was greatly enjoyed, during which refreshments were served. Much regret was felt that this would be the last meeting with their faithful leader, Mrs. Willis Shell, who goes to her new home in Virginia. Mrs. Emmet Willis has agreed to take charge of this society and their next meeting will be at her home. One of the most thoroughly enjoyed of the events given in honor of Miss Lora Finley, the season's popular bride, was a linen shower given by Mrs. Arthur A. Finley at her hospitable home, "Riverview."

GREENSBORO.

Greensboro, Feb. 24.—Mrs. Robert Traynham was hostess at a bridge party given at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. Pruden on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Chas. N. Norman entertained at cards Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5:30 o'clock at her home on Rankin street in honor of Mrs. A. L. Levy and Mrs. E. J. Brockman, house guests of Mrs. T. L. McLean. The Magazine Circle met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Andrew Joyner at her home at 431 West Gaston street. The Reviewers' Club held an interesting meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. W. Battle as hostess at her home at 303 Walman street. A delightful dance was given Friday evening in the rooms of the Merchants and Manufacturers Club, and dancing continued from 9:30 until 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. Charles B. Beaves entertained Friday afternoon at the last of a series of bridge parties which she gave in honor of Mrs. W. P. Beaves and Miss Lola Holcomb, of Valdosta, Ga. The Pollyanna Club was charmingly entertained by Miss Florine Jennings Friday afternoon at her home at 415 South Eugene street. The chief social event of the week and one of the most brilliant affairs of the season was the "at home" given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Bernard M. Cone, complimentary to Mrs. R. R. King, Jr., who was before marriage Miss Ruth Vanatory, of this city. The Gamma Tau Club met Saturday afternoon with Miss Mabel Clary at her home on Summit avenue. Mrs. T. N. Winslow and sons left Wednesday for East Orange, N. J., where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Winslow, who has held a position in the internal revenue service for some years, has recently been promoted, and his headquarters will be in New York City. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hagan invited a few of their friends to their home Saturday evening to meet Rev. and Mrs. Chas. F. Myers, Rev. Frank Wright, who is conducting a series of evangelistic services at the First Presbyterian church and Rev. Wm. Young, Mr. Wright's singer and chorus director. The Greensboro Cotillion Club gave a masquerade ball for the celebration of George Washington's birthday on the evening of the 22d. This event was held in Neese Hall, and prizes were given for the most effective costumes. Mrs. Arthur G. Ellington delightfully entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. Homer Fisher, who left this week for Asheville to spend some time. The Daughters of the American Revolution met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. M. Millikan. A colonial party was given by the Business Girl's Club of the Y. W. C. A. Thursday evening. The local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy met with Mrs. L. J. Brandt Tuesday afternoon. The last meeting of the Tuesday Euchre Club until after Lent was held with Mrs. May Wilson this week. Mrs. W. C. Boren, Jr., entertained Tuesday afternoon at bridge for Mrs. W. C. Adams, of Wilson, who is the house guest of Mrs. C. C. Ferrell.

WAKE FOREST.

Wake Forest, Feb. 24.—A revival series of meetings is in progress at the Wake Forest Church. Dr. J. T. Watts, of Richmond, is conducting these meetings. He is preaching earnest, thoughtful sermons. Mr. Edwin Josey, of Scotland Neck, was a visitor on the "Hill" for a short time during the past week. Mrs. E. O. Young and little son of Kittrell are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Saint Sing. Miss Rosa Holding is visiting friends in Statesville. Mr. and Mrs. John Savage, of Goldsboro, visited their mother, Mrs. A. J. Davis, during anniversary. Miss Margaret Graves is at home after spending some time in training at Rex Hospital in Raleigh. Mr. W. M. Dickson and Mrs. W. L. Harris have gone to Baltimore and New York for their spring buying. Mrs. L. B. Powers and little daughters, Harriet Bruce and Lizzie Adams have gone to Greensboro to visit Mrs. Powers parents, Judge and Mrs. Adams. Miss Annie May Ashcraft, of Meredith College, was the guest of Mrs. S. W. Brewer for anniversary. Among other visitors for the week-end were Miss May Stevenson, of Raleigh, with Miss Bessie Dunn, Misses Julia and Rosa Green, of Columbia, S. C., Misses Burke and Nicholson, of Meredith, and Miss Windburn, of Smithfield, with Mrs. J. R. Crozier; Miss Ruth Sanderford, of Creedmore with Mrs. W. M. Dickson, Misses Mary Norwood, Josephine Pool and Frances Johnson with Miss Minnie Mills, Misses Elsie Brantley, Gertrude Hunt, Eugenia Thomas and Billie May Sprinkle with Miss Virginia Gorrell, Miss Thelma Barber of Meredith, Miss Lela Dickson, Miss Hilda Brewer, of Meredith with Mrs. J. B. Powers, Jr., and Miss Annie Parker, of Meredith, with Miss Nell Allen. Mrs. C. E. Brewer, of Meredith, was the welcome guest of Mrs. J. M. Brewer during the anniversary week end.

