Derrickson-Spearman.

Elizabeth City, July 12.—At 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the First Methodist Church of this city, Miss Frances Elizabeth Derrickson was wedded to Mr. Boy Johnston Spearman, of Lynchburg, Va., Rev. J. M. Ormond officiating.

The bride, since her earliest childhood, has been conspicuous for her unusual beauty and personal charm. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Derrickson of this city.

She entered the church with her father. Her wedding gown was of satin foundation and tulle, trimmed with pearls, and she carried a shower of white roses and snap dragons. Her matrons of honor were Mrs. C. W. Hollowell, of Elizabeth, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Banks Arndell, of Raleigh, both attired in orchid organdies and carrying pink roses.

Miss Margaret Griggs was maid of honor. She wore a pale green organdie and her flowers consisted of a shower of snap dragons.

The other attendants of the bride were: Miss Marie Martin, of Dover, Delaware; Miss Spearman, of Lynchburg; Miss Nellie Grace, and Miss Margaret Foreman, of Elizabeth City. Their costumes were of pale pink organdie with shower bouquets of yellow roses and sweet peas.

The groom's best man was Mr. Garland Alderman, of Greensboro, and the groomsmen were Mr. Walter Derrickson, of Elizabeth City; Mr. Allen Spearman, of Louisville, Ky.; Mr. Blair, of Lynchburg, Va.; and Mr. Vaughan, of Lynchburg, Va.

Mrs. I. M. Meekins rendered the wedding march and just prior to the arrival of the wedding party, Mr. Harold Foreman sang "I Love You."

BIG CROWDS ATTEND M'LENDON MEETING

Evangelist Arouses Great Interest in Sanford; Three Sermons For Today

Sanford, July 12.—Weighed in the Balances and Found Wanting" was the theme last night of one of the most impressive sermons Evangelist Barter F. McLendon has yet preached in Sanford. The half-hearted, insincere, hypocritical church member came in for a good share of his rebukes, which were most scathing.

At least 2,000 people heard the sermons, and it was a rather off night in the matter of attendance, threatening weather having deterred some. The meeting is getting into a good swing. Perhaps no evangelist who has ever sermons this week have been tranchant and characterized by intense earnestness and a consuming zeal. They have all been leading up to the sermon which he will preach Sunday night, in which he will relate his own marvellous experience and make his first altar call.

He will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock on "Twentieth Century Christianity," and at 4 o'clock on "Sail On." The three sermons which he will deliver Sunday are regarded his best. The music, under the direction of Professor Carroll, is quite an attractive feature of the meeting. The large chorus choir consisting of a hundred trained voices, is ably assisted by an orchestra of five pieces. Miss Ida Holmes and Mrs. W. M. Gilmore are presiding at the pianos.

Twenty-four trained ushers, of which J. W. Cunningham is chief, are handling the large crowds with ease. The whole campaign is thoroughly organized under the direction of Dr. Martin. A delightful feature last night was a duet by Mrs. Steidley and Mr. Marshall.

WILSON'S LUCKY NUMBER "13" RUNS TRUE TO FORM AGAIN

Best, July 12.—President Wilson was faithful to his predilection for No. 13 in his selection of the naval unit which escorted him to America. The destroyers Woolsey, Tarbell, Yarnall and Wickes upon which fell the honor of conveying him home, are down in naval records in Washington as the thirteenth destroyer division.

On the 13th of December, 1918, this flotilla of destroyers came into Brest harbor as escort to the George Washington bearing President Wilson on his official visit to France.

On the 13th of February, 1919, this 13th destroyer division sailed out of Brest Roads conveying the George Washington as far as the Azores upon the President's return home for his short stay.

In March the same flotilla received orders to meet the George Washington at a given longitude and latitude off the Azores. They were at the rendezvous and brought the President into Brest. The date was March 13, 1919.

On the 13th of February, 1919, this 13th destroyer division sailed out of Brest Roads conveying the George Washington as far as the Azores upon the President's return home for his short stay.
