

RALEIGH BOY IN MACHINE GUN RAID

Marshall Teachey Wins Praise From Major For Bravery While Under Fire

LIEUT. WILLIAMS IN CHARGE OF PATROL WORK

Young Teachey Is Most Awest About His Fighting In Letter To His Mother

Marshall Teachey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Teachey, of this city, has won praise for bravery under fire while on the front and has received a reward of $20 and a pass to Paris for his splendid work.

On August 6 when a number of letters were written by Raleigh boys to relatives in this city, Company B had just returned to the rear from the front line after spending two weeks in the trenches.

"I have certainly got myself in an unpleasant position," writes young Teachey, "every one seems to think I am a hero or something."

"Going in the trenches the first thing you see is a few buildings torn down by the shells. On farther, you hear the big guns going off, and finally you get between the enemy and our artillerists.

"There was once some pretty towns here but Jerry has shelled the big buildings until they crumbled down. It is sure a pity to see all this destruction while people are living in huts, husbands fighting, and hundreds of ragged children wearing wooden shoes.

"They made a raid on a machine gun nest in broad open daylight and killed about 12 Germans. Lieut. Williams, Marshall Teachey and Frank Ingram did it. Poor Ingram got killed. He was a fine boy and brave as a lion. They have offered a reward of one hundred francs ($20 in our coin) and a furlough to Paris. I am in for that reward for all you have to do is to capture a German and bring him back to our lines.

"The Americans take readily to the new guns of the French and handle them with ease after training. There is such a difference in the guns that training different from that to which they are accustomed is necessary before the actual fighting is ready to commence.

"The men of France are all in the army, except those too old, too young, or physically unfit. Occasionally a soldier is seen at home on furlough, but that is rare. The women, children and old men keep the work going on at home.

TO MAKE PRICES UNIFORM IN STATE

Food Administration Will Establish New Office To Direct This Work

WILL ANALYZE ALL FOOD PRICE REPORTS

Margin of Profits Will Be Established On Many Standard Products

To regulate food prices in North Carolina to a greater uniformity a new department of the State Food Administration will be created to scan the reports of the Fair Price Committee established in the larger cities.

A great variety of food prices was found in North Carolina by the Food Administration recently when it attempted to publish a fair price report for the entire State. In cities where almost identical conditions prevailed, there were startling dissimilarities in price of standard products.

The program also contemplates the fixing of a reasonable margin of profit for retailers on certain standard products which will be five cents per pound. When reports of committees show diversity of prices for the same products in different localities in which conditions are similar, the Food Administration will investigate, and the law enforcement division will do the rest.

PRIVATE BUNN WRITES LETTER FROM FRANCE

Another Member of Company B Tells of Interesting Things At the Front

Private Grady P. Bunn, of Company B, has written an interesting letter from "Somewhere in France" to Mr. C. G. Jones, a friend living in this city. His letter was written on August 4 and since that date it is presumed that Company B has taken part in the fighting in Flanders.

"Dearest Pal:—Your letter came some time ago but I did not have a chance to write you as soon as I wanted to. I have just returned from the front and you bet, I am so glad to be back.

"Boy, I saw things there that I never saw before and they did not look good at all, and the sound of shells do not sound good at all. I must say that I am real lucky to be back all safe and sound. You ought to have seen me falling in shell holes.

"Claude, I would be real glad to see you and have a long talk about the good times we have had together. I am feeling real good and have been ever since I have been over here. I think of the good times we have had together and I am hoping to soon be back in Dear, Old Raleigh when it is all over. But, boy, listen to this: (War is over—now, I know as I have been at the front, and the way I had to run and dodge bullets and shells; but I will tell you all about it when I come back home.

"Give all my friends my best regards and tell them Old Happy thinks of them often. Claude, I want you to write me as soon as you get this and tell me all the news you can think of, as we are always glad to hear from home.

"Here's hoping to see you some time in the bright days to come. Give all the boys my regards. I remain as ever, Your old Pal—Happy."

RALEIGH BOY IS NOW SHOOTING HUNS FROM AIR

The above is a picture of John Lumsden, a Raleigh boy now doing observation work in the Army Aviation Corps, and Captain Elliot P. Hinds. The picture was taken just before the two aviators made their last trip together over the lines on June 5 of this year.

After the last trip Mr. Lumsden was detailed for special work in another part of France and it was while he was engaged in this work that Captain Hinds, his regular pilot, lost his life in an accident. The aviator who took Mr. Lumsden's place during the Raleigh man's absence also was killed.

Mr. Lumsden is a member of the 12th Aero Squadron and enlisted from Birmingham. He is a son of Mrs. Charles F. Lumsden who has three sons in the Army and a fourth who has applied for appointment to the Officers' Training Corps.

ABERNETHY CHARGE DENOUNCED AS LIE

Statement That C. V. Webb Voted Republicans Traced To Source And Disclaimed

To the Editor: Charles L. Abernethy is reported in today's issue of your paper to have stated, "that at Morehead City, Charlie Webb voted between 40 and 50 Republican for Dorth."