ASHEVILLE.

Asheville, Feb. 24.—The Edward Runcombe Chapter, D. A. R. held a Washington's birthday meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harmon A. Miller on Montford avenue. The Time and Tide Club held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Ogle. Miss Sarah Hughes entertained a number of friends yesterday afternoon at her home in Grove Park, complimentary to her guest, Miss Margaret Conway, of Danville, Va. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hall, of Philadelphia, who are spending the spring season here, entertained with a luncheon party at the Baudanna tea room Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Weaver entertained with an auction bridge party Tuesday afternoon at her home on Merrimon avenue. The Kene party at the Asheville Country Club Tuesday night was one of the most popular diversions of the week. Mrs. L. L. Jenkins gave one of the most elaborate luncheons of the season Tuesday at her home, "Brookwood Bungalow" in Edgemont Park, in honor of Mrs. Bernard Smith, a recent bride. Miss Katherine Grant entertained Tuesday afternoon with four tables of bridge at her home on Montford avenue. One of the prettiest social events of the spring season was the dance given Monday night at the Asheville Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. W. Granville Taylor, in honor of Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Robert Henry, of Greenville, S. C. Miss Florence Griffith Miller entertained Monday at her home on Montford avenue with a bridge party complimentary to Mrs. W. H. Bredeens, of Glen Ridge, N. J., who is the guest of Mr. C. Brewster Chapman, at his home on Victoria road. CONCORD. Concord, Feb. 24.—Mrs. J. Arcey Cannon entertained on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at a luncheon, her invited guests being those in the city for the McRae-Gibson wedding. One of the most attractive and enjoyable of the numerous pre-social events in honor of Miss Ellen Gibson, was a reception given on Monday evening by Mrs. George Dusenbury at her home on West Depot street. Mrs. W. H. Gibson entertained at a 5 o'clock tea on Tuesday afternoon, the

CHANDLER SIX $1395

THE Chandler offers intrinsic value greater than other cars for which you are asked to pay much more. Greater value in materials, design, equipment, and, above all else, in the dependable and enduring service of its marvelous motor.

facture and not subjected to radical changes or experimental devices? None.

You may say it is easy to make such a claim for the Chandler. It is. And IT IS EASY TO PROVE SUCH A CLAIM FOR THE CHANDLER.

What other make of car, at anything like the Chandler price, offers you such a proven mechanism as the whole Chandler chassis? None.

Year-old Chandlers command as high or higher price in the used car market than year-old cars of other makes selling, when new, for two or three hundred dollars more.

What other make of car, at anything like the Chandler price, offers you all those features characteristic of the highest priced, high-grade cars—Bosch high tension magneto; solid cast aluminum motor base, extending from frame to frame; big silent chains instead of noisy gears for driving the motor shafts; full floating and silent spiral bevel gear rear axle and light running annular ball bearings in transmission, differential and rear wheels? None.

Could any further evidence be asked, to prove Chandler leadership in value? It wouldn't seem so, but let's make thorough inquiry.

What other make of car at anything like the Chandler price offers you more beautiful and comfortable bodies than the Chandler? None.

What other make of car, at anything like the Chandler price, offers you a motor which has been developed, refined and perfected throughout four years of conscientious manu-

Chandler policy has always kept the Chandler price low. Relatively it is lower today, when so many prices have been inflated, than ever before.

guests of the McRae-Gibson wedding party. Capt. William Probst Monday at his home on East Depot street celebrated his 56th birthday, with a family dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Trice of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Probst and children, of this city. Mr. W. H. Gibson was host on Friday evening to a number of his friends at a star party. Impressive and beautiful was the wedding of Miss Ellen Gibson and Mr. Cameron MacRae, which was solemnized on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the All Saints Episcopal Church. Preceding the ceremony Mr. David Bonds, organist of the church, played several selections, immediately preceding the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. George Elliot, of Linden, a sister of the groom, sang "The Voice That Breathed Over Eden." The conclusion of his song signaled the entrance of the bridal party, and they entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. Rev. Joseph B. Cheahira and Rev. Mr. Propper officiating ministers entered first, and following them came the ushers, Messrs. L. W. Brasher, of New York; B. F. Gibson, brother of the bride; Dever Little, of Great Falls, N. Y.; Edgar N. Snow, of Greensboro; Donald McRae, of Thomasville, and Maury Richmond of this city. Then entered the bride's only attendant, her sister, Miss Elizabeth Gibson, maid of honor. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. W. H. Gibson, who gave her away. She wore an exquisite gown of white satin and tulle and carried a shower bouquet of roses and valley lilies. From the left vestry came the groom and his best man Mr. Lawrence McRae, and they were joined at the altar by the bride. The ring ceremony of the Episcopal Church was used. Following the ceremony a reception was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. MacRae by the bride's mother, Mrs. J. C. Gibson, at her home on North Union street. The reception was very informal, and about 150 guests called during the evening. Immediately following the reception Mr. and Mrs. MacRae left for a honeymoon trip to Cuba and on their return they will make their home here, having rented the R. E. Cline home on South Union street.
