MANY OPPORTUNITIES IN CLEANING AND DYEING

Washington, July 12.—There are thousands of opportunities for young men to learn the cleaning and dyeing business and to earn a reasonable salary at the same time that they are learning the work.

The labor service in the cleaning and dyeing industry is in a very unsatisfactory condition. Skilled workmen in the cleaning plants are very scarce, although this trade, which might more properly be called an art is very remunerative and interesting.

A number of progressive establishments are permitting inexperienced men to enter their workrooms and gradually learn the business by actual contact with the various simple and scientific processes.

NEW LEADERS MAKE POSITION STRONGER

Further Gains Promised This Week As They Meet Weaker Eastern Teams

New York, July 13.—At the mid-season mark, the Cincinnati Nationals and the Chicago Americans, jumped into the lead in their respective leagues last week and meeting weaker eastern teams during the coming week, have an opportunity to make gains on their New York rivals who face stronger opponents.

Steady pitching and good batting put Cincinnati to the fore in a see-saw struggle for the top position. A double victory over Pittsburgh last Sunday gave the Reds a one-point advantage over New York which resumed the lead Monday by beating Philadelphia twice.

Chicago Going Well. In the American League, Chicago scored two victories over Detroit and four straight over Philadelphia. Faber beat the Athletics twice Wednesday, pitching part of the first game.

Chicago won a slugging match from St. Louis and retained fourth place by beating Brooklyn twice in three attempts.

Other American Teams. Cleveland lost two and won one with St. Louis and failed to take advantage of New York's slump by losing a double-header Saturday to Washington.

Prono to Desert. Tokio, July 13.—Japanese shipping companies are embarrassed by the increasing tendency among the crews of their steamers to desert at foreign ports.

COL. CAMERON IS HELPING MOVEMENT

North Carolina Good Roads Enthusiast Is Boosting the Lincoln Highway

Col. Bennehas Cameron, who, as chairman of the Transport Committee of the National Council of Defense in North Carolina, was aiding the United States in organizing its motor transport corps of 300,000 men and $130,000,000 of trucks, when the armistice came and stopped it all, was in Washington recently in the interest of the motor service for the army—for rural and for parcel post service.

Col. Cameron is co-operating with his old friend, Dr. Samuel Johnson, of New Mexico, whom the Bureau of Public Roads sent to Raleigh last winter to address the Legislature in regard to its road bill to meet the Federal aid appropriation.

Colonel Cameron and Dr. Johnson are urging the retention of the motor truck corps and the great base shops for the repair and rebuilding of motor vehicles. They point out that at an expense of fifteen million dollars the government has built these shops at Baltimore, Atlanta, San Antonio and El Paso.

SUMMER SCHOOL GIRLS, WITH COL. FRED OLDS, KEEP UP SIGHT-SEEING

Spend Saturday Looking Over Weather Bureau, Auditorium and Masonic Lodge

The summer school at the State Agricultural and Engineering College had its fifth week end outing Saturday and made a study of four points. First, it was taken by the director of this line of work, Col. Olds, to the Weather Bureau and there a special lecture, illustrated by the various instruments, was effectively given by Section Director Lee A. Deason, this being the central station for all North Carolina. He told of the invaluable work done by the equipment, which records heat and cold, rainfall, the status of the atmosphere, the percentage of sunshine, the direction and velocity of the wind and various other things.

The splendid lodge room of the Grand Lodge of Masons in the Temple was next visited and talks were made by Director Olds about some of the noted Masons whose portraits are in the admirably arranged collection.

For the school there have been arranged various mid-week amusements, including the movies, down town; an evening picnic at the Country Club, with supper on the grounds; a reception by Governor and Mrs. Bickett in the Governor's office and the executive mansion, an evening party on the roof of the Commercial National Bank and plenty of joy-rides in which they have come to learn Raleigh very well.

The next visit was paid to the Auditorium, to which the visitors were taken by Mayor James Irwell Johnson. Most people in the State have heard in one way or another of this Auditorium, a great asset to both Raleigh and North Carolina, which has been the scene of so many stirring and fine events.

Another visit was paid to the Wake county court house, which ranks among the best in the State, and in the health office for the county and city, in the basement, a valuable talk was made by the chief health officer, who dwelt particularly upon the necessity of anti-typhoid vaccination.

During their five Saturday tours the Summer School people have been shown the Capitol, Governor's Mansion, State Museum, Soldiers' Home, Hall of History, Supreme Court, Library, Hospital for the Insane, Epileptic Colonies, State Prison, the Laboratory of Hygiene; Methodist Orphanage, Woman's Club, Christ Church, Church of the Good Shepherd, Y. M. C. A., Country Club, Commercial National Bank, in addition to the points visited yesterday.