The affidavits published by him which were used in his suit made by Chas. W. Styron and G. D. Canfield, charging me with stuffing the ballot box in the primary were based on what each of them stated that they heard R. C. Fodrie and Cleveland L. Willis say. Immediately on seeing these affidavits Mess. Fodrie and Willis gave me the following affidavits:

NORTH CAROLINA—CARTER COUNTY.

B. C. Fodrie being duly sworn deposes and swears that he has not made any such statement relative to Chas. V. Webb, of Morehead City, N. C., as reported in affidavit of Chas. W. Styron; that when he voted in the primary on June 1, 1918, the said Chas. V. Webb was filling his position as judge of election several feet away from the ballot box.

R. C. FODRIE. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 10th day of August, 1918. (Seal.) DUFFY WADE, Notary Public. My commission expires Jan. 29, 1920.

NORTH CAROLINA—Carter County.

Cleveland L. Willis being sworn deposes and says: That he spent most of the day of June 1, 1918, in the poll booth at Morehead City precinct; that he is the list taker of Morehead City Township; that he did not see Chas. V. Webb do anything irregular or fraudulent in connection with the depositing of ballots; that on one occasion while Mr. J. W. Willis, Jr., registrar, was at dinner he saw Mr. Webb use his lead pencil in pushing the ballot down in the very small hole provided for depositing same.

C. L. WILLIS. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 10th day of August, 1918. (Seal.) DUFFY WADE, Notary Public. My commission expires Jan. 29, 1920.

Mr. Abernethy has no evidence whatever to justify him in charging me with voting Republicans and in doing so he wilfully and deliberately lied. The above affidavits, together with a number of others now in the hands of Mr. Dorth prove conclusively that his charges of irregularities at Morehead City have no foundation in fact, and if his case in the other counties is based on similar evidence, he is unworthy of the respect of any loyal Democrat.

Very truly, CHAS. V. WEBB. Morehead City, N. C.

PLAN RELEASE OF LINE OFFICERS OF NAVY

Would Furnish Many More Men To Combat Submarine

The naval recruiting office of the city is very much interested in the following article that appeared in the last issue of the Army and Navy Register: "Our shipping is being destroyed by German submarines very near our Atlantic Coast. This could be materially lessened, if not altogether done away with, if we had enough young line officers of the navy to man the vidette boats (small scout vessels)."

RALEIGH OFFICERS WILL INSTRUCT

Recalled From France To Instruct Rookies At Camp Meade

CAPT. WILLIAM JOYNER LIEUT. DRAKE HARDEN

Were In 113th Field Artillery And Have Spent Three Months In France

Captain William Joyner and Lieutenant Drake Harden, 113th Field Artillery, have arrived in Raleigh from France and will be stationed at Camp Meade for the present, for service as instructors. It is safe to say that neither of the officers cherished the idea of instructing rookies in America when their late comrades are fighting the Huns in France. But they are good soldiers and are looking forward to the return, possibly in time to take part in the spring offensive.

"I left the 113th in fine shape," said Captain Joyner yesterday afternoon. "The regiment had not been under fire when I left but it is expected shortly to see active service."

The 113th regiment was moving closer to the front when Captain Joyner received his orders to return to this country. The plan of training contemplated a good deal of work behind the lines, then a spurt on a quiet sector before being thrown into the thick of it. According to Captain Joyner, even that quiet sector work is only relatively quiet.

POLICE TAKE STEPS TO CLEAN UP RALEIGH

Most of Women Who Have Judgments Pending Against They Will Leave City

All the women of the 1st Raleigh section who have judgments against them in city court, with the exception of Louise Price have signified their intention of leaving Raleigh in compliance with the ultimatum of Judge Harris.

Although the police brought a number of East Raleigh women into court several weeks ago, Chief Barbour has only begun his campaign to clean up Raleigh. The selection of the city as the location of the tank camp and the expected arrival of a large number of soldiers in the city soon necessitates a thorough combing out of the undesirable haunts.

The city authorities will ask the cooperation of Sheriff Sears' deputies in breaking up any desirable places in the country. In this connection, Judge Harris stated that the police have reason to believe that a number of immoral women are living at a place called the "Chicken Farm," about two miles north of Raleigh. This place was raided about a year ago by county authorities and women found there were warned to "break up" house. Since then some of them have returned to the place, it is said.

In continuing their clean-up campaign now, the police will endeavor to rid Raleigh of all places of immorality before the arrival of tank troops.

Cadillac Co. Brings Suit. The Cadillac Garage Co. yesterday brought suit against W. E. Smith for failing to pay for repairs made to his car. It seemed that Smith carried the car out of the garage without paying for the work, and has not paid for the work yet. The garage claims that he got the car out under false pretense. The bill was for $55.17. Smith claimed that the work done on the car was worthless, and that the car was in no better condition after work was done than before. Justice of the Peace Owens after hearing the evidence stated that he will announce his decision today.
