Polish-German Question Finally Disposed of By Council of Four Leaves Only Italian Problem

PARIS EXPECTS EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS NOT LATER THAN JUNE

Germans Are Expected to Give Little Opposition to Peace Terms As They Are Anxious For Return to Peace Conditions; Strike Continues in Berlin and in Bavaria Situation Is Acute; Helgoland Is To Be Dismantled But Fortification On Kiel Canal Will Be Allowed to Remain in Existence

ITALIAN QUESTION TODAY.

Paris, April 18.—By the Associated Press.—The Polish-German boundary question was finally disposed of by the council of four this morning. No announcement was made of the decisions taken, but it is understood that Danzig would be internationalized, while the Poles will have a corridor running from that city to their frontier to give them access to the sea.

Only routine work in connection with the coming of the German delegates was taken up in the afternoon. The most important remaining question to be settled is that of the Yugoslav and Italian claims in the Adriatic. This matter will come up tomorrow. Baron Sidney Sonnino, Italian Foreign Minister, will set forth the Italian case, it is expected. It was said tonight that the council of four intends to settle this question at tomorrow's session.

Little Opposition From Huns.

Little opposition to the peace terms is expected from the Germans, according to the latest reports in circulation in Paris, as they are declared to be anxious for a return to peace conditions at the earliest moment possible. It is asserted that there is to be no German text of the treaty—the document to be issued only in the French and English languages.

Will Leave Fortifications.

Brig. Gen. Richardson has arrived on an ice-breaker at Archangel to take command of the American forces fighting in that region. A message from General Pershing read by General Richardson to the American troops called upon them to maintain the morale that was expected of Americans.
