

STATE COLLEGE GETS FIRST GAME

Tech Tosses Victorious Over Durham "Y" Quint By 24-22 Score

State College barely nosed out a victory over Durham Y. M. C. A. last night in the opening basketball game of the season for the Techs.

Emerging with a lead of seven points at the end of the first period, the Techs were looked upon as easy winners, but the visitors gradually crept up on the leaders until they came to near a tie.

The showing of the West Raleigh team was very creditable when it is taken into consideration that two veterans, Captain Cline and Forward Ripple did not start.

The line-up was as follows: State College. Pos. Durham "Y".

Temple. L. F. Clay. Hollowell. C. Stephens.

Pickett. R. C. Johnson. Homewood. J. G. Perry.

Summary: Substitutions: Groom for Pickett, Cline for Groom.

Scoring: Field Goals, Temple 1, Hollowell 2, Groom 1, Cline 3, Gurry 2, Clay 1, Stephens 2, Johnson 1, Perry 3.

Four Goals: Hollowell, 2 out of 6 chances; Gurry, one out of one chance; Cline, one out of one chance; Johnson, 8 out of 14 chances.

gale. Here comes along P. A. Brown, a citizen of Roxboro, Person county, and complains to Senator Simmons that perfectly good lumber is rotting at the camp.

His tale of woe has inspired Brigadier General R. C. Marshall, Jr., Chief of the Construction Division of the War Department, to write in this vein:

"In reply I have the honor to advise you that this camp, as you know, is one of those that has been ordered abandoned and on which no further construction work has been done since the signing of the armistice.

At that time, however, practically all of the materials had been ordered and most of them were on cars en route between the shippers and the camp. As this material arrived it was necessary to unload it rapidly in order to release the much-needed railway equipment and all the labor available at this place was immediately utilized in unloading the cars and in storing the more or less perishable materials, such as plumbing supplies, mill work, etc.

"Just as soon as this labor could be released from the unloading of the cars and the storing of the perishables it was diverted to the piling and covering of the lumber. This work is not going forward rapidly and is contemplated that within a few days all of the lumber will be properly protected from weather."

Goldsboro's Offer Turned Down.

Lacking in accommodation for demobilization purposes and considered impractical to establish a camp for such purpose, General P. C. March has declined the invitation of the Goldsboro Chamber of Commerce for the mustering out of the 119th infantry at the capital of Wayne county. The War Department writes an explanatory letter to Senator Simmons:

"A regiment of infantry as at present organized, contains about 100 officers and about 2,700 enlisted men, and in order to demobilize a regiment of this size a considerable force is necessary as well as accommodations to take care of the men during the process of demobilization.

"There are no accommodations at Goldsboro to take care of this regiment during the process of demobilization and it is considered impracticable to establish a new camp merely for this purpose, as it would be necessary to shelter the men in tents, which would not be advisable at this time of the year.

"It is the policy of the War Department to send troops for demobilization to the camp or cantonment nearest the State from which the majority of the men came.

"Due to conditions existing in France many changes have occurred in the personnel of all units and it is probable that such changes have occurred in the 119th infantry. If it is found, upon receipt of advice from France, that the 119th infantry is still composed of a majority of men from North Carolina it is probable that this regiment will be sent to one of the existing cantonments near North Carolina for demobilization."

Insurance Chapter.

The rates of government insurance as applied to soldiers and sailors will be from twenty-five to thirty per cent cheaper than those of private life insurance companies, according to an announcement of Winslow Russell, assistant director of the War Risk Bureau.

The policies will likewise carry a liberal total disability clause. The information is disclosed in the following letter to Senator Simmons:

"The law provides that these converted policies shall be carried by the United States government and conversion plans are about ready for announcement.

The government will carry these insurance. The forms that have been decided upon are the ordinary life, twenty and thirty payment life, twenty and thirty year endowment and endowment at age of sixty-two. The rates that have been determined upon are from 25 per cent to 30 per cent under those of participating private life insurance companies, and all policies will contain a very liberal total disability clause. The government policies will also be participating.

The office of Representative George Hood has recommended that the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., be transferred from office of postmaster to a job as rural free delivery carrier for Pinebluff. His request has been granted by the postoffice.

