

WANTS TO RESUME CAROLINA TOURNEY

Golf Association To Begin Plans For Yearly Meeting of State Golfers

Charlotte, Feb. 19.—W. S. Lee, president of the Charlotte Country Club, announced tonight that J. E. Serrine, of Greenville, S. C., first vice president of the Carolina Golf Association will preside at a meeting of the executive committee of the association to be held in Charlotte Thursday, at which time the matter of resuming the annual meeting and tournaments of the golfers of the Carolinas will be decided. President Lee announced that by reason of the fact that President J. G. Adams, of Asheville, of the association has been requested by the War Department to sail immediately for France on governmental business the president will be present at the committee meeting, hence the sitting of Mr. Serrine.

At the beginning of the war the tournaments of the association were discontinued for obvious reasons, but since the signing of the armistice several of the clubs holding membership have suggested they be resumed. This will be acted upon at the Thursday meeting.

The executive committee will be entertained at dinner at the Southern manufacturers' Club at noon on Thursday and by the officers of the Charlotte Country Club, President Lee presiding, and at three o'clock an executive session will be held.

The Association membership is now composed of the Asheville Country Club, Charlotte Country Club, Durham Country Club, Raleigh Country Club, and the Southern Pines Country Club.

The officers are Mr. Adams, president, of Asheville; Mr. Serrine, first vice president, Greenville; William Shand, second vice president, of Columbia, and J. Alwyn Ball, secretary and treasurer.

REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS ON EXPORTS TO NEUTRALS URGED

Washington, Feb. 19.—Removal of restrictions on the exportation of American goods to neutral countries was urged in the House today by its representatives Wood, of New York, and Heflin, of Alabama.

If the War Trade Commission's trade with neutrals is suspended for three months, said Wood, foreign markets would have a lead which American goods could never overtake.

Representative Heflin said cotton producers were being forced to accept an abnormally low price for their product while the foreign demand was greater than at any other time in history.

Referring to the Caraway resolution for investigation of the New York Cotton Exchange he declared that "nothing but a conspiracy and concerted action on the part of the exchange could have driven the price of cotton futures below the price of spot cotton."

AMERICAN DOUGHBOYS ARE TOURING ITALY

Paris.—(N. E. A.)—American doughboys are sight-seeing in Italy. Most of them are men of Italian parentage. Special transportation facilities have been given by the Italian government. The visits were made possible by the society known as "Italia Gesu," which has maintained a home in Paris for soldiers on leave.

TRI-STATE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION WILL MEET NEXT AT WINSTON-SALEM

Dr. A. J. Crowell Chosen Vice-President For North Carolina

Richmond, Va., Feb. 19.—Dr. Robert C. Bryan, of this city was tonight elected president of the Tri-State Medical Association, succeeding Major Robert S. Cathcart, of Charleston, S. C. The Association includes members from Virginia and the two Carolinas. Dr. Bryan at the outbreak of the war made a trip of inspection of the military hospitals in France.

Other officers chosen were: Dr. Clifton M. Miller, vice president, of Virginia; Dr. A. J. Crowell, Charlotte, vice president for North Carolina; Dr. A. R. Taft, Charleston, vice president for South Carolina; Dr. Ralph E. Hughes, Laurens, S. C., secretary and treasurer. Winston-Salem was selected to entertain the convention next year.

In his address, Major Cathcart declared "there is no hospital, however small, that has a right to exist unless it can meet certain standard requirements. All hospitals are public service institutions. There is no such thing as a private hospital as regards their records and end-results, although privately owned."

PLAN FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS RAPPED

European powers by a mere vote of the league that matters under consideration might be decided.

"The executive council, which is to be the real agency of the league to enforce its findings, is to be limited to nine members, one each from the United States, France, Great Britain, Italy and Japan, and one each from four other states to be selected by the body of delegates. In other words, any five of the nine voting together can bind the United States without its consent to any matter falling within the province of the league."

