The proposal to have two Democratic members and one Republican member in signers of Jackson to deposit certain Democratic counties and two Republican members and one Democratic member in Republican counties will raise a' storm of opposition because those counties that have all Democratic boards are desirous of keeping them that way.

Senator Coward's amendment to the primary act providing that the judges and registrars shall be appointed at the same meeting of the boards as that held for organization instead of having to wait for a week, went through yesterday. It simply legalizes a practice that has already been started and makes no

TAR HEEL AVIATOR

Lieut. S. M. Connell Will Be With Corps Doing Aerial Photography Work

Lieut. Sam M. Connell, of Warrenton, a young aviator who has gained much notoriety by long flights in this country since America entered the war, has been assigned with an army aviation corps to do special serial photography in Panama. He left Raleigh early yesterday morning for New Orleans where he boards a transport for the canal. With him go 20 other aviators and about 100 flying machines. The airmen expect to remain in Panama for about a year. Young Connell has seen nearly two > seas. After receiving his training, he was assigned to different aviation camps as instructor. Last fall, he made a flight from New York to his home in Warrenton for his Thanksgiving dinner. The visit was a surprise to his mother. While en route he stopped over at Langley Field, Newport News, for "I have now cultivated a strong liking for aviation and never expect to give up flying unless my own careless-ness results in death," he said. The

Hunt Elected Vice-President To Fill Vacancy Caused By Death of Sluder

The executive committee of the North Carolina Bankers Association held its mid-winter meeting today. Those in attendance were President James A. Gray, of Winston-Salem; Secretary W. A. Hunt, of Henderson; committeemen, H. G. Kramer, of Elizabeth City; H. H. Taylor, of Kinston; B. B. Crowder, of Henderson; V. A. J. Idol, High Point; R. O. Miller, Mooreaville; C. E. Brooks, of Hendersonville; W. B. Drake, Jr., Raleigh.

President Gray called attention to the death of Mr. Erwin Sluder, of Asheville, who was vice president of the association and appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions on the loss of this honored and valued member.

Mr. W. A. Hunt, who some time since had announced his intention to retire as secretary of the association, was elected vice president to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Sluder. This was a fitting recognition of the many years of valuable service rendered by Mr. Hunt as secretary of the association. Winston-Salem was selected as the