John W. Hall, for ten years principal of the high school at Richlands, Onslow county, has removed his family from North Carolina to Washington. He will reside here permanently.

J. P. Boylin, of Wadesboro, and J. A. McAnaly, of Rockingham, are in Washington City. They are stopping at the Washington Hotel.

Representative E. Y. Webb is confined to his room at the Dewey Hotel with a cold.

Harry Rascoe, who as a porter at the Yarrowbough Hotel in Raleigh enjoyed a State-wide acquaintance, is ill in Washington with Spanish influenza. Harry is a member of the force of Senator Simmons.

Senator Lee S. Overman officially informed the Senate yesterday that his colleague, Senator Simmons, had been re-elected to the United States from North Carolina. The credentials carried the names of Gov. T. W. Bickett and Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes. The new six years term of Senator Simmons begins on March 4.

PEACE CONFERENCE AND GERMANY AND RUSSIA

(By the Associated Press.)

Paris, Jan. 18.—With the assembling of the first full session of the peace congress today the prospects of the notable assemblage of statesmen, making rapid progress with its work, seemed enhanced by the apparent defeat of Bolshevism in Germany, thus opening the way to the stabilizing of the government and the prospect of its being able to send responsible representatives to the conference.

The congress is expected to devote itself single-mindedly to the creation of a league of nations. A study of the methods by which the league can be organized will be committed formally to an inter-allied commission, sitting contemporaneously with the congress, which will present the result of its labors for ratification at the wind-up of the congress.

Russia Out at Present.

All questions at issue, of whatever kind, will be settled before the enemy delegates arrive, the allied ministers recognizing the vital importance of presenting an unbroken front to the enemy. As regards Russia, it is stated that the five leading powers have agreed that her representation by any Russian element is impossible for the moment. It is argued that the admission of former Premier Loeff or any other man who figured in previous Russian governments might give the Bolsheviki a chance to declare that the powers were supporting a monarchical regime.

It is understood that the method of work will be such that each delegation will record its opinion on each question in a memorandum which it will hand to the general secretariat. The five great powers, the organizers of the conference, will deliberate on these memoranda, either making a decision at once or inviting the delegates of the countries especially affected by the question at issue to come and discuss it with them.

Thus the representatives of the great powers will act, in a way as the arbitrators of the conflicting claims of the small nations.

By this method there will be few plenary sittings, there being no reason for holding them except when the question is one of ratifying an entire category of decisions affecting the assembled states as a whole and above all when the future organization of the world, that is to say the question of the league of nations, is dealt with.

being submerged by the periodic tide of the same injustice.

"What justice? Justice is the dream of conquest and imperialism, contempt for personal will, the arbitrary exchange of provinces between states, as though peoples were but articles of furniture or pieces in a game.

"You will naturally strive to secure the material and moral means of subsistence for all those people who are constituted or reconstituted in status, for those who wish to unite themselves to their neighbors, for those who divide themselves into separate units, for those who reconstitute themselves for those who divide themselves according to their regained traditions and, lastly, for all those who see freedom you have already sanctioned or are about to sanction. You will not call them into existence only to sentence them to death immediately because you would like your work in this as in all other matters, to be fruitful and lasting.

League of Nations.

"While introducing into the world as much harmony as possible you will, in conformity with the fourteenth of the propositions unanimously adopted by the great allied powers, establish a general league of nations which will be the supreme guarantee against any fresh assault upon the right of peoples. You do not intend this international association to be directed against anybody in the future. It will not, of a set purpose, shut out anybody, but having been organized by the nations that have sacrificed themselves in the defense of right, it will receive from them its statutes and fundamental rules.

Respect for Peace.

"I will say concerning the present or future adherence and, as it is to have for its essential aim the prevention of wars, it will, above all, seek to secure respect for the peace which you will have established and will find it the less difficult to maintain in proportion as this

NO INFLUENZA AT STATE COLLEGE NOW

Dr. W. C. Riddick, president of the State College, is proud of the fact that with over five hundred students coming from different sections of the State that there has not been a case of influenza developed since the opening of the school year.