"No matter how much the people of the United States may wish to avoid mixing in European or Asiatic politics any five of the nine members can fix the responsibility upon this country."

"To be specific article 19 authorizes the league to vest mandatory authority and select the nation to exercise it over such countries recently under other sovereignty and which are not yet regarded sufficiently able to maintain stable self government. This article means that by a vote of the league the United States would have to undertake the maintenance of the law and order in Armenia, for example, or a country in Africa."

"Moreover, any group of the nine can dictate the character of our defensive program as to the question of the size of armament, large or small, of any member of the league is apt to this vote by article eight."

Mr. Fess said the most dangerous feature of the proposed constitution to his mind was the provision which would make the United States a constituent part of a league which would exercise supreme authority through a body of delegates, without name or number, each of whom would have equal authority in all matters which would come before it affecting this country.

"The matters of consideration are not defined and therefore not limited," he said. "If the Monroe doctrine is included in the judgment of a majority of the members, what recourse have we after we have entered the league, which speaks by a majority vote? If immigration is included according to a majority of the league, what is our defense? If a tariff is included according to the judgment of the majority, what have we left but to surrender or commit a breach of covenant?"

"This nation should never under any circumstances surrender its sovereignty on any questions which pertain to its future welfare, to a vote of a league made up of an indeterminate number of countries whose major interests cannot be expected to be identical with our own."

Mr. Fess declared that once the United States had agreed to the proposed league it would not have the ### power to compel changes in the constitution for its benefit.

TAFT SCORES SENATORS WHO ARE OPPOSED TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 19.—"The gentlemen in the Senate who are setting out to defeat this league of nations are those I would not trust over night," former President William H. Taft said today at a luncheon given in his honor by civic organizations as a part of the program of the Pacific Coast Congress of the League to Enforce Peace.

"They are citing the constitution as an argument against it," continued Mr. Taft. "I revere and worship that great instrument, and it is a new story to me if the constitution prevents this people from playing their part in bringing peace and order and happiness to ourselves and the other peoples of the world."

"This is not a political question, God forbid. I am glad President Wilson went to Europe because he went bearing a promise of a league of nations."

"The application at this time of the doctrine of avoiding entangling alliances is reactionary to the extent of delaying world peace one hundred years. The question at this time is whether the whole great plan of the league of nations is to be defeated because we can't get a two-thirds majority of our Senate for its ratification."

NAVY RESERVE MEN HELD FOR BRIBERY AND GRAFT

Washington, Feb. 19.—Lieutenant Benjamin Davis, of Plymouth, Pa., attached to the medical corps, and Ensign Paul Beck, of New York City, both members of the naval reserve force, are under arrest at New York awaiting court-martial in connection with charges of bribery and graft in the third naval district.

In making this announcement tonight Secretary Daniels revealed that the arrest of a third naval officer had been ordered today. The name of this officer was not made public, however, as the naval authorities believed this would interfere with the progress of the general inquiry.

Lieut. Davis already has been court-martialed and sentenced to three years imprisonment, but approval of this verdict is being withheld Secretary Daniels said tonight pending the investigation of ten other charges against the officer.

Mr. Daniels said that at the first trial the court recommended a dismissal of Lieut. Davis from the navy, but that he had remanded the case for further consideration because the punishment was not severe enough. Later the three years sentence was recommended.

According to information given out at the department today a preliminary report of department officials who are conducting a searching investigation of the whole matter, mentioned specifically a bribe of $1,500 paid to secure a favorable medical report on an applicant who could not pass the naval physical requirements and another bribe of $500 alleged to have been paid to secure a desired detail for another man. The names of the men alleged to have paid and received these sums were not reported.

Reports of several additional instances of alleged bribery, but with names involved, were understood to have been made to the department. It was said that latest developments in the inquiry suggested the possibility of ### there having been collusion between some of the suspected men. Secretary Daniels, however, expressed the opinion today that the extent of the irregularities had been greatly exaggerated. Nothing has been found he added, to indicate that a similar situation exists at any other naval district.
