FOOD PRICES IN GERMANY ON THE DECLINE AND WHY

Stocks in Occupied Territory Exceed Demand; Berlin Last To Get Relief Berlin, Friday, July 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—In view of the impending raising of the blockade, the government's recent action in reducing the price of food staples is forcing food traffickers to get rid of hidden supplies. As a result a sharp decline in prices is reported from all sections of Germany, the most marked decreases being in the Rhenish zone of occupation, where they have fallen from 30 to 60 per cent.

As stocks in occupied territory apparently exceed the demand, large quantities are being shipped to Berlin, where good prices still prevail. Berlin probably will be the last city to enjoy appreciable price reductions, as much of its supplies must be shipped long distances.

It is reported from Weimar that the government will exercise active control of incoming war material and also exports. The latter part of the program is meeting with vigorous opposition in commercial and industrial export circles, where it is maintained that personal initiative would be more successful; abroad than government control. The clerical organ Germany, editorially opposes the injection of "bureaucratic compulsory measures" into the nation's economy during this transitory stage, and declares that German commerce "needs freedom."

with Mrs. Salter's brother, Mr. E. L. Beeton, as guest of honor. The guests were received by the hostesses, Mrs. D. M. Salter, and ushered in the large porch which was decorated with flags, and brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns. Punch was served by Mrs. Victor Howard, of La Grange.

Delightful games and contests were indulged in, after which the guests, led by the soldiers and sailors, marched in single file, into the dining hall. Here a pleasing address of welcome was delivered by Rev. J. M. Carraway, and a beautiful gold watch was presented to the guest of honor by little Miss Mildred Salter. Refreshments were served by Misses Florence and Ethel Carraway, Lena Ball, and Mittie Beeton, after which the guests retired to the parlor and porch where music was rendered by Miss Neta Carraway.

Take a Load Off Your Mind Anticipate your coal needs now. Or will you wait until next winter when mines, railroads and delivery service are taxed to the utmost and you may have to plead for coal at top prices, while your family's health is being jeopardized in cold rooms? Is there any percentage in the gamble? The percentage is all in your favor now at our mid-summer prices. And then there is the quality of coal to be considered. We are adequately supplied now with the very best coal—quality that will be very scarce later. This winter you will pay considerably more for coal of equal heat units and grade.