It is even more remarkable that there has been no sickness worthy of mention and none whatever except among late arrivals. The general condition of the college grounds as well as the students' rooms is excellent and are always on the job to prevent anything which may make it possible for disease to get a start.

The students of the S. A. T. C. gained in weight from 10 to 30 pounds last fall and the present students bid fair to make a similar record.

ference that is to settle the peace of the world.

"I know of none better qualified, or as well qualified, to occupy this chair than Mr. Clemenceau. And I speak from my experience in his claim. He and I have not always agreed. We have often agreed, and we have sometimes expressed our disagreements very emphatically because we are ourselves.

No Waste of Time.

"But although there will be delays, and inevitable delays, in the signing of peace, due to the inherent difficulties of what we have to settle, I will guarantee from my knowledge of Mr. Clemenceau that there will be no waste of time. And that is important.

Hungry for Peace.

"The world is thirsting and hungry for peace. There are millions of people who want to get back to the world work of peace. And in the chair that Mr. Clemenceau will fill there will be proof that they will get back without any delays which are anything but essential in what we have to perform. He is one of the great speakers of the world. But no one knows better than he that the best speaking is that which impels beneficent actions.

Warm Feeling For Tiger.

"I have another reason. During the dark days we have passed through, his courage, his unflinching courtesy, his untiring energy, his inspiration, have helped the allies through to triumph and I know of no one to whom that victory is more attributable than the man who sits in this chair. In his own person, more than any living man, he represents the heroism, the indomitable people of his land.

"And for these reasons I count it a privilege that I should be expected to second this motion."

PAGE ANNOUNCES HE'S IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Lays Necessity For Step Now Upon Circumstances Over Which He Has No Control

(Special to The News and Observer.)

Biscoe, Jan. 18.—Hon. Robert N. Page has just issued a formal announcement to the Democratic voters of North Carolina of his determination to enter the Democratic primary in 1920 as a candidate for the nomination for Governor to succeed Mr. Bickett. His announcement follows:

"The announcement of one's self as a candidate for public position, while essential under modern conditions, is of necessity somewhat egotistical. It had been my hope that I might spare my fellow Democrats for at least twelve months yet. But circumstances over which I have no control seem to make it essential that I say at this time—eighteen months before the primary—is to be held, that I shall enter that primary as a Democratic candidate for the nomination for Governor to succeed Mr. Bickett.

"In doing so I am not unmindful of the high honor I am asking at the hands of my party associates, nor can I forget the responsibility attached to this place of leadership at this time. The world is at the dawn of a new, and many of us believe, a better day. If in this place I can render my State some service, my ambition will have been gratified.

"I have affiliated with the Democratic party all my life, rendering such service as was within my power, because I believed it the best instrument for the administration of our government. It owes me nothing. On the other hand, I am its debtor. Whether I am to be given the opportunity to serve my State in this capacity is with the people, and with their verdict I shall be content.

"Very respectfully, ROBERT N. PAGE.

"Biscoe, N. C. "January 19, 1919."

GERMANS KICK AGAINST ARMISTICE CONDITIONS

Say New Stipulations Mean Starvation; "Where Are Justice and Humanity?"

Berlin, Jan. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Chiefs of departments in the German government, especially the ministers of commerce and of trade, protest against acceptance by the German delegates of the latest armistice conditions, the fulfillment of which, they declare, "means for Germany the organized preparation of starvation."

The minister of commerce and labor, according to the Tagblatt, declares that Germany will be unable to replace the agricultural machinery taken because Germany lacks necessary metals, coal and trained laborers. He says German agriculture will be crippled if the machines are delivered to the allies.

The Boursen Courier says that Food Minister Wurm declared he first learned of the conditions through the press and that he could not accept the responsibility for the consequences. The Tagblatt asks in an editorial:

"Where are justice and humanity which were to dictate peace? We behold always force and only force and the German people, after such great physical and mental sufferings, are delivered over to destruction."

TERMS OF ARMISTICE EXTENDED ONE MONTH

(By the Associated Press.)

Paris, Jan. 18.—Marshal Foch, Admiral Browning, and the German armistice commissioners signed an agreement for a renewal of the armistice between the allies and Germany. The armistice is extended for one month and the extension will be renewed thereafter until the conclusion of peace, subject to the approval of the allied governments.

The principal terms of the renewal are substantially as has been already reported. In addition there is a clause by which the allied command reserves the right to occupy that part of the Strassbourg defense comprised by the forts on the eastern bank of the Rhine and a strip of territory from three to six miles beyond. Other clauses provide for the substitution for supplementary railroad material, fixed at five hundred locomotives and fifteen hundred cars by the protocol of December 17 by large quantities of industrial and agricultural implements, and give control of Russian prisoners in Germany to allied and associated delegates for repatriation. German headquarters at Berlin will act in collaboration with the allied and associated relief organizations in this phase of the work.

The naval clauses provide that all submarines must be turned over, including all submarine chasers, mine layers, sweepers, salvage ships and floating docks for submarines. They also stipulate that the building of all submarines must cease and those on the stocks must be dismantled or destroyed under allied supervision.

Germany undertakes to turn over all allied ships still detained in German ports. The clause providing that Germany shall place her mercantile marine at the disposal of the allies in return for food supplies, says that agreement in no affects the final disposition of those ships.

WOODS WILL SUCCEED GLASS IN CONGRESS

Lynchburg, Va., Jan. 18.—With 82 precincts out of 116, including the cities of Lynchburg, Roanoke and Radford, complete; the counties of Montgomery, Floyd, Roanoke and Campbell virtually complete and half of Bedford county reporting, the vote in today's primary for the democratic nomination for congress from the Sixth district was:

Woods, 2,311; Brown, 1,205; Hart, 963.

The missing precincts are small and cannot change the result. Nomination is equivalent to election, thus assuring James P. Woods, of Roanoke, the seat in Congress made vacant by the resignation of Representative Glass. Woods was nominated for both the short and the long terms.

It's just as well to burn your bridges behind you if you have any idea trouble is going to follow.

NO FRANKLIN COUNTY ON ACCOUNT OF INFLUENZA

Rev. G. F. Smith To Succeed Rev. N. H. D. Wilson As Pastor.

(Special to The News and Observer.)

Louisburg, Jan. 18.—There has been no event in Franklin county this week on account of the influenza epidemic, which is rapidly spreading again all over the county. All schools have been closed for an indefinite period. At no time since the disease first appeared has there been as many cases in Louisburg, and while there have been comparatively few deaths in the town, many are very ill, and in several homes every member of the family has been stricken. At Louisburg College only two cases have developed since school opened, one of these being discovered on the day the young lady arrived. Both cases are well quarantined, and it is believed there will be no further spread at the college.

The Methodist church is to have Rev. G. F. Smith as its pastor, succeeding Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, who was made presiding elder of the Washington district. Mr. Smith is no stranger in Louisburg, having served this charge more than twenty years ago. There was never a more popular pastor at this church than Mr. Smith, and every one regardless of denomination is glad to have him back again. Mrs. Smith shares her husband's popularity among the people here.

MAJ. S. P. BODDIE AT HOME ON SICK LEAVE.

Soldier From Louisburg Was Severely Wounded October 18.

Louisburg, Jan. 18.—Major S. P. Boddie of Louisburg, who saw duty overseas with the 129th Infantry, 20th Division A. E. F., is now at home on a sick leave. Major Boddie left Louisburg as Captain of Company D, but a few months after reaching France he was promoted to major of the 3rd Battalion. He was severely wounded on October 18th, and later moved to a base hospital in England. He landed at Hoboken Dec. 30, on the "Merritania," where he spent two weeks in a hospital. Several days ago he was transferred to the base hospital at Charlotte, and from there was given three months leave, but is required to report at the hospital every two weeks for an examination.

Major Boddie is one of Louisburg's most popular and prominent citizens, and the expressions of joy from every one at his safe return, are of the genuine kind. Not only are his home people proud of his magnificent military record, but they admire his high sense of duty to his country in his hour of need, which need he placed above all other considerations. Major Boddie has a wife, (who before their marriage was Miss Lucy Clifton), and three little daughters, who have cheerfully kept "The home fires burning" while he gladdly and freely gave his service "Over there."
